Islam And Aids Between Scorn Pity And Justice:

Muslim and Catholic Responses to HIV and AIDS in Kenya Timothy James Carey, 2018-09-15 In the capital city of Nairobi Kenya African Catholic and Sunni Muslim leaders addressing HIV and AIDS are faced with a unique challenge On the one hand they are called to attend to the spiritual wellbeing of the infected individual on the other hand they are increasingly charged with serving as the stewards of the physical bodies of those negatively affected by such a physiologically debilitating and social stigmatized disease through certain identifiable interreligious traditions common to both faiths This book explores this development firsthand While conducting fieldwork in Nairobi Carey interviewed Muslim and Catholic leaders working in three areas HIV and AIDS prevention education and destigmatization These recorded observations and accounts help to illustrate that religious officials from within African Catholicism and Sunni Islam are attempting to provide the common inter religious traditions of mercy hospitality and justice in a holistic manner for those living with the virus in the city The research that produced this book involved six weeks of fieldwork during the summer of 2014 to help fill in the interstices between anthropological sociological and ethnographic accounts provided by other leading academics in their respective fields It presumed that religious traditions in Kenya exhibit a susceptibility to culture and context and a practical openness to its social environment which then affords this particular work a unique theological perspective in its attempt to identify and analyze patterns of social behavior and religious organization Islam and AIDS Farid Esack, Sarah Chiddy, 2009-01-19

Islam and AIDS is the first book to comprehensively address the HIV AIDS pandemic from an Islamic perspective with contributions from a number of internationally known activists and scholars of Islam including Kecia Ali and Abdulaziz Sachedina With an introduction by Peter Piot Director of the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV AIDS this landmark work provides an insight into new possibilities of critical and progressive Islamic approaches in both law and ethics to one of the most urgent crises facing humankind today Covering emotive issues such as gender justice poverty health disease addiction and sexuality Islam and AIDS provides the religious analysis so essential for the communities at the forefront of the epidemic Islam and Health Policies Related to HIV Prevention in Malaysia Sima Barmania, Michael J.

Reiss, 2017-10-26 This salient text presents a culturally aware public health approach to the HIV epidemic in Malaysia a country emblematic of the Muslim world s response to the crisis It explores complex interactions of religion with health as a source of coping as well as stigma and denial particularly as Islam plays a central role in Malaysian culture politics and policy At the heart of the book a groundbreaking study analyzes attitudes and behaviors toward prevention among diverse people living with HIV faith leaders and government health officials From these findings readers gain insight into how health professionals policymakers and organizations can create appropriate prevention programs in Malaysia with implications for other Muslim countries This timely volume Situates Malaysia and the Asian Pacific region in the context of the HIV epidemic Analyzes ways Islamic beliefs can shape perceptions of HIV and prevention policy Reviews a unique study of stakeholder opinions and practices regarding HIV Discusses the consequences of Islamic rulings on sex outside marriage Offers recommendations for effective HIV prevention practice and policy Islam and Health Policies Related to HIV Prevention in Malaysia is of immediate relevance to researchers studying HIV prevention social aspects of religion sexuality and sex education Policymakers in health promotion and health education as well as graduate students in sex education sociology psychology and cultural studies should also find it useful

African Initiated Churches Facing HIV and AIDS in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2021-07-07 This book examines the responses of African Initiated Churches to HIV in Zimbabwe It describes the changing attitudes of African Initiated Churches to the pandemic exploring the adjustments that have been undertaken to both doctrine and practice within the movement The contributors show how the rigidity that often characterizes African Initiated Churches such as opposing the use of condoms insisting on polygamy and insisting exclusively on faith healing have gradually given way to more constructive approaches to HIV and AIDS

Feminist Edges of the Qur'an Aysha A. Hidayatullah, 2014-04-01 Aysha Hidayatullah presents the first comprehensive analysis of contemporary feminist interpretations of the Qur'an Synthesizing prominent feminist readings of the Qur'an in the United States since the late twentieth century she provides an essential introduction to this nascent field of Qur'anic scholarship and engages in a deep investigation as well as a radical critique of its methods and approaches With a particular focus on feminist impassions in the Qur'anic text she argues that many feminist interpretations rely on claims about feminist justice that are not fully supported by the text and she proposes a major revision to their exegetical foundations A provocative work of Muslim feminist theology Feminist Edges of the Qur'an is a vital intervention in urgent conversations about women and the Qur'an

The Imperatives of Progressive Islam Adis Duderija, 2017-02-03 With the proliferation of transnational Muslim networks over the last two decades the religious authority of traditionally educated Muslim scholars the ulama has come under increasing scrutiny and disruption These networks have provided a public space for multiple perspectives on Islam to be voiced allowing progressive Islamic worldviews to flourish alongside more neo traditional outlooks This book brings together the scholarship of leading progressive Muslim scholars incorporating issues pertaining to politics jurisprudence ethics theology epistemology gender and hermeneutics in the Islamic tradition It provides a comprehensive discussion of the normative imperatives behind a progressive Muslim thought as well as outlining its various values and aims Presenting this emerging and distinctive school of Islamic thought in an engaging and scholarly manner this is essential reading for any academic interested in contemporary religious thought and the development of modern Islam

Strings Attached Nadine Beckmann, Alessandro Gusman, Catrine Shroff, 2014-05-01 Religion and AIDS are transforming African public and private domains This book questions why so much of the transnational religious engagement has seemed to serve conservative values and explores connections between Europe North America and Africa highlighting how these carry both financial resources for HIV AIDS work and moral values

Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van Klinken, 2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them

Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa

African Traditions in the Study of Religion, Diaspora and Gendered Societies Ezra Chitando, 2016-04-01 The historiography of African religions and religions in Africa presents a remarkable shift from the study of Africa as Object to Africa as Subject thus translating the subject from obscurity into the global community of the academic study of religion This book presents a unique multidisciplinary exploration of African Traditions in the Study of Religion Diaspora and Gendered Societies The book is structured under two main sections The first provides insights into the interface between Religion and Society The second features African Diaspora together with Youth and Gender which have not yet featured prominently in studies on religion in Africa Contributors drawn from diverse African and global contexts situate current scholarly traditions of the study of African religions within the purview of academic encounter and exchanges with non African scholars and non African contexts African scholars enrich the study of religions from their respective academic and methodological orientations Jacob Kehinde Olupona stands out as a pioneer in the socio scientific interpretation of African indigenous religion and religions in Africa and the new African Diaspora This book honours his immense contribution to an emerging field of study and research

Ethics Miguel A. De La Torre, 2013-01-01 This survey text for religious ethics and theological ethics courses explores how ethical concepts defined as liberationist which initially was a Latin American Catholic phenomenon is presently manifest around the globe and within the United States across different racial ethnic and gender groups Authored by several contributors this book elucidates how the powerless and disenfranchised within marginalized communities employ their religious beliefs to articulate a liberationist liberative religious ethical perspective Students will thus comprehend the diversity existing within the liberative ethical discourse and know which scholars and texts to read and will encounter practical ways to further social justice
