Islam And New Kinship Reproductive Technology And The Shariah In Lebanon:

Islam and New Kinship Morgan Clarke, 2009-06-01 Assisted reproductive technologies such as in vitro fertilization have provoked global controversy and ethical debate This book provides a groundbreaking investigation into those debates in the Islamic Middle East simultaneously documenting changing ideas of kinship and the evolving role of religious authority in the region through a combination of in depth field research in Lebanon and an exhaustive survey of the Islamic legal literature Lebanon home to both Sunni and Shiite Muslim communities provides a valuable site through which to explore the overall dynamism and diversity of global Islamic debate As this book shows Muslim perspectives focus on the moral propriety of such controversial procedures as the use of donor sperm and eggs as well as surrogacy arrangements which are allowed by some authorities using surprising and innovative legal arguments These arguments challenge common stereotypes of the rigidity and conservatism of Islamic law and compel us to question conventional contrasts between liberal and Islamic notions of moral freedom as well as the epistemological assumptions of anthropology's own new kinship studies This book will be essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary Islam and the impact of reproductive technology on the global social imaginary

Islam and Assisted Reproductive Technologies Marcia C. Inhorn, Soraya Tremayne, 2012-07-01 How and to what extent have Islamic legal scholars and Middle Eastern lawmakers as well as Middle Eastern Muslim physicians and patients grappled with the complex bioethical legal and social issues that are raised in the process of attempting to conceive life in the face of infertility This path breaking volume explores the influence of Islamic attitudes on Assisted Reproductive Technologies ARTs and reveals the variations in both the Islamic jurisprudence and the cultural responses to ARTs Islam and Law in Lebanon Morgan Clarke, 2018-06-21 The modern state of Lebanon created after the fall of the Ottoman Empire is home to eighteen officially recognised different religious communities or sects Crucially political office and representation came to be formally shared along confessional lines and the privileges of power are distributed accordingly One such key prerogative is exclusivity when it comes to personal status laws the family legal affairs of each community In this book Morgan Clarke offers an authoritative and dynamic account of how the sharia is invoked both with Lebanon's state legal system as Muslim family law and outside it as a framework for an Islamic life and society By bringing together an in depth analysis of Lebanon's state sponsored sharia courts with a look at the wider world of religious instruction this book highlights the breadth of the sharia and the complexity of the contexts within which it is embedded

Reproductive Technologies as Global Form Michi Knecht, 2012-07 In the thirty five years since the first test tube baby in vitro fertilization and other methods of reproductive assistance have become a common aspect of family life and medicine in affluent nations and increasingly throughout the world How do persons seeking treatment donors and medical experts make use of these reproductive technologies How in crossing borders between nations do they manage to evade legal and bioethical regulations And how do they make sense of these new modes of making kinship against the backdrop of diverse world views and social settings Filiation and the Protection of Parentless Children Nadjma Yassari, Lena-Maria Möller, Marie-Claude Najm, 2019-07-03 This book contains selected contributions presented during the workshop Establishing Filiation Towards a Social Definition of the Family in Islamic and Middle Eastern Law which was convened in Beirut Lebanon in November 2017 Filiation is a multifaceted concept in Muslim jurisdictions Beyond its legal aspect it encompasses the notion of inclusion and belonging thereby holding significant social implications Being the child of someone carrying one's father's name and inheriting from both parents form important pillars of personal identity This volume explores filiation nasab and alternative forms of a full parent child relationship in Muslim jurisdictions Eleven country reports ranging from Morocco to Malaysia examine how maternal and paternal filiation is established be it by operation of the law by the parties exercise of autonomy such as acknowledgement or by scientific means DNA testing in particular and how lawmakers courts and society at large view and treat children who fall outside those legal structures especially children born out of wedlock or under dubious circumstances In a second step alternative care schemes in place for the protection of parentless children are examined and their potential to recreate a legal parent child relationship is discussed In addition to the country specific analyses included in this book three further contributions explore the subject matter from perspectives of premodern Sunni legal doctrine premodern Shiite legal doctrine and the private international law regimes of contemporary Arab countries Finally a comparative analysis of the themes explored is presented in the synopsis at the end of this volume The book is aimed at scholars in the fields of Muslim family law and comparative family law and is of high practical relevance to legal practitioners working in the area of international child law Nadjma Yassari is Leader of the Research Group Changes in God's Law An Inner Islamic Comparison of Family and Succession Law at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law while Lena Maria Möller is a Senior Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute and a member of the same Research Group Marie Claude Najm is a Professor in the Faculty of Law and Political Science at Saint Joseph University of Beirut in Lebanon and Director of the Centre of Legal Studies and Research for the Arab World CEDROMA The Scandal of Continuity in Middle East Anthropology Judith Scheele, Andrew Shryock, 2021-12-22 An exciting and intellectually fluent work that avoids most of the clichés of contemporary anthropological thought Gregory Starrett coeditor of Teaching Islam Textbooks and Religion in the Middle East Despite a rich history of ethnographic research in Middle Eastern societies the region is frequently portrayed as marginal to anthropology The contributors to this volume reject this view and show how the Middle East is in fact vital to the discipline and how Middle Eastern anthropologists have developed theoretical and methodological tools that address and challenge the region's political ethical and intellectual concerns The contributors are students of Paul Dresch an anthropologist known for his incisive work on Yemeni tribalism and customary law As they expand upon his ideas and insights these essays ask questions that have long preoccupied anthropologists such as how do place point of view and style combine to create viable bodies of knowledge how is scholarship shaped by the historical context in which it is located and why have duration and form become so problematic in the study of Middle Eastern societies Special attention is given to understanding local terms contested knowledge claims what remains unseen and unsaid in social life and to cultural patterns and practices that persist over long stretches of time seeming to predate and outlast events Ranging from Morocco to India these essays offer critical but sensitive approaches to cultural difference and the distinctiveness of the anthropological project in the Middle East

The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Law Anver M. Emon, Rume Ahmed, 2018-10-25 This volume provides a comprehensive survey of the contemporary study of Islamic law and a critical analysis of its deficiencies Written by outstanding senior and emerging scholars in their fields it offers an innovative historiographical examination of the field of Islamic law and an ideal introduction to key personalities and concepts While capturing the state of contemporary Islamic legal studies by chronicling how far the field has come the Handbook also explains why certain debates recur and indicates fundamental gaps in our knowledge Each chapter presents bold new avenues for research and will help readers appreciate the contested nature of key concepts and topics in Islamic law This Handbook will be a major reference work for scholars and students of Islam and Islamic law for years to come

Islamic Law in Practice Mashood A. Baderin, 2017-03-02 Islamic law influences the lives of Muslims today as aspects of the law are applied as part of State law in different forms in many areas of the world This volume provides a much needed collection of articles that explore the complexities involved in the application of Islamic law within the contemporary legal systems of different countries today with particular reference to Saudi Arabia Morocco Indonesia Nigeria Turkey Malaysia and Pakistan The articles identify the relevant areas of difficulties and also propose possible ways of realising a more effective and equitable application of Islamic law in the contemporary world The volume features an introductory overview of the subject as well as a comprehensive bibliography to aid further research

Iranian Romance in the Digital Age Janet Afary, Jesilyn Faust, 2021-01-28 Following the 1979 Islamic Revolution there was a dramatic reversal of women's rights and the state revived many premodern social conventions through modern means and institutions Customs such as the enforced veiling of women easy divorce for men child marriage and polygamy were robustly reintroduced and those who did not conform to societal strictures were severely punished At the same time new social and economic programs benefited the urban and rural poor especially women which had a direct impact on gender relations and the institution of marriage Edited by Janet Afary and Jesilyn Faust this interdisciplinary volume responds to the growing interest and need for literature on gender marriage and family relations in the Islamic context The book examines how the institution of marriage transformed in Iran paying close attention to the country's culture and politics Part One examines changes in urban marriages to new forms of cohabitation In Part Two contributors such as Soraya Tremayne explore the way technology and social media has impacted and altered the institution of family Part Three turns its eye to look at marital changes in the rural and tribal sectors of society through the works of anthropologists including Erika Friedl and Mary Hegland Based on the work of both new and established scholars the book provides an up to date study of an important and intensely politicized subject The Online World of Surrogacy Zsuzsa Berend, 2016-09-01 Zsuzsa Berend presents a methodologically innovative ethnography of SurroMomsOnline.com the largest surrogacy support website in the United States Surrogates' views emerge from the stories, debates and discussions that unfold online The Online World of Surrogacy documents these collective meaning-making practices and explores their practical, emotional and moral implications In doing so the book works through themes of interest across the social sciences including definitions of parenthood the symbolic role of money reproductive loss altruism and the moral valuation of relationships Nighttime Breastfeeding Cecília Tomori, 2014-10-01 Nighttime for many new parents in the United States is fraught with the intense challenges of learning to breastfeed and helping their babies sleep so they can get rest themselves Through careful ethnographic study of the dilemmas raised by nighttime breastfeeding and their examination in the context of anthropological, historical and feminist studies this volume unravels the cultural tensions that underlie these difficulties As parents negotiate these dilemmas they not only confront conflicting medical guidelines about breastfeeding and solitary infant sleep but also larger questions about cultural and moral expectations for children and parents and their relationship with one another Globalized Fatherhood Marcia C. Inhorn, Wendy Chavkin, José-Alberto Navarro, 2014-10-01 Using an entirely new conceptual vocabulary through which to understand men's experiences and expectations at the dawn of the twenty-first century this path-breaking volume focuses on fatherhood around the globe including transformations in fathering, fatherhood and family life It includes new work by anthropologists, sociologists and cultural geographers working in settings from Peru to India to Vietnam Each chapter suggests that men are responding to globalization as fathers in creative and unprecedented ways not only in the West but also in numerous global locations Relatedness in Assisted Reproduction Tabitha Freeman, Susanna Graham, Fatemeh Ebtehaj, Martin Richards, 2014-08-14 This multidisciplinary book addresses the nature and meaning of relationships and identity in assisted conception families A Companion to Muslim Cultures Aryn Sajoo, 2011-11-22 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Culture shapes every aspect of the relationship between God and the believer in Islam as well as among believers and with those beyond the fold Fasts, prayers and pilgrimages are attuned to social rhythms old and new no less than the designs of mosques and public gardens the making of religious music and ways of thinking about technology and wellbeing Ancient deserts and modern urban landscapes may echo with the same call for transcendence but in voices that emerge from very different everyday realities Scripture itself as the Prophet Muhammad knew is ever seen through a cultural lens both language and what it communicates are intimately tied to context And the cosmopolitanism that runs through Muslim history from the outset recalls T. S. Eliot's remark that culture is that which makes life worth living It frames how the deepest religious values are understood and practiced from modesty in adornment and solidarity with the underprivileged to integrity and accountability in political life Muslims have never been content with a passive separation of faith from their daily lives whether public or private What are the implications of this holistic view in a diverse world of Muslims and non Muslims How do core ethical values interface with the particulars of local cultures in all their complexity especially when it comes to matters like the status of women and the scope of individual religious freedom The answers at a time when secular and Muslim identities appear to be locked in conflict are explored in this Companion by some of today's finest scholars

Sextarianism Maya Mikdash, 2022-05-03 The Lebanese state is structured through religious freedom and secular power sharing across sectarian groups Every sect has specific laws that govern kinship matters like marriage or inheritance Together with criminal and civil laws these laws regulate and produce political difference But whether women or men Muslims or Christians queer or straight all people in Lebanon have one thing in common they are biopolitical subjects forged through bureaucratic ideological and legal techniques of the state With this book Maya Mikdash offers a new way to understand state power theorizing how sex sexuality and sect shape and are shaped by law secularism and sovereignty Drawing on court archives public records and ethnography of the Court of Cassation the highest civil court in Lebanon Mikdash shows how political difference is entangled with religious secular and sexual difference She presents state power as inevitably contingent like the practices of everyday life it engenders focusing on the regulation of religious conversion the curation of legal archives state and parastatal violence and secular activism Sextarianism locates state power in the experiences transitions uprisings and violence that people in the Middle East continue to live

Elusive Adulthoods Deborah Durham, Jacqueline Solway, 2017-10-12 Essays on the changing meanings of adulthood in places around the world An important collection that furthers anthropological work on life stages Susan Reynolds Whyte author of Generations in Africa Connections and Conflicts Elusive Adulthoods examines why in recent years complaints about an inability to achieve adulthood have been heard in societies around the world By exploring the changing meaning of adulthood in Botswana China Sudan Papua New Guinea Russia Sri Lanka Uganda and the United States contributors to this volume pose the problem of What is adulthood and examine how the field of anthropology has come to overlook this meaningful stage in its studies Through these case studies we discover different means of recognizing the achievement of adulthood such as through negotiated relationships with others including grown children and as a form of upward class mobility We also encounter the difficulties that come from a sense of having missed full adulthood instead jumping directly into old age in the course of rapid social change or a reluctance to embrace the stability of adulthood and necessary subordination to job and family In all cases the contributors demonstrate how changing political and economic factors form the background for generational experience and understanding of adulthood which is a major focus of concern for people around the globe as they negotiate changing ways of living

Applied Anthropology Sheena Nahm, Cortney Hughes Rinker, 2015-10-16 This collection brings together recent innovative work in applied and practicing anthropology Organised around the theme of unexpectedness it examines some of the novel spaces topics and methods that anthropologists are involved with The volume emphasises non traditional settings and demonstrates the important role of anthropology in addressing some of the pressing issues facing society today The contributors offer detailed ethnographic examples from their own research and work that give students valuable insight and advice Drawn mainly from the United States the case studies illustrate the diverse arenas in which anthropologists operate from law and finance to education and health care Simultaneous consideration is given to practical applications theoretical reflections and professional experiences

Genealogical History in the Persianate World Jo-Ann Gross, Daniel Beben, 2025-06-26 Scholarship on the Muslim world has recently begun to pay increased attention to non literary genres of documentation as sources for historical research Genealogical writings are one form of such documentation that has demonstrated significant potential for addressing a wide range of research concerns particularly for topics that receive little attention in historical chronicles and other state centered narrative sources However while genealogical documentation has received some attention in scholarship on the Arab world it remains mostly unstudied in scholarship on Persianate societies The chapters in this book offer reflections on theoretical and methodological issues concerning the study of genealogical documentation combined with case studies based primarily on previously unpublished unstudied source materials The topics explored span the full breadth of the Persianate world from Anatolia to the Ferghana Valley in Central Asia to the Gujarat region of India utilizing sources dating from the fourteenth to the twentieth century The book will be of significant interest to scholars and students of Islamic history and the Persianate ecumene as well as readers in other fields interested in comparative research demonstrating the use of genealogical documentation as historical sources

Arab Masculinities Konstantina Isidoros, Marcia C. Inhorn, 2022-01-04 Arab Masculinities provides a groundbreaking analysis of Arab men s lives in the precarious aftermath of the 2011 Arab uprisings It challenges received wisdoms and entrenched stereotypes about Arab men offering new understandings of masculinity across the Middle East and North Africa The 10 individual chapters of the book foreground the voices and stories of Arab men as they face economic precarity forced displacement and new challenges to marriage and family life Rich in ethnographic details they illuminate how men develop alternative strategies of affective labor how they attempt to care for themselves and their families within their local moral worlds and what it means to be a good son husband father and community member Arab Masculinities sheds light on the most private spaces of Arab men s lives offering stories that rarely enter the public realm It is a pioneering volume that reflects the urgent need for new anthropological scholarship on men and masculinities in a changing Middle East

Islam Cenap Çakmak, 2017-05-18 This expansive four volume encyclopedia presents a broad introduction to Islam that enables learning about the fundamental role of Islam in world history and promotes greater respect for cultural diversity One of the most popular and widespread religions in the world Islam has attracted a great deal of attention in recent times particularly in the Western world With the ongoing tensions in the Middle East and a pervasive sense of hostility toward Arab Americans there is ever increasing need to examine and understand Islam as a religion and historical force Islam A Worldwide Encyclopedia provides some 700 entries on Islam written by expert contributors that cover the religion from the birth of Islam to the present time The set also includes 16 pages of color images per volume that serve to illustrate the diverse expressions of this important religious tradition Each entry begins with a basic introduction followed by a general discussion of the subject and a conclusion Each entry also features a further readings list for readers In addition to supplying a comprehensive authoritative overview of Islam this work also specifically addresses many controversial related issues including jihad violence in Islam polygamy and apostasy

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
