Islam Standards Technoscience Routledge Anthropology:

Islam, Standards, and Technoscience Johan Fischer, 2015-10-23 Halal literally permissible or lawful production trade and standards have become essential to state regulated Islam and to companies in contemporary Malaysia and Singapore giving these two countries a special position in the rapidly expanding global market for halal products in these nations state bodies certify halal products as well as spaces shops factories and restaurants and work processes and so consumers can find state halal certified products from Malaysia and Singapore in shops around the world Building on ethnographic material from Malaysia Singapore and Europe this book provides an exploration of the role of halal production trade and standards Fischer explains how the global markets for halal comprise divergent zones in which Islam markets regulatory institutions and technoscience interact and diverge Focusing on the bigger institutional picture that frames everyday halal consumption Fischer provides a multisited ethnography of the overlapping technologies and techniques of production trade and standards that together warrant a product as halal and thereby help to format the market Exploring global halal in networks training laboratories activism companies shops and restaurants this book will be an essential resource to scholars and students of social science interested in the global interface zones between religion standards and technoscience The Routledge Companion to Anthropology and Business Raza Mir, Anne-Laure Fayard, 2020-06-11 Interest in anthropology and ethnography has been an ongoing feature of organizational research and pedagogy this book provides a key reference text that pulls together the different ways in which anthropology infuses the study of organizations both epistemologically and methodologically The volume hosts key scholars and experts within the fields of Organizational Anthropology Organizational Ethnography Organizational Studies and Qualitative Research The book provides a combination of methodological guidelines exemplars and epistemological reflection It includes methodological viewpoints ethnographic journeys within organizations as well as beyond organizations and individual reflections on challenges faced by organizational ethnographers This book is aimed at PhD master and advanced undergraduate students and researchers across disciplines especially those who are engaged with general management organizational behaviour strategy and anthropological ethnographic issues The Oxford Handbook of Law and Anthropology Marie-Claire Foblets, Mark Goodale, Maria Sapi gnoli, Olaf Zenker, 2022-04-01 The Oxford Handbook of Law and Anthropology is a ground breaking collection of essays that provides an original and internationally framed conception of the historical theoretical and ethnographic interconnections of law and anthropology Each of the chapters in the Handbook provides a survey of the current state of scholarly debate and an argument about the future direction of research in this dynamic and interdisciplinary field The structure of the Handbook is animated by an overarching collective narrative about how law and anthropology have and should relate to each other as intersecting domains of inquiry that address such fundamental questions as dispute resolution normative ordering social organization and legal political and social identity The need for such a comprehensive project has become even more pressing as lawyers and anthropologists work together in an ever increasing number of areas including immigration and asylum processes international justice forums cultural heritage certification and monitoring and the writing of new national constitutions among many others The Handbook takes critical stock of these various points of intersection in order to identify and conceptualize the most promising areas of innovation and sociolegal relevance as well as to acknowledge the points of tension open questions and areas for future development

Routledge Handbook of Islam in the West Roberto Tottoli, 2022-02-21 With new topics and contributions this updated second edition discusses the history and contemporary presence of Islam in Europe and America The book debates the relevance and multi faceted participation of Muslims in the dynamics of Western societies challenging the changing perception on both sides Collating over 30 chapters written by experts from around the world the volume presents a wide range of perspectives Case studies from the Muslim presence in the Iberian Peninsula between the Middle Ages and the modern age set off the Handbook along with an outline of Muslims in America up to the twentieth century The second part covers concepts around new conditions in terms of consolidating identities the emergence of new Muslim actors the appearance of institutions and institutional attitudes the effects of Islamic presence on the arts and landscapes of the West and the relational dynamics like ethics and gender Exploring the influence of Islam particularly its impact on society culture and politics this interdisciplinary volume is a key resource for policymakers academics and students interested in the history of Islam religion and the contemporary relationship between Islam and the West

Meeting Ethnography Jen Sandler, Renita Thedvall, 2017-03-27 This volume asks and addresses elusive ontological epistemological and methodological questions about meetings What are meetings What sort of knowledge identities and power relationships are produced performed communicated and legitimized through meetings How do and how might ethnographers study meetings as objects and how might they best conduct research in meetings as particular elements of their field sites Through contributions from an international group of ethnographers who have conducted meeting ethnography in diverse field sites this volume offers both theoretical insight and methodological guidance into the study of this most ubiquitous ritual

Anthropology and Alterity Bernhard Leistle, 2016-12-08 Alterity or otherness is a central notion in cultural anthropology and philosophy as well as in other disciplines While anthropology with its aim of understanding cultural difference tends to take otherness as a fact there have been vigorous attempts in contemporary philosophy particularly in phenomenology to answer the fundamental question What is the Other This book brings the two approaches to otherness the hermeneutical pragmatics of anthropology and the radical reflection of philosophy together with the goal of enriching one through the other The philosophy of the German phenomenologist Bernhard Waldenfels up to now little known to anthropologists has a central position in this undertaking Waldenfels s concept of a responsivity to the Other offers to cultural anthropology the possibility of a philosophical engagement with the Other that does not contradict the project of making sense of concrete empirical others The book illustrates the fertility of this new approach to alterity through a broad spectrum of themes ranging from reflections on theory formation via discussions of race and human animal relations to personal meditations on experiences of alterity

Making Islam Work Thijl Sunier, 2023-10-16 The development of Islamic landscapes in Europe is first and foremost related to Islamic authority Religious authority relies on persuasiveness and deals with issues of truth authenticity legitimacy trust and ethics with reference to religious matters This study argues that Islamic authority making among European Muslims is a social and relational practice that is much broader and versatile than theological proficiency and personal status It can also be conferred to objects activities and events The book explores various ways in which Islamic authority is being constituted among Muslims in Western Europe with a particular focus on the role of ordinary Muslims This book is available in its entirety in Open Access

Fieldwork and the Self J  r  my Jammes, Victor T. King, 2021-11-09 This book presents new perspectives on Southeast Asia using cases from a range of ethnic groups cultures and histories written by scholars from different ethnicities generations disciplines and scientific traditions It examines various research trajectories engaging with epistemological debates on the global and local on insiders and outsiders and the role played by personal experiences in the collection and analysis of empirical data The volume provides subjects for debate rarely addressed in formal approaches to data gathering and analysis Rather than grappling with the usual methodological building blocks of research training it focuses on neglected issues in the research experience including chance error coincidence mishap dead ends silence secrets improvisation remembering digital challenges and shifting tracks Fieldwork and the Self is relevant to academics and researchers from universities and international organisations who are engaged in teaching and learning in area studies and social science research methods A rich and compelling set of writings about fieldwork in and beyond Southeast Asia Lyn Parker Emeritus Professor University of Western Australia A must read for all especially emerging scholars on Southeast Asia and a refreshing read for critical old hands on the region Abdul Rahman Embong Emeritus Professor Institute of Malaysian and International Studies IKMAS Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia An impressive collection of essays by two academics who have devoted their academic life to anthropological fieldwork in Southeast Asia Shamsul A B Distinguished Professor and UNESCO Chair Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia The contributors share an unquenchable and passionate curiosity for Southeast Asia They have survived the uncertainties and disillusionment of their fieldwork and remained first grade scholars Marie Sybille de Vienne Professor National Institute for Oriental Languages and Civilisations Paris A penetrating reflection on current social science research on Southeast Asia Hans Dieter Evers Professor Emeritus and Senior Fellow University of Bonn

Muslim Piety as Economy Johan Fischer, J  r  my Jammes, 2019-10-11 The first volume to explore Muslim piety as a form of economy this book examines specific forms of production trade regulation consumption entrepreneurship and science that condition and are themselves conditioned by Islamic values logics and politics With a focus on Southeast Asia as a site of significant and diverse integration of Islam and the economy as well as the incompatibilities that can occur between the two it reveals the production of a Muslim piety as an economy in its own right Interdisciplinary in nature and based on in depth empirical studies the book considers issues such as the Qur'anic prohibition of corruption and anti corruption reforms the emergence of the Islamic economy under colonialism halal or lawful production trade regulation and consumption modesty in Islamic fashion marketing communications and financialisation consumerism and housing As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and religious studies with interests in Islam and Southeast Asia

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Muslims and Popular Culture Hussein Rashid, Kristian Petersen, 2023-09-21 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Muslims and Popular Culture illustrates how Muslims participate in a broad spectrum of activities Moving beyond a framework that emphasizes ritual legal historical or theological issues this book speaks to how Muslims live in the world in relation to their religion and the realities of the world around them The international team of contributors provide in depth analysis that chronicles Islamic cultural products in regional and transnational contexts explores dominant and emerging theories about popularization and offers provocations in the field of religion and popular culture The handbook is structured in six parts spaces appetites performances readings visions and communities The book explores a variety of Muslim societies and communities within the last 100 years ranging from the Islamic presence in Latin American architecture to Muslim Anglophone hip hop and Muslims in modern Indian theatre

Food Values in Europe Valeria Siniscalchi, Krista Harper, 2019-09-05 What can a focus on food projects in Europe tell us about contemporary social processes and cultural debates Valeria Siniscalchi and Krista Harper show how food becomes a marker of identity and resistance to social exclusion and how food values become tools for transforming power dynamics at the local level and beyond Through the comparison of food centered movements across Europe the book explains how these forms of mobilization express ideologies as well as economic and political objectives The chapters use an ethnographic approach to focus on the transformation of values carried by individuals and groups in relation to food in Portugal Greece Latvia Moldova Denmark the UK Italy and France Contributors analyze food values as expressed in daily life and livelihoods through specific practices of production exchange and consumption Topics covered include Prague's urban agricultural scene the perception of poverty in Moldova shepherds protests in Sardinia and organic food cooperatives in Catalonia

Vegetarianism, Meat and Modernity in India Johan Fischer, 2023-04-07 Never before in human history have vegetarianism and a plant based economy been so closely associated with sustainability and the promise of tackling climate change Nowhere is this phenomenon more visible than in India which is home to the largest number of vegetarians globally and where vegetarianism is intrinsic to Hinduism India is often considered a global model for vegetarianism However in this book which is the outcome of eight months of fieldwork conducted among vegetarian and non vegetarian producers traders regulators and consumers I show that the reality in India is quite different with large sections of communities being meat eaters In 2011 vegetarian veg green and nonvegetarian non veg brown labels on all packaged foods drinks were introduced in India Paradoxically this grand scheme was implemented at a time when meat and non vegetarian food production trade and consumption were booming The overarching argument of the book is that a systematic study of the complex and changing relationship between vegetarian and non vegetarian understandings and practices illuminates broader transformations and challenges that relate to markets the state religion politics and identities in India and beyond The book's empirical focus is on the changing relationship between vegetarian non vegetarian as understood practised and contested in middle class India while remaining attentive to the vegetarian non vegetarian modernities that are at the forefront of global sustainability debates Through the application of this approach the book provides a novel theory of human values and markets in a global middle class perspective      Religion, regulation, consumption John Lever, Johan Fischer, 2018-01-09 This book explores the emergence and expansion of global kosher and halal markets with a particular focus on the UK and Denmark Kosher is a Hebrew term meaning fit or proper while halal is an Arabic word that literally means permissible or lawful This is the first book to explore kosher and halal comparatively at different levels of the social scale such as individual consumption the marketplace religious organisations and the state Kosher and halal markets have become global in scope and states manufacturers restaurants shops certifiers and consumers around the world are faced with ever stricter and more complex kosher and halal requirements The research question in this book is What are the consequences of globalising kosher and halal markets      Religious Economies in Secular Context Rano Turaeva, Michael Brose, 2023-12-09 This edited collection is one of the few sociological and anthropological studies of Halal markets The chapters inquire into the legal and religious aspects of Halal markets in non Muslim contexts or the countries where the label Halal matters and is not taken for granted as it is the case in most of the Muslim world where it is an accepted norm In many countries Halal has become a type of brand used to market food and cosmetic products This is an effective marketing strategy because it appeals directly to Muslims but also increasingly to non Muslims who seek pure fresh products In this case Halal implies attributes similar to other brands where quality and purity is guaranteed such as Fair Trade Bio or organic in the US and Europe but with the additional appeal to prospective Muslim consumers that it satisfies Islamic norms The book consists of contributions on Halal economies in non Muslim societies dealing with such dilemmas as rational thinking and halal philosophy within various fields of halal economy such as regulation production marketing service delivery and consumption      Insatiable Appetite: Food as Cultural Signifier in the Middle East and Beyond Kirill Dmitriev, Julia Hauser, Bilal Orfali, 2019-09-24 Insatiable Appetite: Food as Cultural Signifier in the Middle East and Beyond explores the cultural ramifications of food and foodways in the Mediterranean and Arab Muslim countries in particular The volume addresses the cultural meanings of food from a wider chronological scope from antiquity to present adopting approaches from various disciplines including classical Greek philology Arabic literature Islamic studies anthropology and history The contributions to the book are structured around six thematic parts ranging in focus from social status to religious prohibitions gender issues intoxicants vegetarianism and management of scarcity Contributors are Tarek Abu Hussein Yasmin Amin Kevin Blankinship Tylor Brand Kirill Dmitriev Eric

Dursteler Anny Gaul Julia Hauser Christian Junge Danilo Marino Pedro Martins Karen Moukheiber Christian Sa mannshausen Shaheed Tayob and Lola Wilhelm      Freedom in Practice Moises Lino e Silva, Huon Wardle, 2016-11-25 Freedom is one of the most fiercely contested words in contemporary global experience This book provides an up to date overview from an anthropological perspective of the diverse ways in which freedom is understood and practised in everyday life including the emergent relationships between governance autonomy and liberty The contributors offer a wealth of ethnographic insight from a variety of geographic cultural and political contexts Taken together the essays constitute a radical challenge to assumptions about what freedom means in today s world      Work and Livelihoods Susana Narotzky, Victoria Goddard, 2016-12-01 Winner of the Society for the Anthropology of Work book prize 2017 This volume presents a global range of ethnographic case studies to explore the ways in which in the context of the restructuring of industrial work the ongoing financial crisis and the surge in unemployment and precarious employment local and global actors engage with complex social processes and devise ideological political and economic responses to them It shows how the reorganization and re signification of work notably shifts in the perception and valorization of work affect domestic and community arrangements and shape the conditions of life of workers and their families      Hope and Uncertainty in Contemporary African Migration Nauja Kleist, Dorte Thorsen, 2016-11-25 This volume examines the relationship between hope mobility and immobility in African migration Through case studies set within and beyond the continent it demonstrates that hope offers a unique prism for analyzing the social imaginaries and aspirations which underpin migration in situations of uncertainty deepening inequality and delimited access to global circuits of legal mobility The volume takes departure in a mobility paradox that characterizes contemporary migration Whereas people all over the world are exposed to widening sets of meaning of the good life elsewhere an increasing number of people in the Global South have little or no access to authorized modes of international migration This book examines how African migrants respond to this situation Focusing on hope it explores migrants temporal and spatial horizons of expectation and possibility and how these horizons link to mobility practices Such analysis is pertinent as precarious life conditions and increasingly restrictive regimes of mobility characterize the lives of many Africans while migration continues to constitute important livelihood strategies and to be seen as pathways of improvement Whereas involuntary immobility is one consequence another is the emergence and consolidation of new destinations emerging in the Global South The volume examines this development through empirically grounded and theoretically rich case studies in migrants countries of origin zones of transit and in new and established destinations in Europe North America the Middle East Latin America and China It thereby offers an original perspective on linkages between migration hope and immobility ranging from migration aspirations to return      Mixed Race Identities in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands Farida Fozdar, Kirsten McGavin, 2016-12-08 This volume offers a southern Pacific Ocean perspective on the topic of racial hybridity exploring it through a series of case studies from around the

Australo Pacific region a region unique as a result of its very particular colonial histories Focusing on the interaction between race and culture especially in terms of visibility and self defined identity and the particular characteristics of political cultural and social formations in the countries of this region the book explores the complexity of the lived mixed race experience the structural forces of particular colonial and post colonial environments and political regimes and historical influences on contemporary identities and cultural expressions of mixed ness      Annual Review of Anthropology William H. Durham,2000
