World, 600-1800 Jo Van Steenberg, 2020-08-11 A History of the Islamic World 600 1800 supplies a fresh and unique survey of the formation of the Islamic world and the key developments that characterize this broad region's history from late antiquity up to the beginning of the modern era. Containing two chronological parts and fourteen chapters, this impressive overview explains how different tides in Islamic history washed ashore: diverse sets of leadership groups, multiple practices of power and authority, and dynamic imperial and dynastic discourses in a theocratic age. A text that transcends many of today's popular stereotypes of the premodern Islamic past, the volume takes a holistically and theoretically informed approach for understanding, interpreting, and teaching premodern history of Islamic West Asia. Jo Van Steenberg identifies the Asian connectedness of the sociocultural landscapes between the Nile in the southwest to the Bosphorus in the northwest and the Oxus, Amu Darya, and Jaxartes, Syr Darya in the northeast to the Indus in the southeast. This abundantly illustrated book also offers maps and dynastic tables enabling students to gain an informed understanding of this broad region of the world. This book is an essential text for undergraduate classes on Islamic History, Medieval and Early Modern History, Middle East Studies, and Religious History.

Longing for the Lost Caliphate Mona Hassan, 2018-08-14 In the United States and Europe, the word caliphate has conjured historically romantic and increasingly pernicious associations. Yet the caliphate's significance in Islamic history and Muslim culture remains poorly understood. This book explores the myriad meanings of the caliphate for Muslims around the world through the analytical lens of two key moments of loss in the thirteenth and twentieth centuries. Through extensive primary source research, Mona Hassan explores the rich constellation of interpretations created by religious scholars, historians, musicians, statesmen, poets, and intellectuals. Hassan fills a scholarly gap regarding Muslim reactions to the destruction of the Abbasid caliphate in Baghdad in 1258 and challenges the notion that the Mongol onslaught signaled an end to the critical engagement of Muslim jurists and intellectuals with the idea of an Islamic caliphate. She also situates Muslim responses to the dramatic abolition of the Ottoman caliphate in 1924 as part of a longer trajectory of transregional cultural memory, revealing commonalities and differences in how modern Muslims have creatively interpreted and reinterpreted their heritage. Hassan examines how poignant memories of the lost caliphate have been evoked in Muslim culture, law, and politics, similar to the losses and repercussions experienced by other religious communities, including the destruction of the Second Temple for Jews and the fall of Rome for Christians. A global history, Longing for the Lost Caliphate delves into why the caliphate has been so important to Muslims in vastly different eras and places.

Dynamism in the Urban Society of Damascus Toru Miura, 2015-11-16 This book presents a new perspective on Islamic urban society: a dynamism of social networking and justice which caused both rapid development and sudden decay in the li-iyya quarter. Founded in the northern suburbs of Damascus by Hanbali ulama who migrated from Palestine to Syria in the mid-12th century, the quarter developed into a city through waqf endowments. It has attracted the attention of historians and travelers for its unique location, popular movements, and religious features. Through the study of local chronicles, topographies and archival sources and through modern field research Toru Miura explores the history of the li iyya quarter from its foundation to the early 20th century comparing it to European Chinese and Japanese cities Majd al-Dīn al-Fīrūzābādī (1329-1415) Vivian Strotmann,2015-10-14 In Majd al D n al F r z b d 1329 1415 A Polymath on the Eve of the Early Modern Period Vivian Strotmann provides a detailed reconstruction of the famous lexicographer s and travelling scholar s life and works The author of the Q m s al mu is widely known for his Arabic lexicon which overshadows the astounding breadth of his writing This polymathic aspect is elucidated through detailed reconstruction of al F r z b d s corpus including examination of works that were considered lost and misapprehensions concerning ascriptions of authorship Through minute analysis of biographical sources the book shows al F r z b d s development as a scholar his central role in the defence of Ibn al Arab s teachings and thereby his importance as a powerful intellectual in Timurid times and for developments during the Early Modern Period American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 12:2 Ahdulkader I. Creating an Islamic City Rana Mikati,2024-03-04 In Creating an Islamic City Beirut Jihad and the Sacred Rana Mikati examines for the first time the role and contribution of Beirut to the Umayyad and early Abbasid caliphates This book traces the transformation of Beirut from a Byzantine metropolis to a place of rib weaving previously unpublished archaeological material and narrative sources By examining Beirut's transformation into a frontier town the rise of a scholarly community around the Syrian jurist al Awz d 157 773 774 and its integration in an Islamic sacred landscape Creating an Islamic City shows how a provincial frontier town was integrated and participated in the early caliphate Behind the Myths John Pickard, 2013-02-26 There has never been a more important time for a study of the social economic and political origins of Judaism Christianity and Islam the three important world religions that share a common root This book adopts a Marxist that is a materialist view of human development so it takes as its starting point the idea that gods angels miracles and other supernatural phenomena do not exist in the real world and therefore cannot be taken as explanations for the origin and rise of these faiths It looks instead at the material conditions at appropriate periods in antiquity and the social and economic forces that were at work to outline the real foundations of these three doctrines In doing so it challenges the historicity of key figures like Moses Jesus and Mohammed This is a unique book that draws on the research knowledge and expertise of hundreds of historians archaeologists and scholars to create a new synthesis that is both coherent and completely based on a materialist world outlook It is a book written by an unbeliever for other unbelievers as a contribution to a discussion among atheists and secularists as to the real origins of the so called Abramic faiths It will be a revelatory read even to those already firmly of an atheist or secularist persuasion underpinning their nonreligious views and it will provide a valuable resource for all those who might be coming to question the hold that organized religion has had on human society
