Knocking On Heavens Door The Path To A Better Way Of Death:

Knocking on Heaven's Door Katy Butler, 2014-06-10 A blend of memoir and investigation of the choices we face when our terror of death collides with the technological imperatives of modern medicine Dying and the Virtues Matthew Levering, 2018-01-23 In this rich book Matthew Levering explores nine key virtues that we need to die and live well love hope faith penitence gratitude solidarity humility surrender and courage Retrieving and engaging a variety of biblical theological historical and medical resources Levering journeys through the various stages and challenges of the dying process beginning with the fear of annihilation and continuing through repentance and gratitude suffering and hope before arriving finally at the courage needed to say goodbye to one's familiar world Grounded in careful readings of Scripture the theological tradition and contemporary culture Dying and the Virtues comprehensively and beautifully shows how these nine virtues effectively unite us with God the One who alone can conquer death Eldercare 101 Mary Jo Saavedra, 2023-07-19 An easy to understand guide for caregivers in a post pandemic world who are adapting to the rapidly changing lifestyles and care needs of elders The care and wellbeing of our seniors is paramount as we move out of the worst phase of Covid 19 and back to a more stable landscape that is still subject to the vagaries of aging illness and capabilities This Updated edition of Eldercare 101 has been expanded to include pandemic lessons climate change impact on senior housing and relocation new medical and technological advancements new housing trends multigenerational living Zoom memorials brain health legal needs when you have no children or family isolation and more Using her Six Pillars of Aging Wellbeing™ framework Mary Jo Saavedra and a variety of expert contributors explore the needs desires realistic circumstances opportunities for healthy and safe aging and end of life care something we all need to think about at some time or another Holding Space Amy Wright Glenn, 2017-11-21 A hospital chaplain reflects on grief and loss mindfulness and healing in this beautifully written meditation on the spiritual emotional and philosophical implications of end of life care Jan Chozen Bays author of Mindfulness on the Go As a hospital chaplain Amy Wright Glenn has been present with those suffering from suicide trauma disease and unforeseen accidents and has been witness to the intense grief and powerful insights that so often accompany loss She weaves together memoir philosophical inquiry and cutting edge research on death dying to chronicle how we as individuals and as a culture handle everything from grief to mortality Glenn is also a professional birth doula with a deep and committed mindfulness practice who has thought deeply about the significance of human love and loss She asks us to embrace the task of being present with what is through courageous and mindful expressions of compassionate presence and helps us to accept the fact of our own mortality on a visceral and emotional level not simply as an intellectual abstraction Holding Space concludes by integrating key insights drawn from working directly with the dying into a moving and compelling meditation on the healing power of holding space for all involved in caring for the dying a healing sorely needed in our culture at this time Social Workers as Game Changers Laura Lewis, 2017-01-30 Designed to promote active hands on learning Social Workers as

Game Changers Confronting Complex Social Issues Through Cases by Laura Lewis is composed of 11 chapter length case studies that prepare students to address the types of challenging social issues they will encounter as practicing social workers. The cases covering topics from immigration gangs and education to race mental health and end of life care illustrate the interrelationship between the micro mezzo and macro levels and facilitate not just recall of facts but also higher level learning. Each case allows students to confront realistic scenarios as they evaluate analyze and synthesize information resulting in more engaged and informed classroom discussions.

Elderhood Louise Aronson, 2019-06-11 Finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in General Nonfiction A New York Times Bestseller Longlisted for the Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction Winner of the WSU AOS Bonner Book Award Winner of the 2022 At Home With Growing Older Impact Award As revelatory as Atul Gawande's Being Mortal physician and award winning author Louise Aronson's Elderhood is an essential empathetic look at a vital but often disparaged stage of life. For more than 5 000 years old has been defined as beginning between the ages of 60 and 70. That means most people alive today will spend more years in elderhood than in childhood and many will be elders for 40 years or more. Yet at the very moment that humans are living longer than ever before we've made old age into a disease a condition to be dreaded denigrated neglected and denied. Reminiscent of Oliver Sacks noted Harvard trained geriatrician Louise Aronson uses stories from her quarter century of caring for patients and draws from history science literature popular culture and her own life to weave a vision of old age that's neither nightmare nor utopian fantasy a vision full of joy wonder frustration outrage and hope about aging medicine and humanity itself. Elderhood is for anyone who is in the author's own words an aging i.e. still breathing human being.

Integrated Care for Complex Patients Steven A. Frankel, James A. Bourgeois, 2018-03-21 This book presents case based descriptions of models for the inclusive multispecialty and multidisciplinary clinical care of complex cases. Cases range from primary care patients with complex systemic medical and psychiatric comorbidity to those requiring specialty care to those with potentially terminal illnesses. While each category and case has its unique requirements often necessitating different models of care the commonalities in approaching complex clinical situations is underscored. Extended case narratives written by the treating physicians summarizing both the course of clinical care and physicians' reflections on the challenges of managing complex patients comprise the bulk of the book. Five additional chapters on systems issues associated with care of complex patients together with a chapter on end of life considerations a narrative analysis of the physicians' reflections about complex patients and a concluding chapter are prominently included to anchor the case narratives. Written by experts in the field these descriptions form unique models for assessing and treating complex cases. Integrated Care for Complex Patients is a useful guide for all health practitioners and health administrators who are responsible for clinically complex cases including physicians in primary care and psychiatry physician assistants and nurse practitioners and psychologists.

The Divine Art of Dying, Second Edition Karen Speerstra, Herbert Anderson, 2022-02-08 The Divine Art of Dying explores the time when individuals facing a life limiting illness make critical decisions about how they will live until they die Authors Karen Speerstra and Herbert Anderson teamed up to write this book shortly before Speerstra's death Their hope was that this book would be a gift to help people who are irreversibly ill and their friends and family navigate the perilous journey to the point at which one decides to discontinue curative treatment and turn toward death The book includes reflections from Speerstra's hospice journal and essays written jointly by Speerstra and Anderson on themes that include learning to wait letting go giving gifts and telling stories Karen's experiential and moving reflections are woven together with Anderson's pastoral insights gleaned from years of teaching writing and lecturing on death dying and bereavement as well as practicing hospital chaplaincy and pastoral care Together they have created a deeply profound and practical book that aims to empower people who are dying to live as fully as they can until life's end and to help those who care for them to share this journey with compassion and hope Several reflections by Speerstra's friends and family are included along with sidebars describing divine human virtues Suggestions for caregivers are provided at the end of each chapter
