Urban Politics and Cultural Capital Ma Haili, 2016-02-11 This book tells the story of how a regional Chinese theatrical form Shanghai Yue Opera evolved from the all male beggar s song of the early twentieth century to become the largest all female opera form in the nation only to face increasing pressure to survive under Chinese political and economic reforms in the new millennium Previous publications have focused mainly on the historical development of Chinese theatre with emphasis placed on Beijing opera This is the first book to take an interdisciplinary approach to the story of the Shanghai Yue Opera bringing history arts management central and regional government policy urbanisation gender media and theatre artistic development in one Through the story of the Shanghai Yue Opera House market reform this book facilitates an understanding of the complex Chinese political economic situation in post socialist China This book suggests that as state art institutions are key organs of the Communist party gaining legitimacy the vigorous evolution and struggle of the Shanghai Yue Opera house in fact directly mirrors the Communist Party internal turmoil in the new millennium to gain its own legitimacy and survival

The Provoked Economy

Fabian Muniesa,2014-05-16 Do things such as performance indicators valuation formulas consumer tests stock prices or financial contracts represent an external reality Or do they rather constitute in a performative fashion what they refer to The Provoked Economy tackles this question from a pragmatist angle considering economic reality as a ceaselessly provoked reality It takes the reader through a series of diverse empirical sites from public administrations to stock exchanges from investment banks to marketing facilities and business schools in order to explore what can be seen from such a demanding standpoint It demonstrates that descriptions of economic objects do actually produce economic objects and that the simulacrum of an economic act is indeed a form of realization It also shows that provoking economic reality means facing practical tests in which what ought to be economic or not is subject to elaboration and controversy This book opens paths for empirical investigation in the social sciences but also for the philosophical renewal of the critique of economic reality It will be useful for students and scholars in social theory sociology anthropology philosophy and economics Health and Care in

Neoliberal Times NEIL SMALL,2023-02-17 This book argues that neoliberal changes in health and social care go beyond resource allocations priority setting and privatisation and manifest in an invidious erosion of the quality of our social relationships including relationships between care provider and care recipient Critically examining the concept of culture and why shifts in what is considered acceptable practice happen the book explores the conduct of conduct It draws together what we know about neoliberalism s impact on the economy and public services with research around governmentality and social change Looking at breakdowns in the quality of care in the NHS and social care across a range of settings it holds that macro influences such as austerity and marketisation cannot explain everything and many of the damaging things that go on in care breakdowns occur in micro interactions between care provider and care recipient Analysing the interactions between the calculations of political centres the strength of professional identities the effectiveness of oversight and supervision and the biographies of protagonists Neil Small problematises the focus on culture and culture change in our response to care failures and examines what a different approach to care might involve Exploring the interaction of politics economics and social change and their impact on health care and the wider welfare state this is an important contribution for students and researchers in health and social care sociology political science and management studies Technofutures, Nature and the

Sacred Professor Celia Deane-Drummond,Prof Dr Sigurd Bergmann,Dr Bronislaw Szerszynski,2015-05-28 How do the powerful driving forces of religion and technology interact in the way that humans act towards and within the natural world Deane Drummond Bergmann and Szerszynski are concerned with understanding the complex relation between technology and religious belief in their intersections with the natural world Working from both theoretical and practical contexts by using newly emerging case studies including geo engineering and soil carbon technologies this volume breaks new ground by engaging theological scientific philosophical and cultural aspects of the technology religion nature nexus David Harvey

Noel Castree,Derek Gregory,2008-04-15 This book critically interrogates the work of David Harvey one of the world s most
