Key Events In African History A Reference Guide:

Key Events in African History Toyin Falola, 2002-08-30 Provides information on thirty six key events from the prehistoric past to the dawn of the twenty first century which have shaped the history of Africa Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan, Atoma Batoma, 2014-10-16 This third edition of the Reference Guide to Africa explains the most important resources for the study of the continent of Africa It contains a general sources section and a larger disciplinary oriented section All sources are annotated A new edition is sorely needed since the last edition was published nine years ago The previous editions have been successfully used in research libraries worldwide since 1999 and it has been used to teach several African studies research courses The book provides an orientation for researching almost any topic in the arts humanities and social sciences concerning the continent of Africa and all of its countries and ethnic groups The first part explains and lists portals databases bibliographies indexes guides encyclopedias country sources biography primary sources government publications and statistics The second part presents 16 subject oriented chapters mostly in the arts humanities and social sciences from agriculture and food security to women studies It covers sources that broadly cover the continent or in some cases only North Africa and the Middle East It generally excludes sources limited to one country or region of Africa except for North Africa because of the nature of the literature One third of the sources in this edition are new and nearly half of them are available in electronic format There are author title and subject indexes This unique work is intended for students teachers librarians and researchers It likely will be used most by reference librarians and teachers for students in high school through graduate studies It will also be used independently by undergraduate and graduate students It can be used to answer simple reference questions provide the resources for an undergraduate paper or for comprehensive work by advanced students and researchers Snapshot of Past and Present Historical Events in African Countries Funso E. Oluyitan Ed.D. Ph.D., 2019-04-17 In this book you will read about the 57 African countries The history of each country begins with the original settlers followed by the European invasion and rule You will read about the countries struggle for independence indigenous governments after independence the emergence of military governments followed by democracy as practiced in Africa today The snapshot of each country is written in less than 1000 words Enjoy the reading African Kingdoms Saheed Aderinto, 2017-08-24 This history rich volume details the sociopolitical economic and artistic aspects of African kingdoms from the earliest times to the second half of the 19th century Africa has a long and fascinating history and is a place of growing importance in the world history curriculum This detailed encyclopedia covers the history of African kingdoms from antiquity through the mid 19th century tracing the dynasties ties to modern globalization and influences on world culture before during and after the demise of the slave trade Along with an exploration of African heritage this reference is rich with firsthand accounts of Africa through the oral traditions of its people and the written journals of European explorers missionaries and travelers who visited Africa from the 15th century and onward Alphabetically arranged entries cover a particular kingdom and feature information on the economic cultural religious political social and environmental history of the regime The content references popular culture movies and art that present contemporary reenactments of kingdoms emphasizing the importance of history in shaping modern ideas Other features include primary source documents a selected bibliography of print and electronic resources and dozens of sidebars containing key facts and interesting trivia The African Studies Companion Hans Zell,2021-11-15 Published in dual print and electronic formats this is a new edition of a much acclaimed reference source that brings together a wide range of sources of information in the African studies field covering both print and electronic sources It evaluates the best online resources the major general reference tools in print format current bibliographies and indexing services biographical cartographic statistical and economic resources as well as film and video resources Additionally there are separate sections on African studies library collections and repositories throughout the world a directory of over 250 African studies journals listings of news sources profiles of publishers active in the African studies field dealers and distributors of African studies materials African studies societies and associations major African and international organizations donor agencies and foundations awards and prizes in African studies electronic mailing lists and discussion forums and more 21st Century Anthropology: A Reference Handbook H. James Birx,2010-06-10 Highlighting the most important topics issues questions and debates these two volumes offer full coverage of major subthemes and subfields within the discipline of anthropology Pan-Africanism Hakim Adi,2018-08-23 The first survey of the Pan African movement this century this book provides a history of the individuals and organisations that have sought the unity of all those of African origin as the basis for advancement and liberation Initially an idea and movement that took root among the African Diaspora in more recent times Pan Africanism has been embodied in the African Union the organisation of African states which includes the entire African Diaspora as its sixth region Hakim Adi covers many of the key political figures of the 20th century including Du Bois Garvey Malcolm X Nkrumah and Gaddafi as well as Pan African culture expression from Ngritudo to the wearing of the Afro hair style and the music of Bob Marley Africa's Social and Religious Quest Randee Ijatuyi-Morphé,2014-01-30 This well crafted book probes the key dimensions of Africa's existential predicament It constitutes an intellectual response to a gnawing African situation the starting point for grasping Africa's social and religious quest Beyond split explanations of external versus internal factors e.g. colonization slavery vs leadership cultural values this study accounts more comprehensively for emergent issues shaping this situation The situation reflects a gamut of problems in traditional African religion and material culture which hitherto defines African communality politics and destinies vis-à-vis the cosmos and nature Thus African religion and communities each with its own attendant values do not operate by critical engagement with larger issues of society and civilization especially those shaped by the advent of post modernity Rather they operate via adaptation The communal drive for natural and social harmony inevitably produces a preservationist view of culture leaving things as they are This study takes an integrative approach to religion society and civilization eschews dichotomies and broadly defines and re signifies life and wholeness as a true end of Africans quest today

Ethnicity and Democracy in Africa Bruce Berman,Dickson Eyoh,Will Kymlicka,2004-09-30 The politics of identity and ethnicity will remain a fundamental characteristic of African modernity For this reason historians and anthropologists have joined political scientists in a discussion about the ways in which democracy can develop in multicultural societies In Ethnicity and Democracy in Africa the contributors address why ethnicity represents a political problem how the problem manifests itself and which institutional models offer ways of ameliorating the challenges that ethnicity poses to democratic nation building The Atlantic World Toyin Falola,Kevin D. Roberts,2008-04-16 This ambitious work provides an overview of the Atlantic world since the 15th century by exploring the major themes that define the study of this region Contact with Europeans in Africa and the Americas the slave trade gender and race in the early Atlantic world independence movements in Africa Caribbean nationalism and gender and identity in the 20th century are just a few subjects discussed Moving beyond the micro histories of the scholarly monograph to connect the fruits of those researches with broader events and processes this book in the editors words makes a concerted effort to re connect elites and non elites Old World and New early modern and modern and economics and culture It will be a point of embarkation for a new generation of students of the Atlantic world

Cuba, Africa, and Apartheid's End Isaac Saney,2023-01-09 Cuba Africa and Apartheid s End Africa s Children Return examines the history and impressive dimensions of the Cuban Revolution s solidarity with Africa Cuba s role in the southern African national liberation and anti colonial struggle was the largest and most consequential manifestation of the island s commitment to Africa A key moment was the 1987 1988 battle of Cuito Cuanavale which involved Cuba and Angola on one side and South Africa and its allies on the other Cuito Cuanavale contributed the end of apartheid and has assumed legendary status within the Cuban Revolution and the southern African liberation movement Culture and Customs of Gambia Abdoulaye S. Saine Ph.D.,2012-04-13 Ideal for high school and undergraduate students this addition to the Culture and Customs of Africa series examines the contemporary cultures and traditions of modern Gambia from religious customs to literature to cuisine and much more This title in the Culture and Customs of Africa series examines the traditions and customs of contemporary Gambia a geographically tiny nation in the vast landscape of Africa that is home to a large number of various ethnic groups each with its own distinctive way of life It is a country that has been largely unknown in Western culture with the exception of Alex Haley s book Roots and subsequent TV series which highlights Gambia s historic significance in the slave trade This book illuminates Gambian religion and worldview literature and media arts and architecture housing gender roles marriage and family social customs traditional dress cuisine and lifestyle and music and dance The author has successfully encapsulated both long ago history and contemporary Gambia to provide students with a complete look at life in Gambia today Information on past traditions and historic events is discussed in the context of how they pertain to life today and their influence on the constant evolution of Gambian life and culture

Traditional Values and Local Community in the Formal Educational System in Senegal Maguette Diame, 2023-12-18 This book explores the discourse of traditional values and local practices within the formal educational system in Senegal investigating how these cultural elements are present in the daily life of the community and integrated into formal schools and teaching Studying the integration of concepts such as Jom hard work pride dignity Kersa decency Fule self respect Mun endurance Teranga hospitality Kal kinship and Suture Protection it looks at how values are used perceived and understood within communities as well as their positive and negative connotations in the postcolonial context Based on long term participant education and utilizing a critical auto ethnography lens it ultimately proposes that such concepts can be used to counterbalance the Western knowledge to which schoolchildren are mostly exposed connecting this to Bhaba s system of the Third Space a hybrid system to accommodate both educational systems for more relevant education An informed study of the positive impacts of traditional cultural values on education in Senegal it will appeal to scholars researchers and practitioners of education in post colonial Francophone countries with interests in culturally relevant education African education post colonial education and international education

The Symbolism and Communicative Contents of Dreadlocks in Yorubaland Augustine Agwuele, 2016-08-13 This book offers an interpretation of Yoruba people s affective responses to an adult Yoruba male with a deviant hairstyle The work which views hairstyles as a form of symbolic communicative signal that encodes messages that are perceived and interpreted within a culture provides an ontological and epistemological interpretation of Yoruba beliefs regarding dreadlocks with real life illustrations of their treatment of an adult male with what they term irun were insane person s hairdo Based on experiential observations as well as socio cultural and linguistic analyses the book explores the dynamism of Yoruba worldview regarding head hair within contemporary belief systems and discusses some of the factors that assure its continuity It concludes with a cross cultural comparison of the perceptions of dreadlocks especially between Nigerian Yoruba people and African American Yoruba practitioners

Imagining Vernacular Histories Mobolanle Ebunoluwa Sotunsa, Abikal Borah, 2020-08-17 Imagining Vernacular Histories is centered on the idea of engaging with indigenous African cosmologies that signal at pluriversality In conversation with Toyin Falola's reading of the African pluriverse and his exploration of the idea of ritual archives the contributors to this volume rethink the historical archive in search of vernacular histories Simultaneously they recognize the contributions from various other disciplines in pluralizing the term vernacular The book brings together a wide range of topics such as reflections on African historiography the relationship between memory history and literature gender relations and the construction of historical archives While appropriating Falola's conception of vernacular histories the contributors collectively argue that pluriversality and ritual archives can potentially rescue African historical and creative scholarship from the sustained practices of epistemicide Simultaneously Imagining Vernacular Histories focuses on the emerging interdisciplinary conversations on constructing the pluriverse as well as on the geopolitics of knowledge production Through a critical appreciation of Falola's engagement with the ideas of postcoloniality decolonizing epistemologies and pluriversality this book locates his scholarship in relation to postcolonial theory emerging from the Global South

The Complex Interplay between Power, Politics, and African Agency
Serges Djoyou Kamga, 2024-11-15 The Complex Interplay between Power Politics and African Agency The Philosophy of Toyin Falola by Serges Djoyou Kamga examines the impact of colonialism by using Toyin Falola's philosophy as a framework It delves into the evolution of African political culture under colonial rule This book offers a unique perspective on the intricate dynamics of African society providing a deeper understanding of how power and politics have shaped African culture Kamga emphasizes the complex interplay between these elements and highlights the significance of African voices in determining their own destiny Using Falola's works this book analyzes and critiques the influence of Europe and establishes the ongoing unequal relationship between ex colonized African countries and their imperialist colonizers This book is highly recommended for scholars of African studies political science and anyone interested in African history and culture

Movements, Borders, and Identities in Africa Toyin Falola, Aribidesi Adisa Usman, 2009 Migration has become a continuous phenomenon in the history of human societies Migration is synonymous with the history of Africa itself The migration of individuals and groups over time is associated with the emergence of cultures and of civilizations throughout the world This book establishes the centrality of migrations and movements of people in the historical evolution of African peoples and societies By making use of different sources oral archaeological and written and focusing on various subjects and geographical areas the book shows that migration was a multifaceted phenomenon which varied in nature and character over time and in different places Using carefully selected case studies drawn from across the continent the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations and the varying impact of slavery commerce gender religion colonialism poverty and development on the movements of people and ideas and on the development of states and societies on the continent most especially in the last two centuries The chapters are based on original research and recent thinking on migrations in Africa and their changing forms and dynamics since the pre colonial period The various topics addressed include the causes and consequences of migration population movements displacements migration experiences settlement patterns and strategies labor mobility immigrant societies identity and culture contact as well as conceptual and methodological aspects of research on migration The contributors represent scholars from diverse fields with extensive teaching and research experience Thus the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations from Preface and Introduction

The African Metropolis Toyin Falola, Bisola Falola, 2017-08-07 On a planet where urbanization is rapidly expanding nowhere is the growth more pronounced than in cities of the global South and in particular Africa African metropolises are harbingers of the urban challenges that lie ahead as societies grapple with the fractured social economic and political relations forming within these new often mega cities The African Metropolis integrates geographical and historical perspectives to examine how processes of segregation marginalization resilience and resistance are shaping cities across Africa spanning from Nigeria and Ghana to Kenya Ethiopia and South Africa The chapters pay particular attention to the voices and daily realities of those most vulnerable to urban transformations and to questions such as Who governs Who should the city serve Who has a right to the city And how can the built spaces and contentious legacies of colonialism and prior development regimes be inclusively reconstructed In addition to highlighting critical contemporary debates the book furthers our ability to examine the transformations taking place in cities of the global South providing detailed accounts of local complexities while also generating insights that can scale up and across to similar cities around the world This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies urban development and human geography
