You Can't Go to War Without Song Omotayo Jolaosho, 2022-07-26 You Can't Go to War without Song explores the role of public performance in political activism in contemporary South Africa Weaving together detailed ethnographic fieldwork and an astute theoretical framework Omotayo Jolaosho examines the cohesive power of protest songs and dances within the Anti Privatisation Forum APF one of many social movements that emerged in the wake of South Africa's democratic transition after 1994 Jolaosho demonstrates the ways APF members adapted anti apartheid songs and dance to create new expressive forms that informed and commented on their struggles for access to water electricity housing education and health facilities the costs of which had been made prohibitive by privatization You Can't Go to War without Song offers profiles of individual activists to amplify its central point social movements like the APF are best understood as the coming together of individuals and it is the songs and dances of the movement that bind these individuals together and create opportunity for community organization Chapters on women and youth complicate such understandings of community however showing how activists live and experiences are shaped by gender and generation Challenging Hegemony Nigel C. Gibson, 2006 Strategies for Survival at SIBIKWA 1988 - 2021 Phyllis Klotz, Smal Ndaba, 2022-12-30 This book provides an engaging and contextualised insight into a South African township based arts centre that has survived the vicissitudes of steady militarisation in townships during some of the worst years of apartheid as well as the exhilaration of a new democratic policy while attempting to circumnavigate different policies and funding dispensations Sibikwa provides arts centres across the world and especially those in decolonising countries with strategies for survival in tumultuous times This multi disciplinary book maps and co ordinates wider historical political and social contextual concerns and events with matters specific to a community based east of Johannesburg and provides an exploration and analysis by experts of authentic theatre making and performance dance indigenous music arts in education and NGO governance It has contemporary significance and raises important questions regarding inclusivity and transformation the function and future of arts centres community based applied arts practices creativity and international partnerships This study will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance indigenous music dance and South African history The Politics of the Near Jérôme Tournadre, 2022-05-17 The Politics of the Near offers a novel approach to social unrest in post apartheid South Africa Keeping the noise of demonstrations barricades and clashes with the police at a distance this ethnography of a poor people's movement traces individual commitments and the mainsprings of mobilization in the ordinary social and intimate life of activists their relatives and other township residents Tournadre's approach picks up on aspects of activists' lives that are often neglected in the study of social movements that help us better understand the dynamics of protest and the attachment of activists to their organization and its cause What Tournadre calls a politics of the near takes shape through sometimes innocuous actions and beyond the separation between public and domestic spheres By mapping the daily life of Black and low income neighborhoods and the intimate domain where expectations and disappointments surface The Politics of the Near offers a different perspective on the rainbow nation a perspective more sensitive to the fact that three decades after the end of apartheid poverty and race are still as tightly interwoven as ever Social Policy, 2003 Afropolis Kerstin Pinther, Larissa Förster, Christian Hanussek, 2012 Metropolises often evoke images of flashy high rise buildings permanent background noise backed up cars and people moving quickly in all directions in their masses New York Tokyo London Sao Paulo But what about Cairo ICT News, 1990 New Internationalist, 2001 Proceedings of the National Urban Conservation Symposium, 1991 A Dictionary of South African English on Historical Principles Rhodes University. McDonald, David Alexander McDonald, John Pape, 2002 There has been a dramatic shift worldwide from welfare municipalism where the state both subsidized and provided essential municipal services to a neoliberal vision of balanced budgets fiscal restraint and privatization Cost recovery is at the heart of this new municipal vision with far reaching implications for access to services affordability and privatization This book brings together a theoretical and empirical review of the impact of cost recovery on basic municipal services such as water refuse collection and electricity with particular reference to South Africa It describes the theory and practice of cost recovery and presents six case studies drawing on participatory and ethnographic research The final chapter examines alternative future possibilities reformist or equity oriented Drum, 2007 The Theology of a South African Messiah Gerhardus Cornelis Oosthuizen, 1967 An Analysis of Educational Challenges in the New South Africa Zandile P. Nkabinde, 1997-04 This book deals with current developments in black education in South Africa since the introduction of Bantu education in the beginning of the 1990s During the period under discussion improvements have been made in black education These improvements are partly due to the significant political changes currently taking place in South Africa that are supposed to mark the end of apartheid Despite these developments much remains to be done in order to remedy the effects of Bantu education In particular providing quality education in black schools will require innovative solutions Proper planning developing new teaching strategies establishing practical educational goals and identifying and using available resources must be controlled and harnessed to a new social order Collaboration and coordination of all professionals particularly blacks will be a necessity The process of change requires black participation in finding solutions to their educational problems this is one of the major challenges facing post apartheid South Africa It is evident that there are more challenges that the post apartheid era will present This book is aimed at providing tentative alternative solutions to black education A Handbook of the Zulu Language D.
