Lincoln interacted with many other African Americans during his presidency His unfailing cordiality to them his willingness to meet with them in the White House to honor their requests to invite them to consult on public policy to treat them with respect whether they were kitchen servants or leaders of the Black community to invite them to attend receptions to sing and pray with them in their neighborhoods all those manifestations of an egalitarian spirit fully justified the tributes paid to him by Frederick Douglass and other African Americans like Sojourner Truth who said I never was treated by any one with more kindness and cordiality than were shown to me by that great and good man Abraham Lincoln Historian David S Reynolds observed recently that only by examining Lincoln s personal interchange with Black people do we see the complete falsity of the charges of innate racism that some have leveled against him over the years Gaither's Dictionary of Scientific
