Walton, Kim E. Walton, 2010-09-03 How do Sunday school teachers lead children through the stories of Cain and Abel or Judas's betrayal in a way that reflects the authority of Scripture Sunday school curricula often glosses over difficult lessons or focuses too much on characters in Bible stories neglecting God's self revelation in Scripture John and Kim Walton have created this handbook for 175 Bible stories to assist teachers and parents in knowing what each story teaches and how to present it in a God centered way As they work their way through the Bible the Waltons examine seven elements in each story focus theme application place in the Bible interpretational issues historical and cultural background and age group appropriateness The Bible Story Handbook includes introductory articles on why we teach the Bible right and wrong ways to use the Bible and ends with a two year teaching plan Every parent and Sunday school teacher will find this unique resource to be invaluable in teaching children to know and love God Old Stories & Forgotten Lessons Dr. R.W. Stallings, 2021-08-19 The message the world hears from the church in America is confusing Many of us have drifted so far from biblical teaching that those seeking our help cannot find it in the church The picture of God we present is so removed from biblical truth that even our own children are without foundation and are leaving in great numbers I do not accept the premise that the non church world has rejected God many have never heard the compelling unfiltered Gospel truth preached with love When we discard the biblical text and do not teach it to our people we give away the power to help those really needing the church The church must make her own peace with God before the world can hear the voice of God from the church Old Stories they will often feel isolate because of their belief They need to know how the heroes of our faith lived and led successful lives Lessons for children historical and practical ... The fourth edition, 1734 Into Deep Waters John Shehan, 2014-10-03 Crew member John Shehan reflects on his personal growth with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and documents his transition from a sinful sailor to a soul saved Witness how a man easily compromised by the temptations of ship life is broken down systematically by the Hand of God before being rebuilt as a vessel for the Holy Spirit It is in the rebuilding process that the ship becomes the training ground for John spiritually and mentally during which time all forms of bondages are capsized and every oppression under siege It is a full blown battle at sea over one man's soul With personal stories and spiritual insight John Shehan navigates his way through the channel of purpose and discovers God waiting on the other side like a beacon of light coming from the lighthouse

God senses his distress and maneuvers him into a position of steadiness whereby he remains anchored in Christ It is in this position that John begins his ministry at sea spreading the gospel to fellow crew members in an upper room of a cruise ship Believers from all nations gather as testimonies are declared and the New Testament of Jesus is spread throughout the ship
