

The background of the cover is a dark, almost black, space filled with vibrant, abstract energy patterns. Swirling bands of light in shades of blue, purple, pink, red, orange, and yellow sweep across the frame from the bottom left towards the top right. Interspersed among these waves are numerous thin, white, curved lines that resemble particle tracks or light trails, some ending in small, bright, star-like points. The overall effect is one of dynamic motion and high-energy physics.
