Representing Wine - Sensory Perceptions, Communication and Cultures Rosario Caballero, Ernesto Suárez-Toste, Carita Paradis, 2019-10-21 Wine culture is a complex phenomenon of increasing importance in modern society and it combines the joys of wine appreciation with the frustrations of trying to verbally communicate sensory impressions While wine appreciation is traditionally characterized as joyously convivial in its social dimension sensory impressions remain eminently private This contrast explains why the language used to represent wine or winespeak is the object of increasing crossdisciplinary interest This book analyzes the many different forms many of the different forms of representing wine in present day society with a special emphasis on winespeak starting from the premise that such study demands a genre approach to the many different communities involved in the wine world producers critics merchants consumers By combining the methodologies of Cognitive Linguistics and discourse analysis the authors analyze extensive real life corpora of wine reviews and multimodal artifacts labels advertisements documentaries to reflect on the many inherent difficulties but also to highlight the rich and creative figurative strategies employed to compensate for the absence of a proper wine jargon of a more unambiguous nature

Thirsty Dragon Suzanne Mustacich, 2015-11-10 An inside view of China's quest to become a global wine power and Bordeaux's attempt to master the thirsty dragon it helped create The wine merchants of Bordeaux and the rising entrepreneurs of China would seem to have little in common old world versus new tradition versus disruption loyalty versus efficiency And yet these two communities have found their destinies intertwined in the conquest of new markets as Suzanne Mustacich shows in this provocative account of how China is reshaping the French wine business and how Bordeaux is making its mark on China Thirsty Dragon lays bare the untold story of how an influx of Chinese money rescued France's most venerable wine region from economic collapse and how the result was a series of misunderstandings and crises that threatened the delicate infrastructure of Bordeaux's insular wine trade The Bordelais and the Chinese do business according to different and often incompatible sets of rules and Mustacich uncovers the competing agendas and little known actors who are transforming the economics and culture of Bordeaux even as its wines are finding new markets and ever higher prices in Shanghai Beijing and Hong Kong with Hong Kong and London traders playing a pivotal role At once a tale of business skulduggery and fierce cultural clashes adventure and ambition Thirsty Dragon offers a behind the scenes look at the
