The Political Economy of the New Asian Industrialism Frederic C. Deyo, 2018-08-06 The newly industrializing countries NICs of East Asia have undergone rapid economic expansion over the past twenty years Unlike NICs elsewhere in the Third World those in the Pacific basin South Korea Taiwan Singapore and Hong Kong have managed to achieve almost full employment a relatively egalitarian distribution of income and the virtual elimination of poverty In this collection of essays nine development specialists explore the Asian NICs exceptional ability to capitalize on the favorable economic environment of the 1960s and then to adapt flexibly to worsening conditions in the 1970s and 1980s

Goddess of the Market Jennifer Burns, 2009-10-19 Drawing on unprecedented access to Rand's private papers and the original unedited versions of Rand's journals Jennifer Burns offers a groundbreaking reassessment of this key cultural figure examining her life her ideas and her impact on conservative political thought Burns highlights the two facets of Rand's work that make her a perennial draw for those on the right her promotion of capitalism and her defense of limited government Both sprang from her early bitter experience of life under Communism and became among the most deeply enduring of her messages attracting a diverse audience of college students and intellectuals business people and Republican Party activists libertarians and conservatives The book also traces the development of Rand's Objectivist philosophy and her relationship with Nathaniel Branden

Theorising Comparative History for the Ancient Mediterranean Stephen Harrison, Dylan James, 2025-08-26 Theorising Comparative History for the Ancient Mediterranean examines how soft comparative history can illuminate the ancient Mediterranean world This approach employs alternative periods and settings to prompt new understandings of antiquity but differs from a side by side hard comparison This volume represents the first attempt to theorise the methodology and scrutinise its value for studying the ancient world The book's ten chapters examine a cross section of ancient cultures Greece Rome Egypt India Afghanistan China and range across political social economic cultural intellectual and military history demonstrating the versatility of the approach Contributions draw from a variety of comparative settings e.g. Spanish America contemporary sub-Saharan Africa Early Modern Europe the Antebellum American South and demonstrate that there are myriad comparative paths to prompt rethinking about antiquity Each contributor reflects on their own individual practice and the introduction meditates on the strengths limitations and commonalities across these chapters The volume thus offers a blueprint for how scholars in various fields can utilise comparative history

Latin America & Empire Report, 1975 Race, Reality, and Realpolitik Jeffrey Sommers, 2015-11-11 The year 2015 marked the centennial of the 1915 United States occupation of Haiti and Haiti's resistance to that signal event in its history This study surveys the issues of economics race and realpolitik embedded in the political economy of U.S. interactions with Haiti that resulted in occupation It then interrogates what constitutes the state as it pertains to foreign policy along with an inspection of who benefits from empire This approach eschews tired dichotomies of whether or not the United States as a whole materially benefited from empire to instead simply look at who individually gained and what were the capacities of these beneficiaries to craft policy Next it delivers insights derived from a forensic analysis of Woodrow Wilson's perception of race and his decision to intervene in Haiti Attitudes enabling United States military leaders to implement a policy of occupation are provided through a study of Admiral William Caperton's role in the intervention The focus then telescopes out to inspect the role played by the press especially as booster for commercial opportunities In short the project answers the questions of why who and how American empire was undertaken through the case study of Haiti and its occupation in 1915
