God with Us Love God Greatly, 2016-11-17 In the Old Testament the people of God looked forward in anticipation to the coming of the Messiah This Advent required lots of waiting trusting and patience Even now we are in a season of Advent aren't we? We are waiting expectantly for our Savior to return to rescue us once and for all from the presence of sin and fear to make all things right and beautiful and for us to dwell in His kingdom and walk forever by His side. The Advent we are in also requires waiting, trusting, and patience. But the great news? The hope that Israel had is the same hope that we have today. In this 4-week Love God Greatly Advent study, we will look at some of the Old Testament promises of the Savior and the humility that would characterize Him. We will study why He came and the response of various people in the Christmas story, including how we too should respond to Jesus and His coming. Emmanuel, God with us. This indeed is very good news.
