Gathering at God's Table Katharine Jefferts Schori, 2012 A profound reminder of our role in God's vision for a restored and reconciled world The work before us this mission of God's is immense cosmic even The world is hungry thirsty homeless sick lonely imprisoned and enslaved because some parts are The creation is groaning in travail because of our abuse of the garden in which we have been set The body is ailing Participating in God's mission is about seeing and responding to that collective suffering and beginning to understand our interconnection with the other parts of the body from the Introduction In the Christian tradition believers are called to do more than sit around and pray Throughout the Gospel and throughout history people of faith have been quite literally booted out into the world to bring God's love to everybody not just a select few That's the meaning of mission from the Latin verb mitto meaning to send It is the work that Jesus and his disciples set out to do feeding healing and teaching In an insightful and powerful voice Katharine Jefferts Schori presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church explores the meaning of mission in the context of contemporary life reminding us of the Anglican Communion's Five Marks of Mission Proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom Teach Baptize and Nurture New Believers Respond to Human Need with Loving Service Seek to Transform Unjust Structures of Society Strive to Safeguard the Integrity of Creation and Sustain and Renew the Life of the Earth Talking about God Daniel F. Polish, Ph.D.,2011-11-16 Challenge Yourself to Delve into a Deeper Interfaith Dialogue To wrestle with the ideas these thinkers present is to find ourselves challenged to look at our own religious lives in new ways and to appreciate the spiritual endeavors of others whatever form their religious expression may take To engage with these thinkers can leave us enlarged in our perception of human religiousness and deepened in our appreciation of it from the Conclusion The modern age of religion is characterized by dialogue Jews and Christians together explore the realities and meaning of living in proximity to one another Yet for all the good will and sincerity of intention too often such discussions fail to progress beyond well intentioned pleasantries to the challenging content that can truly deepen our understanding of each other This fascinating and accessible introduction to the theologies of four modern religious thinkers will help you break through the superficial generalities to plumb the depths of religious differences and embrace the commonalities Examining the lives and works of Søren Kierkegaard Martin Buber Paul Tillich and Abraham Joshua Heschel through the lens of their treatment of the Bible and the biblical patriarch Abraham you will take part in a discussion of the very phenomenon of religion and what part it plays in living a fully engaged human life Making a Spiritual Connection Ralph E.
