Shadows on the Track Jan McLeod,2019-01-05 At Templeton s Crossing in October 1942 Private Nick Kennedy paused to write in his diary One wonders why all this strife should be these men in the prime of their life cut down like flowers As a young nursing orderly serving with the 2 4th Australian Field Ambulance Kennedy was unenviably well placed to reflect on the futility of war The Australian Army was woefully unprepared to fight a medical war in Papua and the soldiers paid the price Almost 30 000 soldiers suffered from illness and tropical diseases and an estimated 6000 were killed or wounded during the six month campaign These statistics have traditionally been represented as unavoidable consequences of fighting a war in a place such as Papua This book disputes that narrative Death and disease were inevitable outcomes but the scale of the suffering was not The medical challenges presented in Papua were extreme they were not insurmountable Shadows on the Track considers a wide range of issues that impacted on the health of the Australian soldiers before during and after the Papuan campaign was fought and won The strengths successes shortcomings and failures of the medical campaign are identified analysed and evaluated The focus on the front line medical personnel the men of the field ambulance units brings a new perspective to the battles of the Kokoda Track Milne Bay and the Beachheads Shining a light on these Australians who tended the sick mended the wounded and buried the dead in Papua makes stepping out of the shadows a little easier

Pharmacology for Health Professionals W. Renee Acosta,2020-06-08 Pharmacology for Health Professionals Second Edition is specifically written for students who may not directly administer drugs in their chosen health profession but who will be involved in patient care and therefore need to understand basic pharmacological principles and practices
