Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, Pamela R. Aall, 2007 The definitive volume on the sources of contemporary conflict and the array of possible responses to it Using Carrots To Bring Peace?: Negotiation And Third Party Involvement Martina Klimes, 2015-11-30 How can peace be brokered between warring sides in conflicts over self determination and what roles do external third parties play This book is the first of its kind to thoroughly explore the effectiveness of aid conditionality and other external tools that third parties from states and regional organizations to NGOs bring to the table in peace negotiations Surveying the existing academic debate on incentives and peace conditionality the author first identifies the gaps between theory and the needs of third party mediators and facilitators Analysing in depth the negotiation processes in Sri Lanka Eelam Indonesia Aceh and the Philippines Mindanao as case studies policy tools likely to be most effective are then identified and policy recommendations developed This book is an invaluable resource for students scholars and practitioners alike The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution Jacob Bercovitch, Victor Kremenyuk, I William Zartman, 2008-12-03 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution demonstrates the range of themes that constitute modern conflict resolution It brings out its key issues methods and dilemmas through original contributions by leading scholars in a dynamic and expanding field of inquiry This handbook is exactly what it sets out to be an indispensable tool for teaching research and practice in conflict resolution Peter Wallensteen Professor of Peace and Conflict Research Uppsala University and University of Notre Dame Bercovitch Kremenyuk and Zartman are among the most important figures in the conflict resolution field They have pieced together with the help of more than 35 colleagues from numerous countries a state of the art review of the sources of international conflict available methods of conflict management and the most difficult challenges facing the individuals and organizations trying to guide us through these conflict ridden times The collection is brimming with penetrating insights trenchant analyses compelling cases and disciplined speculation They help us understand both the promise of as well as the obstacles to theory building in the new field of conflict resolution Lawrence Susskind Professor and Director of the MIT Harvard Public Disputes Program The last three sentences of this persuasive book We conclude this volume more than ever convinced that conflict resolution is not just possible or desirable in the current international environment It is absolutely necessary Resolving conflicts and making peace is no longer an option it is an intellectual and practical skill that we must all possess If you are part of that we intellectually or professionally you will find this book a superb companion Thomas C Schelling Professor Emeritus Harvard University and University of Maryland Conflict resolution is one of the fastest growing academic fields in the world today Although it is a relatively young discipline having emerged as a specialized field in the 1950s it has rapidly grown into a self contained vibrant interdisciplinary field The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution brings together all the conceptual methodological and substantive elements of conflict resolution into one volume of over 35 specially commissioned chapters The Handbook is designed to reflect where the field is today by drawing on the contributions of experts from different fields presenting in a systematic way the most recent research and practice Jacob Bercovitch is Professor of International Relations and Fellow of the Royal Society at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch New Zealand Victor Kremenjuk is deputy director of the Institute for USA and Canada Studies Russian Academy of Sciences Moscow He is also a research associate at IIASA I William Zartman is Jacob Blaustein Professor of Conflict Resolution and International Organization at the Nitze School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University

International Negotiation and Mediation in Violent Conflict
Chester A. Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, Pamela Aall, 2018-02-06 This collection of essays situates the study and practice of international mediation and peaceful settlement of disputes within a changing global context The book is organized around issues of concern to practitioners including the broader regional global and institutional context of mediation and how this broader environment shapes the opportunities and prospects for successful mediation A major theme is complexity and how the complex contemporary context presents serious challenges to mediation This environment describes a world where great power rivalries and politics are coming back into play and international and regional organizations are playing different roles and facing different kinds of constraints in the peaceful settlement of disputes The first section discusses the changing international environment for conflict management and reflects on some of the challenges that this changing environment raises for addressing conflict Part II focuses on the consequences of bringing new actors into third party engagement and examines what may be harbingers for how we will attempt to resolve conflict in the future The third section turns to the world of practice and discusses mediation statecraft and how to employ it in this current international environment The volume aims to situate the practice and study of mediation within this wider social and political context to better understand the opportunities and constraints of mediation in today's world The value of the book lies in its focus on complex and serious issues that challenge both mediators and scholars This volume will be of much interest to students practitioners and policymakers in the area of international negotiation mediation conflict resolution and international relations

Parameters, 2001

The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2017-09-08 Over the last twenty years the world has witnessed four major genocides There was the genocide in Iraq 1988 in Rwanda 1994 in Srebrenica 1995 and in Darfur 2003

and continuing Most observers agree there is an urgent need to assess the international community's efforts to prevent genocide and to intervene once a genocide is under way in an effective and timely manner This volume the latest in a widely respected series on the subject of genocide provides an overview of a host of issues germane to this task The book begins with a cogent discussion of the issues of prevention and intervention during the Cold War years The second chapter discusses the abject failures and moderate though in some cases highly controversial successes at prevention and intervention carried out in the 1990s and early 2000s Further chapters examine latest efforts to develop an effective genocide early warning system and examine the complexity of and barriers to prevention The pros and cons of sanctions and the problems of enforcement and evaluation their effectiveness are then discussed Conflicts between state sovereignty and the protection of threatened populations are examined both in historical context and by incorporating the latest thinking Later chapters treat the issue of intervention why and how it has met with only limited success Concentrating on Rwanda and Srebrenica chapter 8 discusses various peace operations that were abject failures and those that were moderately successful The concept of an anti genocide regime is examined in terms of progress in developing such a regime as well as what the international community must do in order to implement it Chapters discuss key issues related to post genocidal periods those that need to be addressed in order to establish stability in a wounded land and populace as well as to prevent future genocides The final chapter asks whether bringing perpetrators to justice has any impact in breaking impunity ensuring deterrence and bringing about reconciliation The contributors to the volume are all noted scholars some of whom specialize in the study of genocide and others who specialize in such areas as early warning peacekeeping and sanctions

The Mythical West Richard W. Slatta, 2001-11-20 This cultural journey down memory lane showcases how major Western figures events and places have been portrayed in folk legends art literature and popular culture Ever since the days of the 49ers and George Armstrong Custer the Old West has been America's most potent source of legend But it is sometimes hard to separate fact from fiction Did you know for example that Annie Oakley was a talented marksman who shot an estimated 40 000 rounds per year while practicing and performing for Buffalo Bill Cody's Wild West Show in the late 1800s Or that many interpreters believe that The Wonderful Wizard of Oz is not just a fairy tale but also a Populist allegory These are just two of the folk legends dissected and examined in this veritable cultural geography The volume covers everything from billionaire Howard Hughes and composer Aaron Copeland to Aztlan the legendary first city of the Aztecs and Area 51 the top secret U S Air Force base at Groom Lake Nevada that has fascinated UFO and conspiracy buffs

NGOs Mediating Peace Julia Palmiano Federer, 2023-12-28 This book explores the role of nongovernmental mediators in promoting inclusive peace to negotiating parties in Myanmar's Nationwide Ceasefire Agreement NCA negotiations from 2011-2015 The influx of NGO mediators directly engaging with the negotiating parties and promoting the inclusivity norm coupled with the salience of discourse around all inclusiveness at the end of the NCA process forms a puzzle around the agency that NGO mediators wield in influencing political outcomes despite their lack of political and material leverage The author argues that NGO mediators can effectively promote norms using mediation processes as a site of norm diffusion Bespoke international conflict resolution NGOs have become key mediation actors within the last three decades through creating the niche world of private diplomacy and acting as norm entrepreneurs at the same time As informal third parties these NGO mediators directly engage with politically sensitive actors or convene unofficial peace talks As NGOs they are part of an epistemic community of mediation practice professionalizing the field and producing knowledge on what peace mediation is and what it ought to be This dual identity as both NGOs and mediators nicely sets them up with a unique agency to promote and diffuse norms These norms often reflect the liberal peacebuilding paradigm promoted from the Global North such as inclusion gender equality and transitional justice with the view that these norms are not ends in themselves but as necessary ingredients for effective mediation The book further questions whether NGOs should promote norms in the first place The outcome of the NCA process presents a critical and cautionary tale of promoting a presumed universal norm into a given locale and expecting a certain outcome without understanding how an external norm interacts with existing normative frameworks The book illustrates that while NGO mediators do possess the normative agency to effectively promote norms to negotiating parties my empirical research analyses how their promotion of the inclusivity norm to the negotiating parties in Myanmar's NCA paradoxically resulted in exclusionary outcomes only half of the armed groups in the ethnic armed groups negotiating bloc signed and civil society was effectively crowded out from meaningful participation despite lofty rhetoric This is an open access book

Risk and Uncertainty Olivier Urbain, 2017-07-05 Conflict transformation requires at minimum a capacity to listen and respond constructively to those who are being hurt intentionally or unintentionally by others This compendium attempts to understand the ways in which borders and boundaries are manifestations of less visible dynamics in individual or collective human consciousness Nur Yalman asks how certain theories such as the Huntington thesis become deadly in their consequences Omar Moufakkir and Ian Kelly analyze Dutch Moroccan relations Sverre Lodgaard outlines the interrelationship between geo politics emerging concepts of world order and nuclear weapon policies Anthony Marsella critically analyses the Fukushima nuclear disaster The lessons drawn in this volume underline the importance of communication honesty and a concerned government responsive to the needs of citizens in crisis Each of these contributions is grappling with different ways in which words theories ideologies and perspectives can hurt or heal divide or unite reconcile or destroy

Sustainable Peace in the Twenty-First Century Dilip Vasudeo Kulkarni, 2017-02-01 Why haven't we been successful in finding sustainable solutions is a question that this book attempts to address This book questions the appropriateness of current approaches to international conflict mediation peacebuilding and whether today's practitioners have the necessary patience passion and training to manage twenty first century conflicts This book also examines whether the current approaches to the mediation of international conflict and peacebuilding as well as the education in these fields effectively consider the influence of the post Cold War environment and whether they address sub national conflicts caused by the continually increasing social inequality within societies among parties with different cultural religious racial ethnic and linguistic backgrounds The narratives of the lived experiences of this book's contributors are used to illustrate the challenges associated with achieving sustained global peace in the twenty first century Using the author's conversations with the contributors to the book as well as educators this book suggests that a universally adopted answer to the book's underlying question has not yet been established Therefore the objective of this book is to start a public conversation about reforming the current education and practices used in the mediation of international conflicts and peacebuilding The author hopes that these reforms will enable practitioners in integrating the message of the youth uprisings across the globe in finding sustainable resolutions to social inequality based conflicts within their societies and among countries across the globe As all of the citizens of the world continue to live in the midst of conflicts erupting across the globe this book brings to the surface the urgent and acute need for finding better approaches to address this century's social inequality based conflicts This book seeks to bring hope and to energize individuals with different cultural religious ethnic racial and linguistic backgrounds as well as individuals with different professional and personal lived experiences to collaboratively work together to achieve sustainable global peace The author hopes that this book will foster among students educators and practitioners a better understanding of international conflict mediators approaches for accommodating the inter relationship between culture and the mediation of international conflicts
