Interim Chair Gupta went on to say that Dr. Ono's humbleness and respect for others is very well recognized by all the Board members.

Dr. Ono began by saying it was an honor to lead UC as President and said he began as the Provost in the summer of 2010. He discussed the tour of the campus that was given to the OBR last evening and said that he hoped they enjoyed it. UC has been named by Forbes Magazine and others as one of the most beautiful and strategically planned campuses in the world. He invited the OBR back to the campus and encouraged them to visit anytime.

In recognition of Chancellor Jim Petrá's last OBR meeting, due to his retirement, Dr. Ono provided remarks. He read a resolution into the record "You have given so much to this state in your different roles. You have given so much to higher education as Chancellor. You have transformed higher education and you are going to see the fruits of your labor and the passion of your vision for higher education. We salute you from UC for everything that you have done". He went on to add that he will miss seeing the Chancellor on the campus.
