The Suicide of Christian Theology John Warwick Montgomery, 2018-01-26 A forceful scholarly call to return to the solid ground of the ancient creeds of Christianity Dr Montgomery's incisive observations on Barth Bultmann Tillich de Chardin Pike and others may rankle some readers on occasion But there can never be any question about the mental acumen he brings to bear upon his subject or the skill with which he pens his views Montgomery is so obviously at home in the area of the theological and so conversant with the convictions of his fellow theologians that he certainly must be reckoned with Not content with only analyzing the suicide of theology the author also gives a proposal for its resurrection Commentary on the Book of the Prophet Isaiah Ð Volume II John Calvin, The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1971, volume 2

Commentary on the Book of the Prophet Isaiah Ð Volume I John Calvin, The Red Book C. G. Jung, 2013-10-21 A portable edition of the famous Red Book text and essay The Red Book published to wide acclaim in 2009 contains the nucleus of C G Jung's later works It was here that he developed his principal theories of the archetypes the collective unconscious and the process of individuation that would transform psychotherapy from treatment of the sick into a means for the higher development of the personality As Sara Corbett wrote in the New York Times The creation of one of modern history's true visionaries The Red Book is a singular work outside of categorization As an inquiry into what it means to be human it transcends the history of psychoanalysis and underscores Jung's place among revolutionary thinkers like Marx Orwell and of course Freud The Red Book A Reader's Edition features Sonu Shamdasani's introductory essay and the full translation of Jung's vital work in one volume A Learned and Complete Commentary Upon the Book of the Revelation James Durham, 1764 The Existence Theodore Ihejieta, 2018-12-21 The Existence By Theodore Ihejieta The Existence is a book of love and life that talks about the world as the existence of human beings and tells human beings to understand that the world is the love and the life It is a book of Planet Earth which the Planet Earth gave to the author because the author asked the Planet Earth for the book of the world The author is a human being who lost faith in God and called on Planet Earth to do work and save human beings from evil and death in the world This is a book of a human being who was challenged by evil and death in the world and the human being called on his existence for help and protection The author did not like to die in the world and told his existence that he did not want to die because the author believed that Planet Earth has the power to save human beings in the world The Existence is the faith the hope and the charity that God challenged human beings to find and tell the mountain of evil and death to move away from human beings The Standard,1908 The Red Book: Reflections on C.G. Jung's Liber Novus Thomas Kirsch,George Hogenson,2017-09-19 In 2009 WW Norton published The Red Book a book written by Jung in 1913 1914 but not previously published Snippets of information about the likely contents of the Red Book had been in circulation for years and there was much debate and eager anticipation of its publication within the Jungian field and the larger reading public In 2010 a conference was held at the San Francisco Jungian Institute which brought together an international group of distinguished scholars in analytical psychology to explore and address critical contextual aspects of The Red Book and to debate its importance for current and future Jungian theory and practice The Red Book Reflections on C G Jung s Liber Novus is based on that conference the individual papers have been thoroughly revised and updated for this book and address some of the important questions and issues that were raised at that conference in response to the presentation of these papers As yet there has been very little published about The Red Book The Red Book Reflections on C G Jung s Liber Novus will contribute to setting the agenda for further research both scholarly and clinical in response to Jung s account of his experiences between 1913 1914 when arguably the future course of his entire project was set in motion This book will be essential reading for any Jungian interested in the importance of The Red Book analytical psychologists trainee analysts those with an interest in the history of ideas and historians The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 33 Spurgeon, Charles,2015-03-26 Volume 33 Sermons 1938 2000 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church s most famous preachers and Christianity s foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England s most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon s messages to be among the best in Christian literature Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon s meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon s legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon
