Department Army,2012-11-30 Field manual FM 3 04 240 is specifically prepared for aviators authorized to fly Army aircraft

This manual presents the fundamentals procedures and techniques for instrument flying and air navigation FM 3 04 240 facilitates adherence to Army regulation AR 95 1 by providing guidance and procedures for standard Army instrument flying

Aircraft flight instrumentation and mission objectives are varied making instruction general for equipment and detailed for accomplishment of maneuvers Guidance found in this manual is both technique and procedure oriented Aircraft operator manuals provide the detailed instructions required for particular aircraft instrumentation or characteristics When used with related flight directives and publications this publication provides adequate guidance for instrument flight under most circumstances but is not a substitute for sound judgment circumstances may require modification of prescribed procedures

Aircrew members charged with the safe operation of United States Army Army National Guard ARNG or United States Army Reserve USAR aircraft must be knowledgeable of the guidance contained herein This manual applies to all military civilian and or contractor personnel who operate Army aircraft and adherence to its general practices is mandatory The Aeronautical

Information Manual AIM published by the Federal Aviation Administration FAA is not regulatory however the AIM provides information that reflects examples of operating techniques and procedures required in other regulations AIM is not binding on Army aircrews Furthermore the AIM contains some techniques and procedures not consistent with Army mission requirements regulatory guidance waivers exemptions and accepted techniques and procedures However AIM is the accepted standard for civil aviation and reflects general techniques and procedures used by other pilots Much of the information contained in this manual is reproduced from AIM and adapted for Army use If a subject is not covered in this manual or other Army regulations follow guidance in the AIM unless mission requirements dictate otherwise All figures and tables that display partial or complete navigational excerpts from other publications such as instrument approach charts legends and low altitude en route charts are provided for reference only and should not be used in planning for or the
