

LEADING women

A portrait painting of Golda Meir, an elderly woman with short, wavy, light-colored hair. She is wearing a dark blue long-sleeved shirt with a pattern of small, colorful leaves in yellow, red, and white. Her hands are clasped in her lap. The background is a textured, light brownish-grey. The painting is set against a dark brown background at the bottom of the slide.

Golda Meir Leading Women:

Leading Ladies Jeanne L. Porter, 2004-06-01 Drawing on stories of biblical women Leading Ladies presents four models of transformational leadership that recognize the leadership styles of women in all walks of life Intercessor Midwife Choreographer and Weaver Includes reflective questions for journaling or group discussion Women as Global Leaders Faith Wambura Ngunjiri, Susan R. Madsen, 2015-02-01 Women as Global Leaders is the second volume in the new Women and Leadership Research Theory and Practice book series published for the International Leadership Association by IAP Global leadership is an emerging area of research with only a small but growing published literature base More specifically the topic of women's advances and adventures in leading within the global context is barely covered in the existing leadership literature Although few women are serving in global leadership roles in corporate and non profit arenas and as heads of nations that number is growing e.g. Indira Nooyi at PepsiCo Sheryl Sandberg at Facebook Marissa Mayer at Yahoo Ellen Johnson Sirleaf as president of Liberia Angela Merkel as chancellor of Germany The purpose of this volume is to provide the reader with current conceptualizations and theory related to women as global leaders recent empirical investigations of the phenomenon analysis of effective global leadership development programs and portraits of women who lead or have led in a global role The volume is divided into four sections The first section covers the state of women as global leaders containing chapters by Joyce Osland and Nancy Adler pioneers in the field of global and or women's leadership The second section describes approaches to women's global leadership The third section offers an analysis of programs that are useful in developing women as global leaders with the final section profiling women as global leaders including Margaret Thatcher Nobel Laureate Malala Yousfzai and Golda Meir As Barbara Kellerman noted in the Foreword this book should be understood as a collection whose time has come precisely because women now have opportunities to lead that are far more expansive than they were even in the recent past Though their numbers remain low they are able in some cases to exercise leadership not only as outsiders but also as insiders from the very positions of power and authority to which men forever have had access

Leading Learning and Legacies: Andrea Blaustein, 2016-07-14 Leading Learning and Legacies The Principles of Successful Leadership lays out fourteen key principles to find within yourself in order to become a great leader They are not complex and are not based on formal education finances or social standing These principles can be found in anyone who seeks them out within themselves and are for anyone who wants to help make the world a better place Leadership is one of the most undertaught set of skills in our young people Children often demonstrate a desire to learn leadership but this drive is too often neglected and then lost The book is written for aspiring young leaders as much as for those established leaders who choose to ensure that they are keeping up with the ever changing demands on them There are many books on leadership that are written for corporate America but very few are written for aspiring community leaders students and parents who want to instill leadership qualities in their children Use it as a journal as well as a guide

Leadership evolves but should always maintain a baseline code of conduct Leaders are accountable humble though not self effacing and generous with their time and energy They are teachers friends students and pillars of strength This book will teach you how to be one of them whoever and wherever you are Women of Power Torild Skard,2015-03-09 At a time when a woman Angela Merkel is arguably the most powerful leader in Europe and another Hilary Clinton continues to be at the center of the US political stage it seems that women have broken through the glass ceiling and begun to populate the highest offices of the political world Women of Power is a testament to that accomplishment offering the most comprehensive overview of female presidents and prime ministers to date Looking at over fifty countries and over seventy women leaders since 1960 Torild Skard herself an experienced politician examines how and why these women rose to the top and what their leadership has meant for women s empowerment throughout the latter half of the twentieth century Skard examines the achievements and life stories of the world s female leaders up to the current era She offers nuanced portraits that draw on a number of materials including many interviews that she conducted herself All of the women discussed are organized by both chronology and geography and Skard includes a number of helpful chapters that provide an overview and assessment of how different women leaders have come to power in different regions Overall the book provides a fascinating account of women s empowerment as it has manifested itself at the very top of the political hierarchy Women Lead the Way Linda Tarr-Whelan,2009-10-12 Offers practical steps for women to bring their passion brains and background to the power tables and make life better for themselves their company or organization and global society Combines compelling research international experience and fascinating personal stories with solid advice Tarr Whelan has extensive background as a business woman a government official a non profit leader and a nurse A few first women are making key decisions in high places but a few is not enough to have a significant impact Changing what gets decided takes changing who makes the decisions But with just 17% of Congressional seats and 14% of Fortune 500 board seats held by women the leaders defining priorities and solutions continue to look and act much the same as generations ago Linda Tarr Whelan marshals eye opening facts and figures to decisively dispel the myths that still hold women back and shows women how to build their confidence and skills to pioneer a distinctive approach to leadership one that emphasizes collaboration communication and consensus The proven tipping point surprisingly is just 30% when women s representation at the top reaches 30% real change starts to happen Drawing on her extraordinarily diverse background as a consultant organizer and diplomat Tarr Whelan offers a women led strategy for change and a complete set of practical road tested tools readers can use to become powerful partners in creating a better future in a rapidly changing world Closing the leadership gap is a win for everyone it brings in new ideas creates a more balanced and productive work environment a revitalized social compact and demonstrable positive effects on the bottom line in business and government Women Lead the Way artfully combines advocacy research and tactical guidance to help readers wedge the door open and bring more women through and up Political Worlds of Women Mary

Hawkesworth,2018-04-19 Political Worlds of Women provides a comprehensive overview of women's political activism comparing formal and informal channels of power from official institutions of state to grassroots mobilizations and Internet campaigns Illuminating the politics of identity enmeshed in local national and global gender orders this book explores women's creation of new political spaces and innovative political strategies to secure full citizenship and equal access to political power Incorporating case studies from Africa Asia Europe and the Americas Mary Hawkesworth analyzes critical issues such as immigration and citizenship the politics of representation sexual regulation and gender mainstreaming in order to examine how women mobilize in this era of globalization Political Worlds of Women deepens understandings of national and global citizenship and presents the formidable challenges facing racial and gender justice in the contemporary world It is an essential resource for students and scholars of women's studies and gender politics Women Who Won Ros

Journal of the Senate, Legislature of the State of California California. Legislature. Senate, 1942 Feminist Theory and Educational Leadership Robert Palestini, 2013-05-09

Who is an effective leader has been a question posed by scholars educators and practitioners of leadership for centuries Historically leadership positions as well as research on leadership and effective leadership was primarily reserved for men or masculine characteristics With most societies traditionally following a patriarchal hierarchy few people questioned inequalities in leadership attainment largely because of supernatural and or natural explanations of men's natural ability and desire to lead This book runs counter to that culture and examines the experiences and leadership enactments of ten historically famous women leaders in hopes of gaining insight into their uniquely female leadership styles The ten leaders include Catherine the Great Jane Addams Queen Victoria Marie Montessori Indira Gandhi Golda Meir Mother Teresa Margaret Thatcher Pat Summit and Hillary Clinton The idea of course is to reflect upon these great women's leadership styles in order to inform one's own leadership behavior
