you are LGBT have HIV AIDS have been in prison abuse drugs or alcohol are homeless or are otherwise compromised and marginalized TFAM tells its people you are one of God's creations In Filled with the Spirit Ellen Lewin gives us a deeply empathetic ethnography of the worship and community central to TFAM telling the story of how the doctrine of radical inclusivity has expanded beyond those it originally sought to serve to encompass people of all races genders sexualities and religious backgrounds Lewin examines the seemingly paradoxical relationship between TFAM and traditional black churches focusing on how congregations and individual members reclaim the worship practices of these churches and simultaneously challenge their authority The book looks closely at how TFAM worship is legitimated and enhanced by its use of gospel music and considers the images of food and African American culture that are central to liturgical imagery as well as how understandings of personal authenticity tie into the desire to be filled with the Holy Spirit Throughout Lewin takes up what has been mostly missing from our discussions of race gender and sexuality close attention to spirituality and faith
