Bailey,2020-06-15 Focusing on the period between the revolutions of 1848 1849 and the First Vatican Council 1869 1870 The Public Image of Eastern Orthodoxy explores the circumstances under which westerners concerned about the fate of the papacy the Ottoman Empire Poland and Russian imperial power began to conflate the Russian Orthodox Church with the state and to portray the Church as the political tool of despotic tsars As Heather L Bailey demonstrates in response to this reductionist view Russian Orthodox publicists launched a public relations campaign in the West especially in France in the 1850s and 1860s The linchpin of their campaign was the building of the impressive Saint Alexander Nevsky Church in Paris consecrated in 1861 Bailey posits that as the embodiment of the belief that Russia had a great historical purpose inextricably tied to Orthodoxy the Paris church both reflected and contributed to the rise of religious nationalism in Russia that followed the Crimean War At the same time the confrontation with westerners negative ideas about the Eastern Church fueled a reformist spirit in Russia while contributing to a better understanding of Eastern Orthodoxy in the West (Counter-)Archive: Memorial Practices of the Soviet Underground Klavdia Smola,Ilya Kukulín,Annelie Bachmaier,2024-10-04 This book is the first major study exploring archival and memorial practices of the Soviet unofficial culture The creation of counter archives was one of the most important forms of cultural resistance in the Soviet Union Unofficial artists and poets had to reinvent the possibilities of maintaining art and literature that did not exist Against the background of archival theories and memory studies the volume explores how the culture of the Soviet underground has become one of the most striking cases of scholarly and artistic self archiving which although being half isolated from the outer world reflected intellectual and artistic trends characteristic of its time The guiding question of the volume is how Soviet unofficial culture de constructed social memory by collecting archiving and memorizing tabooed culture of the past and present
