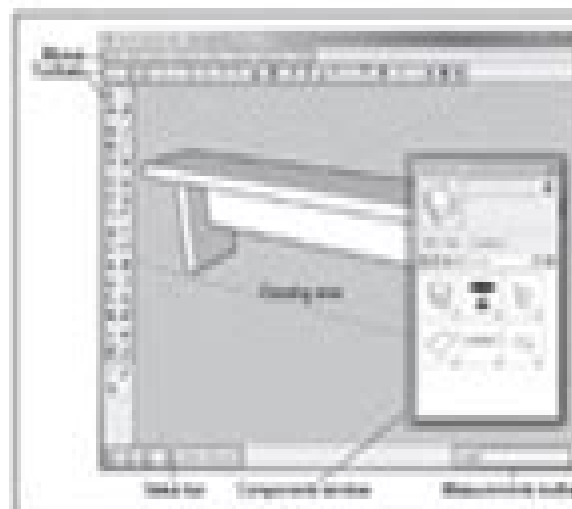

Figure 1-1 The SketchUp window. The SketchUp window is a familiar interface that you've seen in other 3D modeling software. The Component window shows how objects are related to each other. See page 111 for more information on the Component window and the SketchUp interface.

In addition to the five main windows, SketchUp also includes several other windows, such as the Component window that's open in Figure 1-1. You can open and close these as needed by using the Window menu. With the tools in these windows, you'll apply color and shading to your models, select and delete components, add shadows and lighting effects, and export your project.
