Governing Nonprofit Organizations Federal And State Law And Regulation:

Governing Nonprofit Organizations Marion R. Fremont-Smith, 2008-12-15 The nonprofit sector is a vital component of our society and is allowed the greatest freedom to operate The public understandably assumes that since nonprofit organizations are established to do good the people who run nonprofits are altruistic and the laws governing nonprofits have reflected this assumption But as Marion Fremont Smith argues the rules that govern how nonprofits operate are inadequate and the regulatory mechanisms designed to enforce the rules need improvement Despite repeated instances of negligent management self interest at the expense of the charity and outright fraud nonprofits continue to receive minimal government regulation In this time of increased demand for corporate accountability the need to strengthen regulation of nonprofits is obvious Fremont Smith addresses this need from a historical legal and organizational perspective She combines summaries and analysis of the substantive legal rules governing the behavior of charitable officers directors and trustees with descriptions of the federal and state regulatory schemes designed to enforce these rules Her unique and exhaustive historical survey of the law of nonprofit organizations provides a foundation for her analysis of the effectiveness of current law and proposals for its improvement Outlines and Highlights for Governing Nonprofit Organizations Cram101 Textbook Reviews, 2010-12 Never HIGHLIGHT a Book Again Virtually all of the testable terms concepts persons places and events from the textbook are included Cram101 Just the FACTS101 studyguides give all of the outlines highlights notes and quizzes for your textbook with optional online comprehensive practice tests Only Cram101 is Textbook Specific Accompany 9780674030459 Managing Nonprofit Organizations in a Policy World, Second Edition Shannon Vaughan, Shelly Arsneault, 2021-07-01 Connecting everyday management skills to the policy world this foundational textbook sheds new light on how nonprofit managers can better navigate policymaking and regulatory contexts to effectively lead their organizations While it covers all of the nuts and bolts what sets this book apart is how everyday management is tied to the broader view of how nonprofits can thrive within the increasingly intertwined public private and not for profit sectors The Second Edition includes updated discussions of coronavirus and pandemic related policy implications regulations sector statistics and social media fundraising new and updated case studies and a new chapter on Philanthropy and Foundations Voluntary Regulation of NGOs and Nonprofits Mary Kay Gugerty, Aseem Prakash, 2010-09-30 How can nonprofit organizations and NGOs demonstrate accountability to stakeholders and show that they are using funds appropriately and delivering on their promises Many nonprofit stakeholders including funders and regulators have few opportunities to observe nonprofit internal management and policies Such information deficits make it difficult for principals to differentiate credible nonprofits from less credible ones This volume examines a key instrument employed by nonprofits to respond to these challenges voluntary accountability clubs These clubs are voluntary rule based governance systems created and sponsored by nongovernmental actors By participating in accountability clubs nonprofits agree to abide by certain rules regarding internal governance in order to send a signal of quality to key principals Nonprofit voluntary programs are relatively new but are spreading rapidly across the globe This book investigates how the emergence design and success of such initiatives vary across a range of sectors and institutional contexts in the United States the Netherlands Africa and Central Europe Governance and Regulation in the Third Sector Susan Phillips, Steven Rathgeb Smith, 2011-01-25 This book brings together scholars and experienced practitioners from different countries to investigate the relationship between regulation and relational governance for the third sector in a comparative context The ^AOxford Handbook of Fiduciary Law Evan J.
