Robinson,Dennis Strachota,James A. Hough,2017-09-19 Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities is designed as the primary textbook for a quarter or semester long course in public budgeting and finance in an MPA programme Many currently available texts for this course suffer from a combination of defects that include a focus on federal and state budgeting a lack of a theoretical governance framework an omission of important topics and typically a lack of exercises and datasets for student use Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities solves all of these problems The book is exceptionally comprehensive and well written and represents the efforts of veteran authors with both teaching and real world experience Key Features Special Focus on Local Government Budgeting focuses exclusively on budgeting at the local levels of American government which are responsible for spending 40 percent of the taxes collected from citizens Integration of Theory and Practice teaching cases and chapters capture the lessons learned by professional practitioners who have extensive experience in making local public budgeting work on the ground Polity Approach to Local Budgeting presents an introduction to local budgeting as the central political activity that integrates the resources of the community into a unified whole Budgeting is presented as governance work rather than as a unique set of skills possessed by analysts and financial specialists Legal Historical Economic and Moral Foundations of Local Government Budgeting provides readers with an understanding of how the structures and processes of local budgeting systems are firmly tethered to the underlying core values legal principles and historical development of the larger American federal state and local political systems Electronic Datasets and Budgeting Exercises the text includes access to extensive electronic datasets and practice exercises that provide abundant opportunities for students to learn through doing Extensive Glossary and Bibliography covers terms on the history and practice of local public budgeting Searching the Law - The States Francis R Doyle,2022-11-14 This revised two volume set reproduces the easy to use logically organized format of Searching the Law for each of the 50 U S states Arranged by state and by topic within each state it features a complete list of all the legal research materials available for each state jurisdiction thousands of citations to the legal literature of each state materials applicable to more than one topic listed under each topic repeated listings under each state and topic where they apply and author title publisher format and the latest known supplement for each citation Searching the Law The States is the companion text to Searching the Law

Together the sets form one of the most comprehensive logical legal reference sources available Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9781571052872 Law Books in
