Heritage in Late Colonial Cuba Paul Niell, 2015-05-15 According to national legend Havana Cuba was founded under the shade of a ceiba tree whose branches sheltered the island's first Catholic mass and meeting of the town council cabildo in 1519 The founding site was first memorialized in 1754 by the erection of a baroque monument in Havana's central Plaza de Armas which was reconfigured in 1828 by the addition of a neoclassical work El Templete Viewing the transformation of the Plaza de Armas from the new perspective of heritage studies this book investigates how late colonial Cuban society narrated Havana's founding to valorize Spanish imperial power and used the monuments to underpin a local sense of place and cultural authenticity civic achievement and social order Paul Niell analyzes how Cubans produced heritage at the site of the symbolic ceiba tree by endowing the collective urban space of the plaza with a cultural authority that used the past to validate various place identities in the present Niell's close examination of the extant forms of the 1754 and 1828 civic monuments which include academic history paintings neoclassical architecture and idealized sculpture in tandem with period documents and printed texts reveals a dissonance of heritage in other words a lack of agreement as to the works significance and use He considers the implications of this dissonance with respect to a wide array of interests in late colonial Havana showing how heritage as a dominant cultural discourse was used to manage and even disinherit certain sectors of the colonial population Ancestral Voices, Healing Narratives Kristina S. Gibby, 2023-12-06 Ancestral Voices Healing Narratives Female Ghosts in Contemporary US and Caribbean Fiction examines four novels by Erna Brodber Zo Vald's Sandra Cisneros and Maryse Condé In this unique comparative analysis Kristina S Gibby explores the significance of female ghosts specifically maternal figures who haunt female narrators inspiring them to transcribe the dead's obfuscated hi stories and recover their family memory The author argues that these female ghosts subvert historiographic power structures through a matrilineal succession of knowledge via oral traditions of storytelling inevitably broadening historical consciousness and asserting the value of fiction in the face of historical rupture Gibby contends that in form and content these novels disrupt patriarchal and Western expectations of time and epistemology. They favor cyclical temporality highlighted by the spirits' uncanny return which underscores relational understanding and challenges the exclusive and limiting constraints of linear time. This book makes important contributions to inter American literary criticism with its narrow focus on female authors who confront the horrors of history through maternal spirits. Cultures, 1973
