Have We Lost Our Common Sense:

Have We Lost Our Common Sense? Bob Terrell, 2010-09-30 We as a people of a proud and historic nation watched our economy become badly fractured from 2001 through 2009 The lust for big power and wealth has caused some leaders in government business and religion to demonstrate greater ambition in achieving their own personal success than the success and prosperity of the very people they are responsible for leading and protecting Our political system has lost the ability and desire to have bi partisan teamwork in making the quality of life better for everyone as well as future generations My goal is for us to seek and find solutions to problems not just whine and gripe among ourselves for self gain I am a small town boy from Kentucky who was fortunate enough to attend college on a basketball scholarship and my college education might not have even been possible without athletics Three years as a young Marine Corps Officer gave me an opportunity to see life from another vantage point Forty years as an Executive in the Automotive Industry an opportunity to live in eleven different states and one territory and raising family of five gave me additional perspectives on life This book has been born from the memories and actual experiences I have enjoyed from relationships and friendships with many interesting personalities from Baseball Great Roberto Clemente to former Governor George Nigh of Oklahoma along with many top executives in industry I have seen the Good the Bad and even the Ugly of life Fortunately I have seen so many good and kind people that the bad and the ugly have been overcome I hope you enjoy reading Have We Lost Our Common Sense as much as I have enjoyed writing it

The Expression of Emotion in the Visual Arts: A Philosophical Inquiry Benjamin R. Tilghman, 2012-12-06 The philosophy of art aesthetics is here understood to be something distinct from both art appreciation and art criticism The philosophy of art is never theless dependent upon the existence of appreciation and criticism because it is out of reflection upon these that the uniquely philosophical problems of art arise problems that reflect puzzlement about what is involved in understanding enjoying describing and evaluating works of art Hence the philosophy of art must presuppose at least some measure of understanding and appreciation of particular works of art and if such understanding and appreciation are lacking the philosopher is in no position to supply them It can not be a philosophical task to undertake a Defense of Poesie against either the philistine or the tyrant The philosopher is not the one to convince us that art is a Good Thing that paintings are worth looking at poems worth reading and music worth listening to if for no other reason than that philosophical theory and argument are no substitute for taste and sensibility My position here is the now unexceptional one that philosophical problems are essentially conceptual problems and while the philosopher of art cannot produce aesthetic sensibility and appreciation where these do not exist he can give us understanding of the concepts relevant to artistic appreciation and thereby help us to see our way through the conceptual confusions that have generated the philosophical puzzles surrounding art its appreciation and criticism

Conscious (R)Evolution, Humanity, Insanity, and the Planet Michael Anthony, 2024-01-05 In Conscious R Evolution Humanity Insanity and the Planet the author brings together two powerful insights that all life on this planet is interconnected and that humanity's current path of consumerism and industrialization is leading to catastrophe. From deforestation to pollution, we are damaging the very environment that sustains us. This book asks us to stop and consider the bigger picture as an intelligent species: why would we willingly destroy the planet that gave us life? With urgency and clarity, the author calls for a new way of living, one that recognizes our place in the natural world and uses our intelligence to create a better future for all.

To Be or Not To Be: Sudan at Crossroads Hashim, M. Jalal, 2019-02-19
To be or not to be is an analysis of linguistic, cultural, political, economic, and social factors which explain the intricate root causes of conflicts which have ravished Sudan. It stands in stark contrast to the dominant simplification and distortions which have come to typify presentations of the region. Central to the book is an unapologetic explanation of Arabization which often is portrayed as individual choices of religious loyalty but in fact masks an intentional power system which viciously corrupts African identities. By highlighting the detrimental complexities of manipulation, geopolitics, identity confusion, and cultural imperialism, Hashim has not only written an authoritative book about Sudan but also presented a comprehensive case study that all of Africa must learn from. Rarely are we presented with such a vigorous inside view to an area of Africa which once was held in the highest civilizational esteem but has been reduced to an ideological field of Arab-led terror, massacres, and disintegration.

Contentious Beliefs Jerome Jewett, 2017-12-23
Contentious Beliefs is the junction where spirituality meets religion and science to explain the mysteries of life. Contentious Beliefs is enclosed with beliefs that define God, the universe, and existence. Therefore, I urge you to read it with an open mind. Consider all possibilities. Do not discard its divinations without fully contemplating its debatable chapters.

Flames of Mixed-Emotions Ruford Royal Murray, 2016-04-15
The anthology of poems birth from experiences has tentacles within every fabric of our human existence. Despite our socioeconomic, geopolitical, or ethnic background, it still appeals to the emotional senses in us. So don't be afraid to plunge within the voyage of experiencing teardrop, laughter, pain, memory, or even an inspiration. Take my hand and read with me the pages of my memories beneath The Flames of Mixed Emotions.

The Miracle Children Gerald Michael Daly, 2010-09-28
December 12th, 2012
Pastor Isaiah Hillman awakens as the miraculous hand of God encircles many children in rainbows of light. The children are blessed, healed, and commanded by the Holy Spirit to prepare the world for The New Day. Five of the children are members of Pastor Hillman's congregation, and he soon finds himself facing opposition from his family, the news media, and evil forces that will do anything in their power to stop The Miracle Children from fulfilling God's New Beginning for the world.
