Contextualization and the Old Testament Jerry Hwang, 2022-09-26 Christianity is often viewed in Asia as a Western imposition Challenging this Dr Jerry Hwang examines the Old Testament s cultural engagement of its ancient Near Eastern context arguing that Scripture itself provides the ultimate model for contextualizing theology in Asia While it is common for missiological studies to ignore the Old Testament in their discussion of contextualization truly biblical contextualization must include the whole Bible not simply the New Testament This study provides insightful discourse between the Old Testament and various Asian contexts while demonstrating how Asian perspectives can help overcome the Eurocentrism prevalent in Old Testament scholarship This is an ideal resource for scholars and practitioners interested in a biblical perspective of contextualization especially as related to constructing theology that honors the truth of Scripture in the context of Asia

Fourth Maccabees and the Promotion of the Jewish Philosophy David A. DeSilva, 2023-02-23 Fourth Maccabees is a superbly crafted oration that presents a case for the Jewish way of life couched almost entirely in terms of Greek ethical ideals Using an expansion upon previous scriptural narratives as an opportunity for philosophical exposition its author delights in the Torah the Law of Moses as the divinely given path to becoming our best selves now Moreover drawing upon Greek logic tradition he develops an elaborate rationalisation of that law based upon the promise of eternal life with God In this collection of essays spanning two decades of study David deSilva examines the formative training that produced such an author the rhetorical craft present in his work and the author s creative use of both Jewish and Greek literary resources Finally he demonstrates the book s enduring message and legacy in the Christian church from theological influence on Origen to textual relations within Codex Sinaiticus

Benefaction in Galatians David Wyman ,2025-03-17 About Face Christopher L. Flanders,2011-03-07 For Thais face is a fact writes Flanders However whether in theology evangelism or issues involving sin salvation or atonement Thai Christians and missionaries alike seem either uninterested in or possibly incapable of addressing issues related to face This glaring incongruity between the value of face for Thais and the lack of intentional engagement within the Thai Christian community is deeply troubling Surely such a lack of careful attention to face is a dangerous posture Uncritical views of face furtively attaching to the theology of the Thai church are potentially detrimental for its life and mission Such seems to be an unavoidable situation without proper attention to face Additionally to ignore face is to run the risk of missing valuable cultural resources implicit in the Thai experience of face for the critical task of authentic Thai theological reflection This lack of engagement with face raises critical issues with which we must wrestle How is it that such a central sociocultural issue has not been a more significant part of the Thai Christian vocabulary or experience How pervasive are these negative attitudes regarding face What lies behind them Might this lack of self conscious engagement with face have any relationship to the persistent Thai perception of Christianity as a foreign Western religion How should Christians understand this notion of face and how it relates to the ways we understand and proclaim the gospel Paul in the Greco-Roman World: A Handbook J. Paul Sampley,2016-10-06 This landmark handbook written by distinguished Pauline scholars and first published in 2003 remains the first and only work to offer lucid and insightful examinations of Paul and his world in such depth Together the two volumes that constitute the handbook in its much revised form provide a comprehensive reference resource for new testament scholars looking to understand the classical world in which Paul lived and work Each chapter provides an overview of a particular social convention literary of rhetorical topos social practice or cultural mores of the world in which Paul and his audiences were at home In addition the sections use carefully chosen examples to demonstrate how particularly features of Greco Roman culture shed light on Paul's letters and on his readers possible perception of them For the new edition all the contributions have been fully revised to take into account the last ten years of methodological change and the helpful chapter bibliographies fully updated Wholly new chapters cover such issues as Paul and Memory Paul's Economics honor and shame in Paul's writings and the Greek novel Handbook of Biblical Social Values, Third Edition John J. Pilch,Bruce Malina,2016-11-04 Values are culturally specific This handbook explains select biblical social values in their Mediterranean cultural contexts Some examples of values are altruism freedom family centeredness obedience parenting and power Though the English words for the values described here would be familiar to readers e.g altruism the meanings of such words differ between cultures In the Mediterranean world for instance altruism is a duty incumbent upon anyone who has surplus It is interpersonal and group specific In the West especially in the United States altruism is impersonal and universally oriented generosity that operates in a highly organized context This handbook not only presents the Mediterranean meanings of these value words but also contrasts those meanings with Western ones Jesus, Patrons, and Benefactors Jonathan Marshall, 2015-05-01 Jonathan Marshall born in 1978 earned his PhD in 2008 He has taught courses at Biola University La Mirada CA and Eternity Bible College Simi Valley CA currently he serves as Associate Pastor in the Camarillo Evangelical Free Church EFCA Camarillo CA Urgency and Severity: Pauline Rationale for Expulsion in 1 Corinthians 5:1-13 David E. Bosworth, 2024-05-21 When Paul heard that a Christ follower in Corinth was in an incestuous relationship with his stepmother the apostle insisted the man be removed immediately from the congregation This dramatic response is surprising as Paul responds to other serious situations with much less vehemence Why did Paul react to the immoral man with such urgency and severity Using socio cultural tools this study explains the importance of group identity and witness for Paul s ecclesiology The argument lays a foundation for contemporary readers to appraise contexts where an expulsive response to sin might be appropriate Ministering in Patronage Cultures Jayson Georges, 2019-11-12 Patronage is a central part of global cultures and the biblical story of God s mission yet many Westerners misunderstand or ignore this concept In this resource for ministry practitioners and lay Christians alike Jayson Georges brings his crosscultural experience and biblical insights to bear on the topic of patronage with sections on cultural issues biblical models theological concepts and missional implications How to Kill Things with Words David R. McCabe, 2011-10-27 This work studies the literary and socio discursive contexts of the Ananias and Sapphira episode in Acts as a narrative illustrating the negative ethos of community goods This work examines the dynamics of the Ananias and Sapphira episode in Acts and its role in the narrative of Luke Acts McCabe locates the passage within its literary context and emphasizes the manner in which it is embedded in a discourse on the life of the Christian community expressed through shared goods Utilizing Speech Act Theory McCabe argues that Peter s words divinely sanctioned directly execute the divine judgment upon the couple This is argued by appealing to the social processes and conventions of language use within the context of a community of goods discourse as present in the Lukan narrative McCabe appeals to the conventions deployed in the narrative world of Luke Acts which undergird the efficacy of prophetic speech to effect divine judgment including the patterns established by prophetic figures in the Scriptures of Israel and Luke s own characterization of Jesus as Prophet King followed by an examination of Luke s characterization of Peter as an apostolic prophetic successor to Jesus deputized to speak on behalf of God McCabe concludes by examining the successful execution of the speech act of divine judgment This is formerly the Journal for the Study of the New Testament Supplement a book series that explores the many aspects of New Testament study including historical perspectives social scientific and literary theory and theological cultural and contextual approaches The Early Christianity in Context series a part of JSNTS examines the birth and development of early Christianity up to the end of the third century CE The series places Christianity in its social cultural political and economic context European Seminar on Christian Origins and

1-2 Thessalonians Nijay K. Gupta, 2016-07-12 In the first century the Thessalonian church grieved deaths in their community endured harsh persecution and struggled with questions about the future Paul offered them the comforts and reassurances of hope in the Messiah Jesus But he offered far more than wishful thinking or pie in the sky comfort Paul s emphasis on hope in the Messiah Jesus involved capturing a vision of God s redeemed and just future in order to see and live faithfully today Paul did not believe in a passive hope but an active hope where if the Day of the Messiah is a beacon believers set their course and diligently move toward it That diligence is especially captured by love for Christian brothers and sisters commitment to honest and productive work and obedience to the truth of the gospel of Lord Messiah Jesus
