With Her Last Breath Barbara M. Roberts, 2019-06-04 With Her Last Breath looks for answers of hope for those struggling with thoughts of suicide and their loved ones When Barbara M Roberts first heard that her niece Kathy had taken her life the pain was so bad she could barely stand it If only she had called her more often if only they had taken her to dinner one more time if only she had taken her suicide talk more seriously Suicide happens so often in our society that it now almost seems normal People used to think that Christians did not commit suicide But when Barbara read through Kathy s 26 page journal written within the last 36 hours of her life she knew she was experiencing something the likes of which she had never seen in all her years of pastoral ministry Kathy s journal not only details the act itself but her reasoning behind her suicide a depiction of why she could not stay here on this earth one more day looking forward instead to her hope of Heaven Each chapter of With Her Last Breath is tied to a page in Kathy s journal intertwining the pages with stories of others and tools to help those who are suicidal or their loved ones including what to watch for how to care and where to turn Hearing others stories of suffering those struggling with suicide in any manner are able to make more sense out of their own suffering and emerge with a vision of God s love and faithfulness

The End of Hope--the Beginning Pamela R. McCarroll, 2014 Pamela R McCarroll s central metaphor waiting at the foot of the cross jumps off the page and comes to life that is exactly what chaplains supervisors and ministers do when they engage in care with sufferers Her theological case studies represent one of the best examples in print of an inductive method the one that chaplains supervisors students and parish ministers actually use in practice While we have many good books which demonstrate the theory of pastoral care and use examples and vignettes in an illustrative manner we have few that so directly demonstrate pastoral theological method while teaching students method and content of theology that will serve them in their pastoral care oriented work Jacket      Writing Hope Found in Uncertain Times
