Shari Lewis and Lamb Chop Nat Segaloff,Mallory Lewis,2022-10-28 For almost half a century celebrated ventriloquist and entertainer Shari Lewis 1933 1998 delighted generations of children and adults with the help of her trusted sock puppet sidekick Lamb Chop For decades the beloved pair were synonymous with children s television educating and entrancing their young audience with their symbiotic personalities and their proclivity for song dance and the joy of silliness But as iconic as their television personas are relatively little inside knowledge has been revealed about Lewis herself and the life changing moments that led her to the entertainment industry and perhaps most importantly to Lamb Chop Renowned as a performer Lewis was equally accomplished in business Operating in an era when women were largely left out of the conversation she was one of the few women to run her own television production company Whether it was singing dancing conducting writing drawing or ventriloquism a skill in which she was virtually unmatched Lewis spent the entirety of her sixty five years in pursuit of performative perfection Constantly innovating and adapting to the needs of her audience and the market Lewis extended the longevity of her career decade after decade Her contributions particularly the creation of Lamb Chop and her puppet pals forever changed the history of children s television Now long after Lewis and Lamb Chop graced television with their final performance Lewis s daughter Mallory and author Nat Segaloff have set the record straight about the iconic pair in Shari Lewis and Lamb Chop The Team That Changed Children s Television In this seminal biography the authors pull the veritable wool from the eyes of audiences who adore the legendary entertainer to examine the joys sorrows triumphs and sheer hard work that gave Lewis and Lamb Chop their enduring star power The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1928 Spanish Cathedral Music in the Golden Age Robert Stevenson, Father Ralph Pfau and the Golden Books Glenn F. Chesnut,2017-01-04 Father Ralph Pfau was one of AAs four most published and most formative authors along with Bill Wilson Richmond Walker and Ed Webster during the new movements earliest thirty years during which it grew from only 100 members to almost 300 000 In the first ten years Pfau spent working to spread AA he said I have traveled nearly 750 000 miles I have spoken before nearly two hundred thousand members of AA at retreats meetings and conventions and personally discussed problems with more than ten thousand alcoholics He produced fourteen extremely popular books called the Golden Books under the pen name Father John Doe along with other books and recordings When he joined Alcoholics Anonymous in 1943 he became the first Roman Catholic priest to get sober in the newly formed movement An alcoholic and drug addict he had spent the previous ten years being removed from parish after parish as his drinking and addiction to downers got out of control over and over again He taught the spirituality of imperfection drawing from St Threse of Lisieuxs Little Way and St Augustines teaching of God as Truth Itself the forgiving God who touches us in our fallenness in acts of sudden psychological insight in which our whole perspective on life undergoes sweeping positive quantum changes Over and over he calmed peoples fear of God by reminding them that perfection was a myth and that no human being could do it all He was one of the most creative and interesting American Catholic theologians of his era State Consumer Action United States.
