Beginning your day with God can really make the day rich and meaningful not to mention successful in ways you never dreamed possible. The time you sow in the morning is a precious seed that brings forth a beautiful day filled with strength joy and a love made sweeter because it begins with the One who loves you best. Good Morning God is a wonderful morning devotional filled with inspiring scriptures true to life stories and encouraging reflections to help you fulfill the promise of each new day that your loving heavenly Father has given you to enjoy. Good Morning God Rick Coram, 2016-07-01. How do you begin your morning? The way you begin your day has a significant impact on how the rest of your day goes. That is one reason why it is of utmost importance for a child of God to begin their day with God. In Psalm 5:3 David declared My voice shall you hear in the morning. Oh Lord David understood the importance of meeting the Lord in the morning. In Psalm 63:1 he said Oh God early will I seek you. We are living in a volatile and vicious generation. Our enemy is attacking on every front. No Christian should ever consider leaving home until they have spent ample time with the Lord and armed themselves for spiritual battle. This daily devotional has been written to be a help for believers who want to spend time with their Father. Wake up each day and say Good Morning God.

God and Children Jesus Urteaga, 2020-01-01. Fr Urteaga 1921-2009 is a writer who gave exceptional value to the human side of life and its enrichment by an ongoing struggle for virtue. Likewise he never lost sight of the importance of grace. He addresses parents in their sometimes difficult job of raising children to be not only men and women but Christian saints. His modus operandi is that life is truly worthwhile if it is lived for the love of God. In these chapters he draws on his own rich experience as a teacher and spiritual director. He adds Christian doctrine humor and common sense to make God and Children a book for all parents and especially those of young children. Originally printed in 1960 this newly revised and slightly abridged version of Urteaga's book captures the spirit of his advice which is grounded in truth and is timeless in Enough J.D. Greear, 2018-02-06 Pastor and author J D Greear reveals that the secret to a robust passionate faith isn't getting all the right answers about God but seeing God as the awesome glorious and infinite presence that He is. We like God small. We prefer a God who is safe, domesticated, who thinks like we think, likes what we like, and whom we can manage, predict, and control. A small God is convenient. Practical. Manageable. For us. Thinking of God as so infinitely greater and wiser than we are, and who would cause us to tremble in his presence, is a leftover relic from an oppressive archaic view of religion. But what if this small version of God we've created is holding us back from the greatest experience of our lives from genuine confident world-transforming faith? In Not God Enough J D reveals how to discover a God who is big enough to handle your questions, doubts, and fears, is not silent, is worthy of worship, wants to take you from boring to bold in your faith, has a purpose and mission for you on earth, is pursuing you right now. The truth, God is big. Bigger than big. Bigger than all the words we use to say big. Only a God of infinite power, wisdom, and majesty can answer our deepest questions and meet our deepest longings. God is not just a slightly better, slightly smarter version of you. God is infinite and glorious, and an encounter with Him won't just change the way you think about your faith. It'll change your entire life.

Views from the Pew, Pulpit and Women Religious Koncel, 2010-07-27 In his very personal account Ed Koncel, a well-read and thoughtful Catholic, shares his recollections of the church past, his frustrations with the church present, and his hopes for Catholicism's more vibrant future. Robert McClory, author of As It Was in the Beginning, Ed Koncel writes from the perspective of a faithful son of the Church, faithful over the course of his long life. He writes with both passion and compassion in regard to the people and the proceedings of the Second Vatican Council and the developments since the Council. Obviously well-read and actively involved in various groups working to make real the words and spirit of the documents of the Vatican II, he speaks with the authority of knowledge and personal experience and integrity. I believe he also speaks as one whose love of the Church motivates him to keep working for its coming to accept the full participation of all in the liturgical and governmental life of its people. Mr Koncel strikes me as a man of hope, an extraordinary virtue in our time. Denise Wilkinson, SP General Superior of the Sisters of Providence. Standing on the Edge of Your Tomorrow: Take Charge and Win! Robert Lee, 2010-05-01 The Buzzing Bee. Once we left the patio door open, a bee flew in. It hit the window repeatedly, trying to get out. We could hear it buzzing from the top to the bottom of the window. It saw the beauty outside and worked very hard, trying to get out, but we knew that its effort was futile. If it were a fly, we would have used the swatter and ended its misery. However, since it is a beneficial insect, we opened the door and chased it out. All of a sudden, four important lessons came to mind: 1. Hard work alone may not be able to solve our problem. 2. Often the solutions come from doing it another way, thinking outside the box. 3. Sometimes the Almighty sees us in our predicament and shows us a way out. 4. I believe that it is our mission in life also to show some struggling people the lessons we learned and the opportunities we saw and show them a way out. Two roads diverge in the woods, and I took the one less traveled, and that has made all the difference. Robert Frost, 1920. Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough Give the world the best you ve got anyway Mother Teresa 19101997 Any fool can count the seeds in an apple Only God can count the apples from one seed Dr Robert H Schuller
