

End of School Letter to Students

I'm glad I was your teacher,
I've come to love you so.
I can't believe the end is here,
I hate to see you go.
Remember all the fun we had
in all the things we did.
But most of all, remember...
You're a VERY special kid!

about children teachers and SEL s interplay with cultural and educational trends Claiming that SEL participates in cultural demands for hegemonic positivity Stearns illustrates the dangers and undesirable demands of this impossible curricular regime In particular Stearns highlights how closeness and understanding in the classroom are repeatedly circumvented and how normative and necessary parts of life like negative affect and interpersonal conflict are disregarded In Stearns s view the educational community should not consider children s social and emotional worlds as fair domain for mastery or learning Instead we should consider social and emotional education as something without a predetermined endpoint requiring the joint and ongoing participation of teachers and students
