Mran' mā samuiñ'" sutesana cā coñ', 2006 The Canon in Southeast Asian Literature David Smyth, 2013-10-08 The literary canon is one of the most lively areas of debate in contemporary literary studies. This set of essays is both timely and original in its focus on the canon in South East Asian literatures, covering Burma, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand, and Vietnam. They vary in focus from the broad panoramic survey of trends in a national literature to very specific discussions of the role of individuals in shaping a canon or the place of a particular text within a tradition and from contemporary to traditional literature They include discussions of the development of prose fiction censorship and artistic freedom the role of westerners in codifying indigenous literatures the writing of literary history the development of literary criticism and indigenous aesthetics The Asianization of Christianity Jonathan D. James, 2024-11-05 Christianity has long been associated with the West often creating a disjunction affecting the understanding of the essence of the gospel The Asianization of Christianity is a clarion call by Asian Christian leaders for the gospel to be indigenized by encouraging practitioners to seriously engage with both the Bible and the cultures of Asia The book demonstrates that both the theology and the presentation of the gospel need to be framed according to the mindset of the respective Asian cultures so that the message of the Bible can be understood and accepted Case studies on evangelism church and training models from several Asian nations are explored Core issues such as culture communication and contextualization underpin the practical cases to give depth and clarity for the effective communication of the gospel
