Religious Conflict and the Evolution of Language Policy in German and French Cameroon, 1885-1939 Kenneth J. Orosz, 2008 The book was awarded the Alf Andrew Heggoy Book Prize in French Colonial History 2009 This groundbreaking comparative study examines how church state conflicts shaped the evolution of German and French language policy in Cameroon from the dawn of the colonial era to the onset of WWII Despite lingering anti Catholic sentiments generated by Germany's Kulturkampf and early twentieth century French anti clerical legislation in Cameroon these conflicts created a curious inversion in which Protestant rather than Catholic missions were portrayed as obstructionist and unpatriotic due to their preference for using indigenous languages in educational and evangelical work Inside French Cameroon this situation suddenly and dramatically reversed itself during the mid 1920s as the Catholics rethought their commitment to spreading French in the colonies The result was repeated clashes between colonial authorities and mission personnel right up to the outbreak of war in 1939 Political Violence and Kurds in Turkey Mehmet Orhan, 2015-10-16 The Kurdish conflict is an acknowledged long standing issue in the Middle East and the emergence of radical Kurdish nationalist movements in the 20th century played a decisive role in the evolution of political violence Political Violence and Kurds in Turkey examines how this political violence impacts Kurds in contemporary Turkey and explores the circumstances that move human beings to violent acts It looks at the forms political violence takes and in which times and spaces it occurs as well as the roles played by micro and macro factors It takes a theoretical approach to violence as both producer and product of interrelations between many actors and contextualises this with studies of violence in Kurdish villages and towns The book evaluates the three levels at which political violence operates between the state and Kurdish movements among Kurdish groups and between Kurdish political organizations and Kurdish society and divides it into its different aspects and processes fragmentation segmentation signifying intra ethnic struggles between Kurdish actors mobilization the course leading the Kurdish movement to armed conflict participation the use of violence by individuals and repertoires the forms taken by political violence Offering an in depth analysis of the dynamics behind political violence and its use amongst Kurds in Turkey this book will be a key resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern Kurdish Studies and Conflict Studies and offers new understanding and approaches to the study of political violence
