A Companion to Hong Kong Cinema Esther M. K. Cheung, Gina Marchetti, Esther C. M. Yau, 2015-06-08 A Companion to Hong Kong Cinema provides the first comprehensive scholarly exploration of this unique global cinema By embracing the interdisciplinary approach of contemporary film and cultural studies this collection navigates theoretical debates while charting a new course for future research in Hong Kong film Examines Hong Kong cinema within an interdisciplinary context drawing connections between media gender and Asian studies Asian regional studies Chinese language and cultural studies global studies and critical theory Highlights the often contentious debates that shape current thinking about film as a medium and its possible future Investigates how changing research on gender the body and sexual orientation alter the ways in which we analyze sexual difference in Hong Kong cinema Charts how developments in theories of colonialism postcolonialism globalization neoliberalism Orientalism and nationalism transform our understanding of the economics and politics of the Hong Kong film industry Explores how the concepts of diaspora nostalgia exile and trauma offer opportunities to rethink accepted ways of understanding Hong Kong s popular cinematic genres and stars

Monstrous Reflection Petra Rehling, Elsa Bouet, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 By engaging and questioning existing definitions and ideas all of the essays in this volume represent the idea of a monstrous reflection in one way or another Monsters can serve as a means to explore the cultural anxieties they embody and the reasons for these anxieties Thus monsters act as mirrors highlighting the causes for the creation of categories A reflection can also be a comment or statement applicable in that the monstrous or the word monster becomes a label of otherness and exclusion This label is sometimes a construction a discursive and rhetorical trope which only serves to other those deemed different or undesirable suggesting that the monster might not always be monstrous This volume is about the ones gazing into the mirror and the things staring back at humanity along with the uncomfortable truths that are revealed in the process

Youth Culture in Chinese Language Film Xuelin Zhou, 2016-08-05 This book explores the vigorous film cultures of mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong from the perspective of youth culture The book relates this important topic to the wider social cultural and institutional context and discusses the relationship between the films and the changes that today are transforming each society Among the areas explored are the differences between the three film industries their creation of new types of screen hero and heroine and their conflicts with traditional Chinese attitudes such as respect for age The many films discussed provide fresh perspectives on the ways in which young people are coping with gender sexuality class coming of age the pressures of education and major social shifts such as rural to urban migration They show young adults in each society striving to construct new value systems for a complex rapidly changing environment

A Companion to Wong Kar-wai Martha P. Nochimson, 2016-01-26 With 25 essays that embrace a wide spectrum of topics and perspectives including intertextuality transnationality gender representation repetition the use of music color and sound depiction of time and space in human affairs and Wong's highly original portrayal of violence A Companion to Wong Kar Wai is a singular examination of the prestigious filmmaker known around the world for the innovation beauty and passion he brings to filmmaking Brings together the most cutting edge in depth and interesting scholarship on arguably the greatest living Asian filmmaker from a multinational group of established and rising film scholars and critics Covers a huge breadth of topics such as the tradition of the jianghu in Wong's films queering Wong's films not in terms of gender but through the artist's liminality the phenomenological Wong Wong's intertextuality America through Wong's eyes the optics of intensities thresholds and transfers of energy in Wong's cinema and the diasporic presence of some ladies from Shanghai in Wong's Hong Kong Examines the political historical and sociological influence of Wong and his work and discusses his work from a variety of perspectives including modern post modern postcolonial and queer theory Includes two appendices which examine Wong's work in Hong Kong television and commercials

Film History and Screen Culture in and beyond Greater China Lin Feng, 2025-02-28 Bringing together work from established and emerging scholars and practitioners from around the world this collection expands existing scholarship on cinemas of the Sinosphere by revealing forgotten and emerging aspects of film history Organised chronologically individual chapters cover geographic regions of mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan to engage with key issues of film history and screen politics that are overlooked by the traditional canon of Chinese cinema Tackling key debates on post colonialism cold war and their sociopolitical impacts on screen culture in these regions this collection challenges the binary paradigms that are perpetuated in the historical scholarship of Chinese cinema such as left wing and right wing cinema commercial entertainment and political propaganda films and mass consumption of genre films versus the critical acclaim of New Wave auteurism Together the essays reveal the cultural mobility across different geographic and sociopolitical borders their intertwined experience of the past and historical events impact on contemporary filmmaking and screen cultures This collection will be of interest to students and researchers of Film Media and Cultural Studies as well as Asian Studies and Chinese Studies

Willis, 2014-05-21 Many stars from China Japan and Korea are the most popular and instantly recognizable in the world East Asian Film Stars brings together some of the world's leading cinema scholars to offer their insights into the work of regional and transnational screen legends contemporary superstars and mysterious cult personas

Hong Kong Pop Culture in the 1980s Yiu-Wai Chu, 2025-10-01 This book deals with the 1980s the golden decade of Hong Kong pop culture in which a cosmopolitan lifestyle of pop and chic emerged in the city Bookended by two major historical incidents the 1980s will probably enter the annals of Hong Kong history as the decade that defined its future after reversion to Mainland China Having witnessed and experienced the rise of Hong Kong pop culture to unprecedented heights in this decade the author enhances its context through a story about his own personal belongings Examining popular genres including television film music fashion disco and city magazine this book teases out the distinctive aspects of Hong Kong pop culture that defined his Hong Kong As Hong Kong has been undergoing drastic changes in recent years it is necessary to point toward new imaginaries by re examining its development Toward this end this book will shed light on an important research area of Hong Kong Studies as an academic discipline     Found in Transition Yiu-Wai Chu,2018-10-16 Presents an updated account of Hong Kong and its culture two decades after its reversion to China In Found in Transition Yiu Wai Chu examines the fate of Hong Kong s unique cultural identity in the contexts of both global capitalism and the increasing influence of China Drawing on recent developments especially with respect to language movies and popular songs as modes of resistance to Mainlandization and different forms of censorship Chu explores the challenges facing Hong Kong twenty years after its reversion to China as a Special Administrative Region Highlighting locality and hybridity along postcolonial lines of interpretation he also attempts to imagine the future of Hong Kong by utilizing Hong Kong studies as a method Chu argues that the study of Hong Kong the place where the impact of the rise of China is most intensely felt can shed light on emergent crises in different areas of the world As such this book represents a consequential follow up to the author s Lost in Transition and a valuable contribution to international area and cultural studies This is a wide ranging and worthy sequel to Chu s Lost in Transition By juxtaposing a series of critical issues urban development self writing language education and cultural production among others that have confounded those who care deeply about this former British colony Chu offers his readers an intelligent and sensitive guide to connect and make sense of the various debates and he places the conundrums Hong Kong faces in the contexts of both the limits of neoliberal capitalism and the Age of China Leo K Shin author of The Making of the Chinese State Ethnicity and Expansion on the Ming Borderlands     American and Chinese-Language Cinemas Lisa Funnell,Man-Fung Yip,2014-09-19 Critics frequently describe the influence of America through Hollywood and other cultural industries as a form of cultural imperialism This unidirectional model of interaction does not address however the counter flows of Chinese language films into the American film market or the influence of Chinese filmmakers film stars and aesthetics in Hollywood The aim of this collection is to re consider the complex dynamics of transnational cultural flows between American and Chinese language film industries The goal is to bring a more historical perspective to the subject focusing as much on the Hollywood influence on early Shanghai or postwar Hong Kong films as on the intensifying flows between American and Chinese language cinemas in recent decades Contributors emphasize the processes of appropriation and reception involved in transnational cultural practices examining film production distribution and reception     Tony Leung Chiu-Wai Mark Gallagher,2019-07-25 Tony

Leung Chiu Wai investigates the rich prolific career of an acclaimed leading man of Hong Kong and Chinese film and television the star of more than 70 films and dozens of television series and the only Hong Kong actor to earn the Cannes Film Festival's best actor award This book addresses the dynamics of media stardom in Hong Kong mainland China and the East Asian region including the importance of television series for training and promotion the phenomenon of regional transmedia stardom across popular entertainment genres and cultural and political considerations as performers move among different East Asian production environments Attentive to Leung's position in both East Asian and global screen cultures the book addresses relations among acting global stardom and internationally circulating film genres and acclaimed directors Overall this unique study of Leung who the New York Times calls one of the world's last true matinee idols illuminates challenges and opportunities for Chinese screen actors in local regional and global cultural and industrial contexts

Affective Geographies and Narratives of Chinese Diaspora Melody Yunzi Li, Robert T. Tally Jr., 2022-09-21 In various ways Chinese diasporic communities seek to connect and re-connect with their homelands in literature film and visual culture The essays in Affective Geographies and Narratives of Chinese Diaspora examine how diasporic bodies and emotions interact with space and place as well as how theories of affect change our thinking of diaspora Questions of borders and border crossing not to mention the public and private spheres in diaspora literature and film raise further questions about mapping and spatial representation and the affective and geographical significance of the push and pull movement in diasporic communities The unique experience is represented differently by different authors across texts and media In an age of globalization in the Chinese Century the spatial representation and cultural experiences of mobility displacement settlement and hybridity become all the more urgent The essays in this volume respond to this urgency and they help to frame the study of Chinese diaspora and culture today

Dialectics of Space and Place across Virtual and Corporeal Topographies June Jordaan, Carl Haddrell, Christine Alegria, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Dialectics of Space and Place across Virtual and Corporeal Topographies explores the inter and multi-disciplinary subjects of space and place in two parts Part I Virtual topographies of Space and Place is concerned with themes related to immaterial places and Part II Corporeal Topographies of Space and Place explores narratives of real and imagined experiences of places This volume underpinned by an array of philosophical positions provides a foundation for new and critical dialogues on space and place

Citing China Gina Marchetti, 2018-03-31 Citing China explores the role film plays in creating a common ground for the exchange of political and aesthetic ideas between China and the rest of the world It does so by examining the depiction of China in contemporary film looking at how global filmmakers cite China on screen Author Gina Marchetti's aim is not to point to how China continues to function as a metaphor or allusion that has little to do with the geopolitical actualities of contemporary China Rather she highlights China's position within global film culture examining how cinematic quotations link current films to past political movements and unresolved social issues in a continuing multidirectional conversation Marchetti covers a wide range of cinematic encounters across the China West divide She looks closely at specific movements in world film history and at key films that have influenced the way China is depicted in global cinema today from popular entertainment to international art cinema the DV revolution video activism and the emergence of festival films Marchetti first considers contemporary Chinese language cinema Edward Yang Hou Hsiao Hsien she then turns to Italian Neorealism and its importance to the Chinese Sixth Generation Jia Zhangke and the French New Wave s ripple effect on filmmakers associated with the Hong Kong New Wave and Taiwan New Cinema Ann Hui Evans Chan As the People s Republic of China has gained increased global economic clout filmmakers draw on Euro American formulae Bruce Lee Clara Law to attract new viewers and define cinematic pleasures for new audiences on the other side of the earth The book concludes with a consideration of the role film festivals women filmmakers and emerging audiences play in the new world of global cinema Citing China offers a framework for examining cinematic influence as a dynamic and multidirectional process It is carefully researched theoretically sophisticated and animated by detailed and historically nuanced studies of individual films making clear just how much a part of global film culture today s China is The book makes important contributions to debates in transnational film studies postmodern versus modernist aesthetics and politics and Asian as well as European art cinema

Wong Kar-wai Silver Wai-ming Lee, Micky Lee, 2017-08-07 Fans and critics alike perceive Wong Kar wai b 1958 as an enigma His dark glasses his nonlinear narrations and his high expectations for actors all contribute to an assumption that he only makes art for a few high brow critics However Wong s interviews show this Hong Kong auteur is candid about the art of filmmaking even surprising his interlocutors by suggesting his films are commercial and made for a popular audience Wong s achievements nevertheless feel like art house cinema His third film Chungking Express introduced him to a global audience captivated by the quick and quirky editing style His Cannes award winning films Happy Together and In the Mood for Love confirmed an audience beyond the greater Chinese market His latest film The Grandmaster depicts the life of a kung fu master by breaking away from the martial arts genre In each of these films Wong Kar wai s signature style experimental emotive character driven and timeless remains apparent throughout This volume includes interviews that appear in English for the first time including some that appeared in Hong Kong magazines now out of print The interviews cover every feature film from Wong s debut As Tears Go By to his 2013 The Grandmaster

Women Filmmakers and the Visual Politics of Transnational China in the #MeToo Era Gina Marchetti, 2025-10-01 Manoeuvring around mainland China s censors and pushing back against threats of lawsuits online harassment and physical violence MeToo activists shed a particularly harsh light on the treatment of women in the cinema and entertainment industries Focusing on films from the People s Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora this book considers how female directors shape Chinese visual politics through the depiction of the look the stare the leer the glare the glimpse the glance the queer and the oppositional gaze in fiction and documentary filmmaking In the years leading up to and following in the wake of MeToo these cosmopolitan women filmmakers offer innovative angles on body image reproduction romance family relations gender identity generational differences female sexuality sexual violence sex work labor migration career options minority experiences media access feminist activism and political rights within the rapidly changing Chinese cultural orbit The Chinese Cinema Book Song Hwee Lim, Julian Ward, 2020-04-30 This revised and updated new edition provides a comprehensive introduction to the history of cinema in mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan as well as to diasporic and transnational Chinese film making from the beginnings of cinema to the present day Chapters by leading international scholars are grouped in thematic sections addressing key historical periods film movements genres stars and auteurs and the industrial and technological contexts of cinema in Greater China East Asian Cinemas V. Lee, 2011-04-12 This book is an original volume of essays that sheds new and critical light on current and emerging filmmaking trends and practices in China Taiwan Hong Kong Japan and South Korea A timely and important contribution to existing scholarship in the field The Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar-wai Gary Bettinson, 2025-03-20 The widely acclaimed films of Wong Kar wai are characterized by their sumptuous yet complex visual and sonic style Bettinson argues that Wong s films from Days of Being Wild and Chungking Express to In the Mood for Love and The Grandmaster are permeated by an aesthetic of sensuousness and disturbance achieved through techniques such as narrative disruptions jarring cuts the blocking of facial access and other complex strategies The effect is to jolt the viewer out of complete aesthetic absorption This tenth anniversary edition of The Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar wai includes a substantial new afterword bringing the story of Wong s career up to date including reflections on the mainland Chinese drama Blossoms Shanghai Bettinson revisits and extends the arguments of the first edition surveys the recent key debates on Wong s filmmaking and introduces fresh lines of critical investigation Gary Bettinson s Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar wai is a major step forward in our understanding of this director Bettinson scrutinizes Wong s unique place in world film culture his unusual production methods and his debts to several cinematic traditions both Asian and European A close examination of Wong s style shows in unprecedented depth how these lyrical apparently loosely constructed films are underpinned by a strong formal and emotional coherence The result is an unequalled study of a filmmaker whose work from As Tears Go By to The Grandmaster has redefined contemporary cinema David Bordwell University of Wisconsin Madison Seldom has the sensuous been subjected to such a scientifically rigorous and yet moving account as Gary Bettinson s analysis of Wong Kar wai Chapter by chapter the logic of specific choices underpinning Wong s cinema produces a sense of revelation perfectly complementing the intense pleasures of watching the films In this second edition Bettinson focuses on the actor s work a stroke of genius for understanding an oeuvre where body language and gesture are so crucial Chris Berry King s College London In this essential study of acclaimed filmmaker Wong Kar wai Gary Bettinson exquisitely captures the director s cinematic sensorium and digs deep below a seductive visual surface to uncover a creative roughness that disturbs narrative and generic expectations Three cheers for this updated edition Gina
