Streetlife China Michael Robert Dutton,1998 Collection of articles by various Chinese writers about life in contemporary China Heijin Ko-Lin Chin,2016-07-08 This work examines the structure and illegal activities of organized crime groups in Taiwan and explores the infiltration of crime groups into the business and political arenas It looks at the intricate relationship among government officials elected deputies businessmen and underworld figures Made Men Sean Mooney, Begin Your Life of Crime The year is 1928 The bustling city of Port Rapture has grown into a fertile staging ground for organized crime syndicates Gangs and Mafia Families have taken their shares of the city all the while keeping the corrupt politicians of city hall firmly in their pocket Get Made Made Men are the most feared men in the city and justifiably so These mobsters answer to the Don and the Don alone who grants them the power to control entire aspects of the Family Everyone starts on the bottom can you gain the respect of your Family Recruit or Join Existing Families are always on the lookout for competent recruits Joining the ranks of an established Mafia is a good way to earn a living The job is secure and you serve under an influential Don However the lucrative prospects of running your own gang are attractive as well Get a few hoods under you and you can rule a portion of the city yourself The City Awaits East European Accessions List Library of Congress. Processing Department,1955-05 East European Accessions Index ,1960 East European Accessions List ,1955-07 Unwillingness Jin XiShiHeNian,2020-01-23 meeting her at an incredible age his life had undergone an earth shattering change ever since Menace to Society Roy Godson,2017-12-02 One of the more dangerous contemporary threats to the quality of life is the collaboration of the political establishment with the criminal underworld the political criminal nexus PCN This active partnership increasingly undermines the rule of law human rights and economic development in many parts of the world States in transition are especially at risk Despite the magnitude of the threat there is little understanding of the security threats by the PCNs and how and why political criminal relationships are formed and maintained Menace to Society is the first attempt to develop an analytical framework for making generalizations about this contemporary scourge Case studies of Colombia Hong Kong Taiwan Italy Mexico Nigeria Russia and Ukraine and the United States by leading scholars and practitioners included here answer such key questions as How do PCNs get established How is a PCN maintained and destroyed What do the participants want from each other in a PCN What can be learned from those who have successfully countered the PCN The findings indicate that political economic and cultural factors play a significant role in the formation and evolution of PCNs When the institutions of the state are weak as in Nigeria and Colombia it is difficult for the state to prevent political criminal collaboration A lack of checks and balances either from civil society or opposition political parties such as described in the cases of Mexico and Russia is a key factor Cultural patterns tend to facilitate this kind of collaboration Markets and economics too bear on the PCN issue The supply and demand for illegal goods and services not only drugs in many countries creates a market controlled by criminals who need political help to run their business Menace to Society will be critical reading for security planners foreign and military policymakers and political scientists
