with social security arrangements to be ironed out with banks mortgagors and debts Not to mention the practical things like ensuring the children have been fed arranging who will take them to school while you deal with the horrible details such as picking out his casket or helping your children with things only you can help with And then it hits her How will I even tell them that their father is dead They don't even know what dead means Just thinking of the unending list of things to be done can leave the widow feeling smothered and breathless Now is not the time for a novel now is the time for a survival book because right now that's what the widow is doing surviving
