Hopper And Wilson Fetch A Star:

Hopper and Wilson Fetch a Star Maria van Lieshout, 2014-04-03 Have you ever wanted your very own star Wouldn't it be wonderful to have your own star for a nightlight It is this thought that begins Hopper and Wilson's second adventure They fill their airplane with lemonade and soar into the night sky So many stars to choose from One is too pointy One is too heavy Another is too bright Taking a break on the moon the two friends look directly above and spot it the perfect star As Hopper lays down for a nap Wilson ventures off on his own to the dark side of the moon Yet now he is lost How can he find his way back to Hopper The perfect star of course Wilson spots it in the sky and follows it back to his friend In another deceptively simple story Maria van Lieshout shows how sometimes the best part of nature is that it's found only in nature and that everything has its proper place be it stars or even best friends who always belong together A to Zoo Rebecca L.
