Horn Yehudi Menuhin Music Guides:

Horn Barry Tuckwell, 1983 Traces the development of the modern horn offers advice on learning how to play it and discusses the horn's repertoire The Early Horn John Humphries, 2000-07-06 This introduction to the early horn provides a historical account of the instrument's development during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries as well as a practical guide to playing techniques and principles of interpretation The book aims to help performers to play in an historically appropriate style and to guide listeners towards a clearer understanding of the issues which affected the way the horn was played during the period It includes chapters on the historical background of the instrument its design and development and choice of instrument today A series of case studies which include the music of Bach Haydn Mozart Beethoven Schubert Schumann and Brahms will help performers to make a well grounded period interpretation of major works from the horn repertoire Complemented by an extensive bibliography this accessible guide will appeal to players of all levels Brass

Bands of the British Isles 1800-2018 - a historical directory Gavin Holman, Of the many brass bands that have flourished in Britain and Ireland over the last 200 years very few have documented records covering their history This directory is an attempt to collect together information about such bands and make it available to all Over 19 600 bands are recorded here with some 10 600 additional cross references for alternative or previous names This volume supersedes the earlier British Brass Bands a Historical Directory 2016 and includes some 1 400 bands from the island of Ireland A separate work is in preparation covering brass bands beyond the British Isles A separate appendix lists the brass bands in each county

The Brass Band Bibliography Gavin Holman, 2019-08-05 9th edition 2019 A comprehensive list of books articles theses and other material covering the brass band movement its history instruments and musicology together with other related topics originally issued in book form in January 2009 Collected Thoughts on Teaching and Learning, Creativity and

Horn Performance Douglas Hill, 2000 Douglas Hill is professor of music and horn at the University of Wisconsin at Madison as well as a past President of the International Horn Society and a respected teacher and clinician The 27 chapters of Collected Thoughts cover topics ranging from getting started to preparing for college and professional auditions and include other subjects such as composing and improvising There are seven chapters on repertoire that include reviews of music and texts that are the most comprehensive of any horn or other instrumental text to date The process of learning and teaching is extremely insightful for everyone from the serious student to the most experienced instructor This book is a must for anyone interested in the horn It is invaluable Roots of the Classical Peter Van der Merwe, 2004-12-09 Readers will find the same delight in the affinity of the incongruous the subtlety of the commonplace and the hidden simplicity of the complex Only the subject matter is different in this case some of the greatest as well as the most trivial of Western music Jacket

Handbook of Materials for Wind Musical Instruments Voichita Bucur, 2019-09-06 This book addresses key questions about the materials used for the wind instruments of classical symphony orchestra such as flutes clarinets saxophones oboes

bassoons and pipe organs The content of this book is structured into four parts Part 1 Description of materials for wind instruments deals with wood species and materials for reeds used for making clarinet oboe and bassoon and with metallic materials and alloys for horn trumpet trombone etc Auxiliary materials associated with the manufacturing of wind instruments are felt cork leather and parchment Part 2 Basic acoustics of wind instruments in which are presented succinctly some pertinent aspects related to the physics of the resonant air column An important aspect discussed is related to the effect of wall material on the vibration modes of the walls of wind instruments The methods for measuring the acoustical properties of wind instruments are presented Part 3 Manufacturing of wind instruments describes the technology used in manufacturing metallic tubes and pipes made of wood Part 4 The durability and degradation of materials addresses data about methods for cleaning wind instruments studies factors producing degradation of organ pipes describes methods of conservation and restoration of brass instruments and of historical pipe organs Finally the properties of marble are described being the only one nondegradable and sustainable material used for pipes for organs

Conducting for a New Era Edwin Roxburgh, 2014 A guide to the art of conducting in the twenty first century by the founder of the RCM's Twentieth Century Ensemble Conducting for a New Era fills in a lacuna by offering guidance and practical advice for conducting twentieth century and contemporary repertoire The book begins with a look at the development of the art of conducting during the first half of the twentieth century Distinctions are made between conductors who pursued populist careers and those who established the foundations for the new art form of the twenty first century The book goes on to discuss the technical resources required to negotiate the rhythmic complexity of so much music composed since 1950 Beginning with the rhythmic revolution created by Stravinsky in Le Sacre du Printemps in which conducting unequal units within single bars was introduced ten different categories of music are featured in an analysis of the technical and aesthetic characteristics involved The substance of interviews with distinguished soloists orchestral musicians conductors and composers is examined in assessing the changing role of the conductor in the twenty first century In a final section the technique and artistry of the progressive repertoire is discussed through detailed analysis of specific scores Conducting for a New Era will be of interest not only to advanced students of conducting in particular conducting of contemporary music but also to the music enthusiast who might wish to know how it is done The book includes a DVD with conducting examples EDWIN ROXBURGH is a composer conductor and oboist and visiting tutor and researcher at the BCU Birmingham Conservatoire Recordings of his music are on NMC Naxos Warehouse Oboe Classics and Metier labels and his music is published by United Music Publishing Ricordi and Maecenas As a conductor he has premiered a vast number of works originally with the Twentieth Century Ensemble of London which he founded and later with several of the principle orchestras of the UK
