Riley,2010-07-01 The role of school principals and their executive staff has changed rapidly and radically over the last decade They are now required to be not only leading educators but also effective business persons The reality is however that most school leaders have little if any formal training for these business roles and very limited personal experience in managing these matters The intention of the book is to assist school leaders in developing the understanding knowledge and skill of business processes that they need to perform this new role effectively Accounting and Financial System Reform in Eastern Europe and Asia Robert W. McGee,Galina G. Preobragenskaya,2006-03-14 Much has been written about the economic and political problems of countries that are in the process of changing from centrally planned systems to market systems Most studies have focused on the economic legal political and sociological problems these economies have had to face during the transition period However not much has been written about the dramatic changes that have to be made to the accounting and financial system of a transition economy This book was written to help fill that gap This book is the second in a series to examine accounting and financial system reform in transition economies The first book used Russia as a case study The present volume in the series examines some additional aspects of the reform in Russia and also looks at the accounting and financial system reform efforts that are being made in Ukraine Bosnia Herzegovina Armenia and five Central Asian republics Critical Concerns in Transfer Pricing and Practice Wagdy M. Abdallah,2004-07-30 For multinational corporations MNCs there is arguably no more important operational function that affects all areas of manufacturing marketing management and finance as international transfer pricing the practicing of supplying products or services across borders from one part of the organization to another Its complexity is compounded by the impact of e commerce speeding the flow of goods and services intangible assets such as intellectual property whose value is difficult to quantify and the activities of policymakers around the world to update their tax laws and regulations in efforts to close loopholes that have historically encouraged tax avoidance In Critical Concerns in Transfer Pricing Policy and Practice Wagdy Abdallah provides an in depth overview of these recent trends and developments and considers their implications for the management of MNCs In particular he discusses methods for pricing transferred goods and services in the e commerce era and analyzes the most recent regulation reforms in such countries as Germany Mexico Japan Canada the United Kingdom the United States and the Netherlands Anticipating increased scrutiny of MNC transfer pricing practices from governments and other external stakeholders Abdallah outlines a set of practical recommendations for creating a successful transfer pricing system that maximizes value for the company while remaining sensitive to local policies in all of the countries in which it operates
