scholars charts a whole new territory in genre film criticism Rather than assuming that genres are self evident categories the contributors offer innovative ways to think about types of films and patterns within films in a historical context Challenging familiar attitudes the essays offer new conceptual frameworks and a fresh look at how popular culture functions in American society The range of essays is exceptional from David J Russell s insights into the horror genre to Carol J Clover s provocative take on trial films to Leo Braudy s argument for the subject of nature as a genre Also included are essays on melodrama race film noir and the industrial context of genre production The contributors confront the poststructuralist critique of genre head on together they are certain to shape future debates concerning the viability and vitality of genre in studying American cinema Film Genre 2000 Wheeler Winston Dixon, 2000-02-24 Covering over 100 feature films in critical depth and detail this reader provides an excellent introduction to American genre filmmaking since 1990 These previously unpublished essays by prominent film scholars each address a different film genre from science fiction to romance to 90s noir as well as the ways in which genre filmmaking as a whole has been changed by the new technologies and market forces that are shaping the future of cinema One of the peculiar aspects of recent American genre filmmaking is its apparent facelessness its desire to subsume itself into the larger framework of genre cinema and not to identify each film as a unique exemplar What this book argues among other things is that the implicit message in contemporary genre films is rarely that which is signified by a film's external or even internal narrative structure What drives the thematic and structural concerns of recent genre cinema is the recovery of initial investment made all the more pressing by the fact that each film released theatrically now represents an investment of many millions of dollars For better or worse American genre cinema dominates the globe The Hollywood genre film has become one of America's most prolific and profitable social exports These contemporary genre films all seek to further the values of their nation of origin as they journey through the world on film videotape DVDs and television it is the pervasive influence and numerous subjects of these films that are analyzed here Contributors include Heather Addison Chuck Berg Ton Conley David M Desser Wheeler Winston Dixon Marc Miller Catherine Preston Stephen Prince David Sanjek Mark A Reid John Tibbets Jim Welsh and Ron Wilson

The naval war film Jonathan Rayner,2013-07-19 This book undertakes a unique coherent and comprehensive consideration of the depiction of naval warfare in the cinema The films under discussion encompass all areas of naval operations in war and highlight varying institutional and aesthetic responses to navies and the sea in popular culture The examination of these films centres on their similarities to and differences from the conventions of the war genre and seeks to determine whether the distinctive characteristics of naval film narratives justify their categorisation as a separate genre or sub genre in popular cinema The explicit factual bases and drama documentary style of many key naval films such as In Which We Serve They Were Expendable and Das Boot also requires the consideration of these films as texts for popular historical transmission Their frequent reinforcement of establishment views of the past which derives from their conservative ideological position towards national and naval culture makes these films key texts for the consideration of national cinemas as purveyors of contemporary history as popularly conceived by filmmakers and received by audiences popular desires and anxieties American Film Cycles presents a series of case studies of successful film cycles including the melodramatic gangster films of the 1920s the 1930s Dead End Kids cycle the 1950s juvenile delinquent teenpic cycle and the 1990s ghetto action cycle Klein situates these films in several historical trajectories the Progressive movement of the 1910s and 1920s the beginnings of America's involvement in World War II the birth of the teenager in the 1950s and the drug and gangbanger crises of the early 1990s She shows how filmmakers audiences film reviewers advertisements and cultural discourses interact with and have an impact on the film texts Her findings illustrate the utility of the film cycle in broadening our understanding of established film genres articulating and building upon beliefs about contemporary social problems shaping and disseminating deviant subcultures and exploiting and reflecting upon racial and political upheaval
