Indonesians and Their Arab World Mirjam Lücking, 2021-01-15 Indonesians and Their Arab World explores the ways contemporary Indonesians understand their relationship to the Arab world Despite being home to the largest Muslim population in the world Indonesia exists on the periphery of an Islamic world centered around the Arabian Peninsula Mirjam Lücking approaches the problem of interpreting the current conservative turn in Indonesian Islam by considering the ways personal relationships public discourse and matters of religious self understanding guide two groups of Indonesians who actually travel to the Arabian Peninsula labor migrants and Mecca pilgrims in becoming physically mobile and making their mobility meaningful This concept which L cking calls guided mobility reveals that changes in Indonesian Islamic traditions are grounded in domestic social constellations and calls claims of outward Arab influence in Indonesia into question With three levels of comparison urban and rural areas Madura and Central Java and migrants and pilgrims this ethnographic case study foregrounds how different regional and socioeconomic contexts determine Indonesians various engagements with the Arab world

Muslim Environmentalisms Anna M. Gade, 2019-08-20 How might understandings of environmentalism and the environmental humanities shift by incorporating Islamic perspectives In this book Anna M Gade explores the religious and cultural foundations of Islamic environmentalisms She blends textual and ethnographic study to offer a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of the legal ethical social and empirical principles underlying Muslim commitments to the earth Muslim Environmentalisms shows how diverse Muslim communities and schools of thought have addressed ecological questions for the sake of this world and the world to come Gade draws on a rich spectrum of materials scripture jurisprudence science art and social and political engagement as well as fieldwork in Indonesia and Southeast Asia The book brings together case studies in disaster management educational programs international development conservation projects religious ritual and performance and Islamic law to rethink key theories Gade shows that the Islamic tradition leads us to see the environment as an ethical idea moving beyond the established frameworks of both nature and crisis Muslim Environmentalisms models novel approaches to the study of religion and environment from a humanistic perspective reinterpreting issues at the intersection of numerous academic disciplines to propose a postcolonial and global understanding of environment in terms of consequential relations

The Meaning of Mecca M. E. McMillam,2011-12-05 The hajj the fifth pillar of Islam is a religious duty to be performed once in a lifetime by all Muslims who are able The Prophet Muhammad set out the rituals of hajj when he led what became known as the Farewell Hajj in 10 AH 632AD This set the seal on Muhammad s career as the founder of a religion and the leader of a political entity based on that religion The convergence of the Prophet with the politician infuses the hajj with political as well as religious significance For the caliphs who led the Islamic community after Muhammad s death leadership of the hajj became a position of enormous political relevance as it presented them with an unrivalled opportunity to proclaim their pious credentials and reinforce their political legitimacy Exhaustively researched The Meaning of Mecca is the first study to analyse the leadership of the hajj in the formative and medieval periods and to assess the political subtext of Islam s most high profile religious ritual

Comparative Religious Law Norman Doe,2018-11-15 Comparative Religious Law provides for the first time a study of the regulatory instruments of Jewish Christian and Muslim religious organisations in Britain in light of their historical religious laws Norman Doe questions assumptions about the pervasiveness character and scope of religious laws from the view that they are not or should not be recognised by civil law to the idea that there may be a fundamental incompatibility between religious and civil law It proposes that religious laws pervade society are recognised by civil law have both a religious and temporal character and regulate wide areas of believers lives Subjects include sources of law faith leaders governance worship and education rites of passage divorce and children and religion State relations A Charter of the principles of religious law common to all three Abrahamic faiths is proposed to stimulate greater mutual understanding between religion and society and between the three faiths themselves The Hajj Today David E. Long, 1979-06-30 The Qu ran admonishes Muslims that the pilgrimage to the temple is an obligation due to God from those who are able to journey there Today over one and a half million pilgrims annually fulfill this Fifth Pillar of Islam the Hajj Saudi Arabia conquered the Hijaz in part to protect Hajjis from abuses in the management of the Hajj How does that country now administer the religious event that brings so many people often poor and illiterate into one small area to perform a variety of complex rituals How does the government protect its visitors health and safety and ensure their proper guidance through the necessary rites How does it move so many pilgrims in and out of what is essentially an out of the way desert David Long has set this thoughtful examination of the twentieth century Hajj within its historical framework He first provides a clear concise description of the rituals either necessary or traditional to the proper performance of the Hajj he then relates how the inhabitants of Mecca used to manage the pilgrimage and finally relates how the new Saudi rulers gradually brought the Hajj service industry under government regulation Today there is probably no agency of the Saudi government which is not at least tangentially concerned with the Hajj Only in the area of health did there exist a history of public management By the early nineteenth century it had become all too clear that the Hajj served to carry diseases endemic to the Orient to Europe and by the end of that century health and quarantine procedures were under international control Today the Saudi government has sole control of these matters Oil revenue vastly exceeds Hajj revenues once a major source of Saudi income but the Hajj continues to play an enormous role in the religious social and political life of the country And even in economics it structures the Saudi businessman s year and provides part or full time employment to more Saudi citizens than does the oil industry This volume contains an extensive bibliography appendixes containing statistical material on recent Hajjs maps and a glossary A Life That Mattes: A Spiritual Experience ,2008
