Merging the Instructional Design Process with Learner-Centered Theory Charles M. Reigeluth, Yunjo An, 2020-10-19 Merging the Instructional Design Process with Learner Centered Theory brings together the innovations of two previously divided processes learning design strategies theories and instructional systems development into a new introductory textbook Using a holistic rather than fragmented approach that includes top level mid level and lower level design this book provides guidance for major topics such as non instructional interventions just in time analysis rapid prototype approaches and learner centered project based anytime anywhere instruction Informed by the authors considerable experience and leadership throughout dramatic shifts in today's learning landscape this book offers the next generation of instructional designers a fresh perspective that synthesizes and pushes beyond the basics of design and development

Formative Design in Learning Brad Hokanson, Matthew Schmidt, Marisa E. Exter, Andrew A. Tawfik, Yvonne Earnshaw, 2023-11-27 Learning design is an ill structured process that must account for multiple stakeholders contextual constraints and other instructional needs Whereas many theories outline learning theories less is known about the formative design process and how it impacts the design and development of learning technologies This is critical because a formative view considers the issues that educators encounter and how to overcome them during the learning design process This edited volume provides a multi faceted look at theories studies and design cases that employ formative design in learning across multiple domains Topics include processes oriented around design thinking design based research and others Additional chapters provide contextual considerations such as describing how formative design was used to design learning solutions for STEM learning and food banks as well as overcoming challenges in emergency remote teaching In doing so the book provides an interdisciplinary view that explores how scholars and practitioners engage in formative practices that support a wide array of learners and contexts
