Handbook of Emotion Elicitation and Assessment James A. Coan, John J.B. Allen, 2007-04-19 Emotion research has become a mature branch of psychology with its own standardized measures induction procedures data analysis challenges and sub disciplines During the last decade a number of books addressing major questions in the study of emotion have been published in response to a rapidly increasing demand that has been fueled by an increasing number of psychologists whose research either focus on or involve the study of emotion Very few of these books however have presented an explicit discussion of the tools for conducting research despite the facts that the study of emotion frequently requires highly specialized procedures instruments and coding strategies and that the field has reached a place where a large number of excellent elicitation procedures and assessment instruments have been developed and validated Emotion Elicitation and Assessment corrects this oversight in the literature by organizing and detailing all the major approaches and instruments for the study of emotion It is the most complete reference for methods and resources in the field and will serve as a pragmatic resource for emotion researchers by providing easy access to a host of scales stimuli coding systems assessment tools and innovative methodologies This handbook will help to advance research in emotion by encouraging researchers to take greater advantage of standard and well researched approaches which will increase both the productivity in the field and the speed and accuracy with which research can be communicated Media Effects Jennings Bryant, Mary Beth Oliver, 2009-01-13 With contributions from some of the finest scholars in the discipline Media Effects serves not only as a comprehensive reference volume for media effects study but also as an exceptional textbook for advanced courses in media effects Covering the breadth of the media effects arena this third edition provides updated material as well as new chapters focusing on effects of mobile media and other technologies As this area of study continues to evolve Media Effects will serve as a benchmark of theory and research for current and future generations of scholars The Sourcebook of Nonverbal

Measures Valerie Lynn Manusov, 2014-04-04 The Sourcebook of Nonverbal Measures provides a comprehensive discussion of research choices for investigating nonverbal phenomena The volume presents many of the primary means by which researchers assess nonverbal cues Editor Valerie Manusov has collected both well established and new measures used in researching nonverbal behaviors illustrating the broad spectrum of measures appropriate for use in research and providing a critical resource for future studies With chapters written by the creators of the research measures this volume represents work across disciplines and provides first hand experience and thoughtful guidance on the use of nonverbal measures It also offers research strategies researchers can use to answer their research questions discussions of larger research paradigms into which a measure may be placed and analysis tools to help researchers think through the research choices available to them With its thorough and pragmatic approach this Sourcebook will be an invaluable resource for studying nonverbal behavior Researchers in interpersonal communication psychology personal relationships and related areas will find it to be an essential research tool Neuropsychological Assessment Muriel Deutsch Lezak, 2004 This revised text provides coverage of research and clinical practice in neuropsychology The 4th edition contains new material on tests assessment techniques neurobehavioral disorders and treatment effects Social Psychology of Culture Chi-Yue Chiu, Ying-yi Hong, 2013-12-16 As the speed of globalization accelerates world cultures are more closely connected to each other than ever before But what exactly is culture It seems to be involved in all psychological processes but can its psychological consequences be studied scientifically How can cultural differences be described without reifying culture and reinforcing cultural stereotypes Culture and mind constitute each other but how Why do humans need culture How did the evolution of the mind enable the development of human culture How does participation in culture transform the mind and how does the mind process and apply culture How may culture become a resource for pursuing valued goals and how does culture become part of the self How do culture travelers navigate cultures and negotiate multiple cultural identities The authors of this volume offer a refreshing theoretical perspective and organize seemingly disparate research evidence into a coherent body of psychological knowledge With its accessible language and lively narrative this volume engages its readers in an intellectual journey through the fascinating research literatures in psychology anthropology and the cognate disciplines This book will make an ideal textbook for senior undergraduate and graduate courses on psychology and culture cultural studies cognitive anthropology and intercultural communication Immersed in Media Matthew Lombard, Frank Biocca, Jonathan
