

Why should you become a

Licensed Practical Nurse

Work Life Balance

Working as an LPN allows for a flexible schedule. There are a variety of shift options an LPN can take that can fit different lifestyles so you can spend quality time with those you love.

Honorable Field

Nursing is a tough job but that doesn't mean it comes with no reward. Becoming an LPN is something you can brag about in social situations. People look to you as a hero and you can feel the pride of helping others every day.

Positive Job Outlook

As the Boomer generation grows older there is an increased need for care. This is creating a large demand for those working in the healthcare field such as LPNs. The US Bureau of Labor Statistics by 2024 jobs in the industry are expected to grow by 16 percent.

Earning Potential

On average those who only have a high school diploma make 30,500 dollars. While LPNs make an average of 34,176 dollars! Add in raises, pay increases, and other benefits and the earning potential is higher.

Workplace Options

Hospitals are not the only places an LPN can work. A variety of workplaces come with the position giving you the power to choose where you feel would be the best fit. These locations can include pharmacies, clinics, hospitals, long term care facilities, prisons, and schools.

12 Month Program

You can earn all of these benefits while being enrolled in a program for one year. With MedQuest College's new Practical Nursing Program your dreams can become a reality sooner than you realize.
