Lynette Tannis:

Educating Incarcerated Youth Lynette Tannis, 2014-11-21 This book explores the perceptions and role of juvenile justice educators Through researching the support structures of educational facilities and analysing the positive features of these learning environments Tannis evaluates how best to educate incarcerated young people and prepare them for their transition back into society

Religion in the Age of Obama Juan M. Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B. Pinn, 2018-08-23 This is the first book to focus on the significance of religion during President Obama's years in the White House Addressing issues ranging from identity politics immigration income inequality Islamophobia and international affairs Religion in the Age of Obama explores the religious and moral underpinnings of the Obama presidency and subsequent debates regarding his tenure in the White House It provides an analysis of Obama's beliefs and their relationship to his vision of public life as well as the way in which the general ethos of religion and non religion has shifted over the past decade in the United States under his presidency Topics include how Obama has employed religious rhetoric in response to both international and domestic events his attempt to inhabit a kind of Blackness that comforts and reassures rather than challenges White America the limits of Christian hospitality within U S immigration policy and the racialization of Islam in the U S national imagination Religion in the Age of Obama shows that the years of the Obama presidency served as a watershed moment of significant reorganization of the role of religion in national public life It is a timely contribution to debates on religion race and public life in the United States

Doing Fieldwork at Home Loukia K. Sarroub, Claire Nicholas, 2021-03-24 This book engages readers via the international contributions from home field sites around the world and international authors Importantly the various chapters address a wide spectrum of educational contexts ranging from higher education to K 12 public and private schools to prison schools The realistic accounts portrayed in each of the chapters address how local collaborations are instantiated through the research process from access and data collection to the write up phases The major themes that emerge across the chapters highlight 1 positionality and negotiation of multiple roles i.e. researcher educator colleague friend community member 2 reconciling multiple hybrid and intersectional identities with varying insider outsider statuses vis vis research participants 3 resulting power dynamics in connection to relational identities sometimes conflicting consolidating equalizing and or elevating 4 innovative methodological responses to these dilemmas and 5 integrated research designs and research ethics offering possibilities for participation and insights on the social impact of research findings The book's chapters thus individually and collectively treat and resolve local ways of doing home field work and highlight the creation and sharing of knowledge among researchers and research participants

Juvenile Delinquency: Arnold Binder, Gilbert Geis, Dickson D Bruce Jr., 2001-01-01
Juvenile Delinquency Global Citizenship, Common Wealth and Uncommon Citenships, 2018-08-16 This set of essays critically analyze global citizenship by bringing together leading ideas about citizenship and the commons in this time that both needs and resists a global perspective on issues and relations Education plays a significant role in how we come to address these issues and this volume will contribute to ensuring that equity global citizenship and the common wealth provide platforms from which we might engage in transformational collective work The authors address the global significance of debates and struggles about belonging and abjection solidarity and rejection identification and othering as well as love and hate Global citizenship as a concept and a practice is now being met with a dangerous call for insularism and a protracted ethno nationalism based on global economic imperialism movements for white supremacy and miscegenation various forms of religious extremism and identity politics but which antithetically also comes from the anti globalization movement focused on building strong sustainable communities We see a taming of citizens that contributes to the taming of what we understand as the public sphere and the commons the places of cultural natural and intellectual resources that are shared and not privately owned The work of global citizenship education is distinguishable from the processes of a deadly globalization or destruction of the world that responds to the interlocking issues that make life on the planet precarious for human and non humans everywhere albeit an unequal precarity This book is an invitation into a conversation that explores and makes visible some of the hidden chasms of oppression and inequity in the world It is meant to provoke both argument and activism as we work to secure common spaces that are broadly life sustaining Contributors are Ali A Abdi Sung Kyung Ahn Chouaib El Bouhali Xochilt Hern ndez Carrie Karsgaard Marlene McKay Michael O Sullivan Christina Palech Karen Pashby Karen J Pheasant Neganigwane Thashika Pillay Ashley Rerrie Grace J Rwiza Toni Samek Lynette Shultz Harry
