Atomic Light (shadow Optics) Akira Mizuta Lippit, 2005 With a taut poetic style Lippit produces speculative readings of secret and shadow archives and visual structures or phenomenologies of the inside charting the materiality of what both can and cannot be seen in the radioactive light of the twentieth century The Post-Screen Through Virtual Reality, Holograms and Light Projections Jenna Ng,2025-10-01 Screens are ubiquitous today Yet contemporary screen media eliminate the presence of the screen and diminish the visibility of its boundaries As the image becomes indistinguishable from the viewer's surroundings this unsettling prompts re-examination of how screen boundaries demarcate Through readings of three media forms Virtual Reality holograms and light projections this book develops new theories of the surfaces on and spaces in which images are displayed Interrogating contemporary contestations of reality against illusion it argues that the disappearance of difference reflects shifted conditions of actuality and virtuality in understanding the human condition These shifts further connect to the current state of politics by way of their distorted truth values corrupted terms of information and internalizations of difference The Post Screen Through Virtual Reality Holograms and Light Projections thus thinks anew the image's borders and delineations evoking the screen boundary as an instrumentation of today's intense virtualizations which do not tell the truth In the process a new imagination for images emerges for a gluttony of the virtual for new conceptualizations of object and representation materiality and energies media and histories real and unreal for new understandings of appearances dis-appearances replacement and replacement the post screen The Murdochian Mind Silvia Caprioglio Panizza,Mark Hopwood,2022-06-07 Iris Murdoch was a philosopher and novelist of extraordinary breadth and originality whose work defies simple categorisation Her philosophical writing engages with an astonishingly wide range of figures from Plato and Kant to Sartre and Heidegger and her work increasingly inspires debate in ethics aesthetics religion and literature The Murdochian Mind is an outstanding reference source to the full span of Murdoch's philosophical work comprising 37 specially commissioned chapters written by an international team of leading scholars Divided into five clear parts the volume covers the following areas A guide to Murdoch's key philosophical texts including The Sovereignty of Good and Metaphysics as a Guide to Morals Core themes and concepts in Murdoch's philosophy such as love moral vision and attention Murdoch's engagement with the history of philosophy including Plato Kant Hegel Simone Weil and Wittgenstein Interdisciplinary connections with art literature and religion including Judaism Buddhism and Christianity Murdoch and contemporary philosophical debates including feminism virtue ethics and metaethics The application of Murdoch's thought to applied ethics including animal ethics psychiatric ethics and the environment Although recent years have seen a blossoming of interest in Murdoch's philosophy The Murdochian Mind is the first volume to do justice to the incredibly rich and wide-ranging nature of her work As such it will be of great interest to students of philosophy especially ethics and aesthetics as well as those in related disciplines such as literature religion and gender studies

Sensibility and Creation Roger Cardinal,2025-05-01 Sensibility and Creation 1977 comprises a dozen critical studies by different contributors on a selection of major French poets of the twentieth century These range from poets of long established reputation such as Paul Valéry, Pierre Reverdy, Saint John Perse and Paul Eluard to contemporary poets such as Yves Bonnefoy and Jacques Dupin. The guiding theme is that of the characteristic sensibility which informs the creative work of each poet, the way he has of selecting and patterning the elements which make up the world he inhabits and in which in a sense he is also creating. In some instances the poetry is examined for its selective textures and shapes and in others the critical focus is more closely directed to the linguistic and stylistic strategies adopted by the writer.

Reinvention Of Science, The: Slaying The Dragons Of Dogma And Ignorance Bernard J T Jones, Vicent J Martinez, Virginia

Trimble, 2023-11-02 Throughout the history of science, different thinkers, philosophers and scientists postulated the existence of entities that in spite of their not being visible or detectable in their time or perhaps even were nevertheless useful to explain the real world. We started this book by looking at a handful of these entities. These included phlogiston to account for fire, the luminiferous ether for propagation of radiation, the homunculus to provide for heredity and crystalline spheres to carry the wandering planets around the earth. Many of these erroneous beliefs had held up progress just as dragons drawn on the edges of a map discouraged exploration. This pattern of science evolution continued through the centuries up to the present day. The book evolved into a more extensive history of how science evolved through controversy, suppression and the desire to maintain the status quo. Our story passes from the Babylonians and Greeks through the middle ages, the renaissance and the scientific revolution to almost current events. We discuss the evolution of our world, the controversy about the extinction of dinosaurs and open questions in contemporary science such as dark matter, black holes and the origin of the Universe including how we understand the subatomic world of elementary particles. Most of the chapters deal with astronomy, cosmology and physics but there are brief ventures into geosciences, continental drift, biosciences, the homunculus, atmospheric physics, Heaviside layer, paleontology, the extinction of dinosaurs and computer science, artificial intelligence. The authors present a sequence of how mistakes and fallacies have been purged from our quest to understand nature. The way these changes have come about are skillfully set in their relevant historical contexts.

Semiotics Unbounded Susan Petrilli, Augusto Ponzio, 2005-12-15 The more human knowledge increases, the more signs grow and with this expansion the more the boundaries of the science that studies signs also grows. In Semiotics Unbounded, Susan Petrilli and Augusto Ponzio explain the explosion of the sign network in the era of global communication and discuss the important theoretical responses offered by semiotics. Providing a much needed introductory guide to the subject, Petrilli and Ponzio explore the ever growing frontiers of semiotics through the thought of prominent sign scholars such as Charles Peirce, Victoria Welby, Mikhail Bakhtin, Charles Morris and Thomas Sebeok. In an era of global communication, a global approach is necessary and what may seem to be the whole is only a part, a view being at once globalizing and open. Each and every sign is never self-sufficient and closed but exists always in a relation of otherness. This is true of the signs forming animals and human beings, individuals and communities and involves the implication of all living beings in the life of all others Semiotics Unbounded offers a new and original survey of the science of signs evaluating it in relation to the problems of our time not only of a scientific order but also the problems concerning everyday social life A Dissertation upon the Philosophy of Light, Heat and Fire. In seven parts James HUTTON (F.R.S.E.),1794 A New and Compendious Theoretical and Practical Grammar of the French Language Isidore Brasseur,1836 The Lure and the Truth of Painting Yves Bonnefoy,1995-11 Always fascinated in his poetry by the nature of color and light and the power of the image Bonnefoy continues to pursue these themes in his discussion of the lure and truth of representation He sees the painter as a poet whose language is visual and he seeks to find out what visual artists can teach those who work with words Relativity in Curved Spacetime Eric Baird,2007 Relativity theory has become one of the icons of Twentieth Century science It s reckoned to be a difficult subject taught as a layered series of increasingly difficult mathematics and increasingly abstract concepts We re told that relativity theory is supposed to be this complicated and counter intuitive But how much of this historical complexity is really necessary Can we bypass the interpretations and paradoxes and pseudoparadoxes of Einstein s special theory and jump directly to a deeper and more intuitive description of reality What if curvature is a fundamental part of physics and a final theory of relativity shouldn t reduce to Einstein s flat 1905 theory on principle Relativity takes us on a whistlestop tour of Twentieth Century physics from black holes quantum mechanics wormholes and the Big Bang to the workings of the human mind and asks what would physics look like without special relativity 394 printed pages 234156 mm 200 figures and illustrations includes bibliography and index www.relativitybook.com Art Criticism by French Poets Since World War II Robert W. Post-war Cinema and Modernity John Orr,2019-08-06 No detailed description available for Post war Cinema and Modernity The Look of Van Dyck John Peacock,2017-07-05 Based on a close study of Van Dyck s Self portrait with a Sunflower this book examines the picture s context in the symbolic discourses of the period and in the artist s oeuvre The portrait is interpreted as a programmatic statement made in the ambience of the Caroline court after Van Dyck s appointment as Principal Painter of his view of the art of painting This statement formulated in appropriately visual terms characterizes painting as a way of looking and seeing a mode of vision In making such a claim the artist steps aside from the familiar debate about whether painting was a manual or an intellectual discipline and moves beyond any idea of it as simply a means of representing the external world the painter s definitive faculty of vision can reach further than those realities which present themselves to the eye John Peacock analyses the motif of looking the ways in which figures regard or disregard each other throughout Van Dyck s work and the images of the sunflower and the gold chain in this particular portrait to reveal what is essentially an idealist conception of pictorial art He contradicts previous opinions that the artist was pedestrian in his thinking by showing him to be familiar with a range of ideas current in contemporary Europe about painting and the role of the painter Scientific American ,1891
