Gray Areas A Short Story Collection:

Gray Areas Carmen Burcea-Haber, 2013 Gray Areas is a collection of entertaining and twisted tales written by Romanian born Carmen Burcea Haber. Following in the tradition of the droll and biting humor of Roald Dahl, the essential story telling of Graham Greene and the psychological explorations of Patricia Highsmith, Ms Burcea Haber offers with these twenty one short stories a playful excursion into revenge obsession and other human frailties delivering surprises and horrors where we least expect them.

The Short Story in German in the Twenty-first Century Lyn Marven, Andrew Plowman, Kate Roy, 2020 Since the 1990s the short story has re-emerged in the German speaking world as a vibrant literary genre. This volume aims to establish a framework for further research into this rich field. The introduction and six thematic chapters discuss theories of the short story form, literary aesthetic questions and key trends in the twenty first century. Seven chapters on significant literary figures from Germany, Austria and Switzerland then offer a range of theoretical and thematic approaches to individual stories and collections. Finally two original translations showcase contemporary short story writing in German.

Will Self and Contemporary British Society G. Matthews, 2016-04-08 This stimulating and comprehensive study of Will Self's work spans his entire career and offers insightful readings of all his fictional and non-fictional work up to and including his Booker prize nominated novel Umbrella.

Towelhead Alicia Erian, 2006-04-10 The story of a girl failed by her parents and by a conflicted America, Towelhead is an ultimately redemptive and moving work that no one can afford to ignore. The year is 1991. When Jasira's mother finds out what has been going on between her boyfriend and her thirteen year old daughter, she has to make a choice and chooses to send Jasira off to Houston, Texas to live with her father. A remote disciplinarian prone to explosive rages, Jasira's father is unable to show his daughter the love she craves and far less able to handle her feelings about her changing body. Bewildered by extremes of parental scrutiny and neglect, Jasira begins to look elsewhere for affection but Saddam Hussein has invaded Kuwait and high school has become a lonely place for a towelhead. When her father meets and forbids her to see her boyfriend, it becomes lonelier still. But there is always Mr Vuoso, a neighboring army reservist whose son Jasira babysits. Mr Vuoso, as Jasira discovers, has an extensive collection of Playboy magazines. And he doesn't seem to think there's anything wrong with Jasira's body at all. Painfully funny, tender and sexually charged, Towelhead is that rare thing: a gloriously readable novel unafraid to take risks.

Historical Dictionary of Gothic Literature William Hughes, 2013 Literary fashions come and go but some hang around longer than others like Gothic literature which has existed ever since The Castle of Otranto in 1764. During this long while it has spread from England to the rest of Great Britain and across to the continent and off to America and Australia filling in the gaps more recently. Most of it is in English but hardly all and it has adopted all styles from romanticism to modernism to postmodernism and even adjusted to feminist and queer literature and science fiction. We have all read some Gothic tales or if not read then seen them in the cinema since they adapt well to film treatment and it would be hard to find anyone who has not heard of ghosts and vampires.

let alone Count Dracula and Frankenstein On the other hand some of us are inveterate Gothic fans reading one book or story after the other The Historical Dictionary of Gothic Literature follows this long and winding path first in an extensive chronology and then a useful introduction which explains the nature of Gothic and shows how it has evolved Obviously the dictionary section has entries on major writers and some of the best known works but also on geographical variants like Irish Scottish or Russian Gothic and Female Gothic Queer Gothic and Science Fiction This is provided in over 200 often substantial and always intriguing entries More can be found in a detailed bibliography including general works but also more specialized ones on different styles and genres and also specific authors This book should certainly interest the fans but also more serious researchers

The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book

The Lady with the Dog and Other Stories Anton Pavlovich Chekhov, 2019-11-19 In The Lady with the Dog and Other Stories Anton Pavlovich Chekhov masterfully weaves a tapestry of human experience through poignant and incisive narratives This collection showcases Chekhov's hallmark blend of realism and psychological depth capturing the nuances of everyday life and the complexities of interpersonal relationships Through tales rich in subtext and emotion such as the titular story Chekhov explores themes of love infidelity and moral ambiguity presenting characters who grapple with their desires in a rapidly changing society The stories embrace Chekhov's distinctive economy of language allowing for both subtlety and profound insight into the human condition Chekhov a physician by training often drew from his observations of the human psyche and societal dynamics enriching his literary works with a wealth of lived experience His writing reflects a profound empathy for his characters revealing the struggles and disappointments faced by individuals in late 19th century Russia Chekhov's ability to portray the ordinary with extraordinary depth can be linked to his own life experiences where the intersection of personal and professional realms heavily influenced his thematic concerns This collection is a must read for lovers of literature who appreciate nuanced storytelling and compelling character studies Chekhov's skillful juxtaposition of the mundane with the profound invites readers to delve into the subtleties of emotion and morality Engaging and thought provoking The Lady with the Dog and Other Stories remains a timeless exploration of the human heart leaving an indelible mark on the landscape of world literature

Familial Properties Nhung Tuyet Tran, 2018-05-31 Familial Properties is the first full length history of Vietnamese gender relations in the precolonial period Author Nhung Tuyet Tran shows how despite the bias in law and practice of a patrilineal society based on primogeniture some women were able to manipulate the system to their own advantage Women succeeded in taking pragmatic advantage of socioeconomic turmoil during a time of war and chaos to acquire wealth and to some extent control what happened to their property Drawing from legal literary and religious sources written in the demotic script classical Chinese and European languages Tran argues that beginning in the fifteenth century state and local communities produced laws and morality codes limiting women's participation in social life Then in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries economic and political turmoil led the three competing states the Mac Trinh and Nguyen to increase their military service demands producing labor shortages in the fields and markets of the countryside Women filled the vacuum left by their brothers husbands and fathers and as they worked the lands and tended the markets they accumulated monetary capital To protect that capital they circumvented local practice and state law guaranteeing patrilineal inheritance rights by soliciting the cooperation of male leaders In exchange for monetary and landed donations to the local community these women were elected to become spiritual patrons of the community whose souls would be forever preserved by collective offering By tracing how the women local leaders and court elites negotiated gender models to demarcate their authority Tran demonstrates that despite the Confucian ethos of the times survival strategies were able to subvert gender norms and create new cultural models Gender thus as a signifier of power relations was central to the relationship between state and local communities in early modern Vietnam Rich and detailed in its use of documentary evidence from a range of archives this work will be of great interest to scholars of Southeast Asian history and the comparative study of gender
