

Jay Gatsby- The monologue occurs just before the lunch at the Buchanan's, where Daisy will tell Tom that she never loved him.

Gatsby Monologue

Gatsby wipes the sweat off his forehead as he enters the room.

What a steaming hot day!

Gatsby crosses his leg while sitting in a grand couch.

Today is the day, old sport. Today is the day. Daisy is ready. Ready to tell Tom that she never loved him, that she always loved me. I can finally go back to the start and recapture the past. The moment I met Daisy, I committed myself to her and poured my endless love into our relationship.

Gatsby admires a vase of flowers, while delicately stroking it.

Daisy...as sweet as the flower itself, my darling Daisy. When I think about Daisy, I think about her warm, innocent smile, and her low, thrilling voice. That excites every sense in my body. It reminds me of the beautiful moment our lips touched, and she blossomed for me like a flower.

When I first laid my eyes on Daisy, five years ago, she was gorgeous in her beautiful white dress. She was the first nice girl; I had ever known. As our courtship went on, I didn't realise just how extraordinary a nice girl could be. The moment I kissed her curious and lovely mouth, I knew I had wedded all my hopes and dreams to her. We were in love. But after the war, I had lost her... to Tom Buchanan.

Gatsby moves from the couch.
